Baylor boys disrupt calm, but fun goes on just the same to think what a week of Baylor accents would do to good old NU when after two days people are saying "youall" with a nasal twang. Four or five of the Baylor team lay in wait at the Drug all Friday morning for someone to take bets. Baylor rooters, visiting at various fraternity houses, were proving quite an amusement for the boys. Six Baylor rooters crashed the Tri Delt-Sig Ep hour dance on Friday.

WE DREAD

THE BOYS

in the Bantam car with the Pennsylvania license broke up the hour dance at the Kappa Delt house Friday night, when they parked on the front steps. The Beta Sigs came to the rescue and helped carry it away.

THE PHI GAM'S

appeared to be ready to go to war or what have you with the house banked by sandbags and air raid shelter paraphernalia—they should have an authority in the person of John Kerl, who spent the summer in Europe and got much first hand information. Seen at the Phi Gam party was Claudine Burt, Tri Delt, and Hugh Eisenhart; and Didi McClellan with Louie Leigh.

THE THEME of the Pi Phi party was that of a movie premier. Spotlights played on the approaching guests and a loud speaker system announced the entering guests. The movies were moving pictures taken of the people at the party.

AMONG THOSE

seen at the Phi Delt party were Culiver Brooks and Sarah Fields.

CHANCELLOR

and Mrs. C. S. Boucher were hosts at Saturday luncheon and the Nebraska-Baylor football game to Mr. and Mrs. John S. Callan of Odell, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Diers of Gresham, and Mr. and Mrs. W. Dale Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Mullen of Omaha. Mr. Callan and Mr. Diers were members of the last unicameral legislature, while Mr. Mullen and Mr. Clark are Burlington railroad officials.

12 PHI PSI'S

and dates found Friday night good picnic weather. Among those present were Marjorie Melville, KKG, and Bernie Johnston; Mary Stuart, DG, and Jack Morrow; Ann Craft, KKG, and Bob O'Connell; and Jane Austin, DG, and Bill Pugsley.

KAPPAS

Mary Lou Ball and Kay Tunison with Bob and Chuck Pillsbury; Marjorie Runyan and George Souder attended the Beta house party.

ALPHA PHI'S

who attended Saturday house parties after the game yesterday were Betty Purdham and Bob Wekeser, DU; Shirley Heldt and Millard Cluck, Sig Alph; Mary Bird with Joe Ryan, Phi Delt, and Dorothy Tipton with Lauren Barnaby, Phi Delt.

Hall presents new director

Introducing Miss Katherine Hendy, new social director of Raymond hall, a tea will be held Sunday afternoon from 3:30 to 5:30 by the girls of Raymond and Love halls. Fraternity and sorority house mothers, sorority presidents, those in the dean of women's office, and the residents of the halls will attend.

Homecoming--

to continue the trend to be the "biggest and best ever."

The word "Victory" spelled out in large blocks of ice won first place among the sororities for the Delta Gamma's last year. The Sigma Nu's vociferous Tarzan which swung to and fro dangled a ruined Missouri Tiger placed first among the fraternities. Kappa Alpha Theta's "fire" display and the Sim Sig Alph's balloon were given second place awards last fall.

Sinfonia expects 85

Men's music group rushes today, 3 to 5

More than 85 men students are expected to attend a Sinfonia rush reception to be held from 3 to 5 today in parlors A and B of the Student Union.

Dr. Arthur E. Westbrook, director of the school of fine arts and member of the national executive committee of Phi Mu Alpha, Sinfonia, men's professional music fraternity, will be guest speaker. He will discuss the "History and Aims of Sinfonia."

Edward Edison, engineering college junior, will demonstrate his system of sound equipment, and several recordings of the varsity band, made by NBC during the National Farm and Home hour broadcast on the campus last spring, will be heard.

Additional entertainment will include a vocal solo, The Pilgrim's Song by Tschaiakowsky, by Richard Morse. He will be accompanied by Warren Hammel. Don Hartman will also play a flute solo, "Andante and Scherzo" by Ganne.

Richard White, Upsilon chapter president, will tell of the activities sponsored by the fraternity on the Nebraska campus. Refreshments will be served.

Rootin' shootin' Baylor boys bring Texas to Huskerland

"Yippee!"

"Ride 'em, cowboy!"

With terrifying cries, shouts of defiance, shooting of cap pistols, tooting of horns, and a general melee of noise and enthusiasm, more than a hundred Baylor rooters in colorful Texas regalia descended on the campus Saturday morning. It looked for a while as though Texas had decided to take over the university and use it to graze cattle.

About fifteen cars, driving with a speed that caused city cops to swallow hard, tooted raucously through the streets of downtown Lincoln. The occupants made it rather definitely known that Baylor intended to beat Nebraska. At this writing, nobody knows the outcome but, win or lose, Baylor's student enthusiasm has a spontaneity that's intriguing.

The roundup made a chuck wagon out of the Corn Cr'b. Their capacity for cokes, supplied to the Bears by Kenneth Van Sant, Union director, was only out-dazzled by their ability to sing "Wide Open Spaces" to the accompaniment of the nickel-in-the-slot phonograph.

Several of the Bears jitterbugged in the aisles while other followers encouraged them with cowboyesque cries that shook the rafters. The hallway in the Union was blocked with interested spectators.

The wide, gray sombreros, colorful yellow or red shirts, and high heeled boots of the Texas invaders added a touch of the unusual to the campus Friday and Saturday. With their Texan accents as broad as their hats, the Baylor boys and girls are likely to be remembered for a spell around these parts.
