Bears blanked, 20-0

The DAILY W NEBRASKAN Official Newspaper Of More Than 7,000 Students

. Maybe this helped

Vol. 39, No. 25

Lincoln, Nebraska

Homecoming decorations due Oct. 25

Displays for Kansas game Nov. 11 must not cost more than $25

Entries in the 1939 Homecoming decorations contest must be filed in the office of John Selleck, athletics business manager, by 5 p. m. Wednesday, Oct. 25, according to information released yesterday by the Innocents decoration committee. Any house is eligible to enter the decorations contest for the Nov. 11 Homecoming game with Kansas U.

The displays will be judged on the evening of the Homecoming day on the basis of originality, effort and general effect, and silver loving cups will be awarded to the wining sorority and fraternity. The judging committee will be composed of three Innocents, a professor from the fine arts school and a Lincoln artist. The amount which may be expended on a diswhich may be expended on a dis-play is limited to $25. Each house entering the contest must keep an itemized list display expendiitemized list of its display expenditures and submit this list before the eve of the contest.

Revived in 1934.

Since 1934 when the Homecoming decorations contest was revived by the Innocents Society, the number of entries has steadily increased. Last year 16 sororities and 18 fraternities entered the contest, each one trying to outdo the others in discouraging the Missouri Tigers. Members of the Innocents committee, Merrill Englund, Robert Waugh and Orval Hager, expect this year's contest See HOMECOMING, page 4.

Lincoln Journal and Star. . in cheering the crowd on to victory ... the Baylor bonfire leaps high in the sky at Friday night's pep pow-wow . . . Farm formal

Election, presentation of Ag queen will climax affair Friday night

Tickets went on sale for Farmers formal Friday as arrangements for the affair swung into the final week. The event, scheduled for next Friday evening, will be attracted by the increased feature decorations turning the prizes offered this year for curstudent activities building into a tain act competitors. Board mem-barn, according to Betty Jo Smith bers have listed first prize money and Marvin Kruse, ag exec mem-bers in charge. Dick Mills and his in the curtain act division. Time

"Southern Swing Boys" will play. Rhoda Chesley and Will Pitner, utes. ag exec members in charge of

Hopp, Rohrig, R. Prochaska figure in Nebraska's scoring

Husker line outcharges big Bear forward wall; NU markers come early in first, third periods

By John McDermott.

Nebraska's Cornhuskers struck fast in the first and third quarters yesterday to feature the Huskers' 20-0 win over Baylor in schools on the gridiron A strong third quarter offense which netted two touchdowns in eight and on ehalf minutes sewed up the game for the Huskers who had tallied in the first six minutes of play. The Husker line completely sur-

RAY PROCHASKA Journal and Star. passed the highly-touted front wall of the Bruins, and held the Bears running attack to a few short gains, as Nebraska remained undefeated.

Hopp scores.

HERMAN ROHRIG HARRY HOPP urnal and Star. 20. A few plays later, after an exchange of punts Hopp attempted a field goal from the 45, but the from Herman Rohrig to Ray Prochaska got the other two Husker touchdowns as Nebraska's passing (Continued on Page 3.)

Awgwan out tomorrow

Annual 'football' issue

be held in social sciences audi-See LOEWENSTEIN, page 2. Coll-Agri-Fun skit plans due at 5 Monday

German historian and author to conduct four

week course on Europe

Prince Hubertus zu Loewenstein, noted German historian and author, who has studied European problems at the universities of

Florence, Geneva, Berlin and conduct a four week course on present day Europe. Lectures will

Board offers prizes of $7, $5 and $3 for best curtain acts

Deadline for skit plans to be entered in Coll-Agri-Fun is Monday evening at 5 o'clock, Louise Turner, manager, announced today. Outlines of the skits, presenting the idea, type, and names of persons appearing should be set up so that board members can select those that appear to be qualified for presentation Nov. 18.

All the first class musical talent on ag campus is expected to

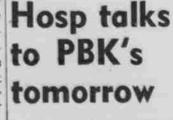

Sunday, October 22, 1939 Kosmet Klub extends entry Prince opens deadline date lecture series Monday at 4

Fall review skits must be submitted by 5 p.m. Tuesday, Proffit says

Deadline for entries in the Kosmet Klub annual Fall Revue has been extended to Tuesday at 5 o'clock. Roy Proffitt, president, stated that this is the absolute limit and no further entries will be accepted after that time. All en-Hamburg, beginning Monday will tries for Nebraska Sweetheart should be taken to the Kosmet Klub office immediately.

Judging of the skits will begin Tuesday evening. This is a pre-liminary judging according to Proffitt. Later judgings which are ka in the first period, and passes to be more exacting will be held later, but as yet the dates have not been set.

Entries to be filed for the Revue

Dean of women tells views of education at first fall meeting

"A View of Education in Penal Institutions" will be discussed by Miss Helen Hosp, dean of women, for the first fall meeting of Phi Beta Kappa tomorrow night in should include, if possible, the number and names of the persons to participate, the general theme of the skit, and the phone number and name of the skit master. Skits may be either full length or curtain acts which are necessarily shorter, and winning entries as judged by audience applause will be awarded silver trophies.

near Dacnman

Chemists

Cancer specialist appears tomorrow

Dr. Werner E. Bachmann of the University of Michigan department of chemistry will address the file for Farmers formal queen are and third prize, $2. Each skit en-first fall meeting of the Nebraska to meet in Ag hall Tuesday at 5 tered is allowed $2 for expenses. section of the American Chemical p. m., Gwen Jack and Oscar Tegtsociety at 7:30 p. m. tomorrow in meler, in charge of the queen's tory

"Cancer Producing Compounds," a night of the formal, with men vot- the annual ag stunt night is high subject of special interest to chem- ing from 8:30 to 9:30, with the ists as well as members of the queen to be presented at about zations have signified intentions of medical profession. He will tell 10 o'clock. about the discovery of cancer producing compounds, the relation between chemical structure and carcinogenic activity, the synthesis of certain of these compounds, and recent work with various substances which are used in the cure of cancer. The lecture is open to the public.

The Michigan chemist has been a Rockefeller foundation and a Guggenheim memorial foundation fellow, and has been the recipient of the Henry Russel award.

McCarthy chosen NLA president

Stephen A. McCarthy, assistant director of the university library, was elected president of the Nebraska Library Association Friday at the annual meeting of the group held in Hastings. Other officers elected were: Mrs. Ellen D. Smith, Hastings, vice-president; Miss Laurine Anderson, Auburn, treasurer, and Miss Mildred Palmer, Fremont, secretary.

During the past week Mr. Mc-Carthy published reviews of some of the library's new books in the DAILY.

a couple. All attendants must

Time limit in the skit division ticket sales, selected their student is 12 minutes for each entry, with wear costume and one of each won three times by one organizacouple must be from ag campus. tion before it becomes a perma-All senior girls who expect to nent trophy. Second prize is $4 Miss Turner emphasized the importance of all organizations on the lecture room of Avery labora- presentation, said. Election and the campus meeting the deadline The visiting speaker will discuss of the evening, will be done the Oct. 31. She said that interest in and that nearly all campus organientering.

Niemann' controversy awaits clarification

the Union.

She heads a program list salesmen Friday. Prices for the skits that take only ten minutes planned for the entire year, as formal this year will be 75 cents preferred. The winner receives the recently announced by Secretary Coll-Agri-Fun cup, which must be Clifford Hicks. E. Schultz is slated to appear Dec. 5, and on Feb. 12 Prof. D. C. Cabeen will speak on "The French and the American Revolution." In March Phi Beta Kappa and Sigma Xi will meet jointly, and April 30 has been set for the annual PBK initiation.

Committee arranging the year's program included the chapter of- school product. ficere Gertrude Moore, J. O. Hertzler, Hicks and Armand Hunter, and Margaret Cannell and A. R. Congdon.

teatures new authors

Awgwan's annual football issue goes on sale tomorrow, featuring several new writers and cartoonists as well as stories by old contributors.

"An Announcer's Nightmare" is by a freshman, Dick Gellatly. "We See the Game" by Betty Jo Byllesby, reconts the attitudes of two types of girl at a football game, the corn-fed type and the girls'

Elizabeth Callaway, cover artist, and Ralph Combes, who drew several of the cartoons in the issue, are new staff members. Other features include a story by George Frischer, telling the heartbreak in the return to his alma mater of a former B. M. O. C.

Editors announce that the November issue of the Awgwan will be concerned with "The Women."

Lincoin Journal and Star. GAYLE C. WALKER it's a tempest in a teapot

A lull was evident yesterday in the controversy between Harold Nlemann, suspended editor of the DAILY, and the publications board headed by Gayle C. Walker.

The disagreement began when Niemann wrote and published a story concerning the action of the university senate. His story scooped all other papers in the state who had agreed to hold the story until Sunday, while Niemann, who did not receive the story from the editorial and publicity office until Saturday afternoon, published the story on Friday.

Immediately the Lincoln newspapers protested to university officials. Editor Niemann was then called before the publications board and was reprimanded for his actions as well as being placed on probation.

In defense of his actions Niemann stated that the DAILY does not compete with the city or out-state papers. He said that Lincoln people do not read the university paper for news regarding the uni-See NIEMANN, page 2.

World Herald photo this thing is getting out of bounds . . .

