Military preparedness, policy of coeds as formals approach the fact that today heralds the opening of November, and that makes it over a month until the Military Ball there are many girls who believe in being prepared. Perhaps the coming election for Honorary Colonel has some effect on the future combinations. At any rate, preliminary arrangements for the big event include Rosanne Sheehan, KKG, and Bob Brust, Phi Psi; Ruth Lavender, Gamma Phi, and Steve Davis; Betty Mallo and Jim Jones, Sigma Nu; Pat Wilson, Alpha Phi, and ATO Max Meyers; Ann Weaver, KKG, and Jack Nelson, DU; John Spence, Sigma Nu, and Betty Ann Nichols, KKG; Marion Jones, Theta pledge, and Houghton Furr, Beta; Shirley Hoffman, KKG, and Bob Rydman, Phi Psi; Pat Prime, Alpha Phi, and Maurice Miller; Harriet Hedelund, Alpha Phi, and Gilbert Holmes; Marcella Bauer, Alpha Phi, and Dave Christie, ATO; Mary Lou Johnson, DG pledge, and Carl Olenberger, Phi Gam.

DESPITE

MONDAY NIGHT

brought two candy passings. Jack Reed, Theta, and Don Moore, Kappa Sigma, concluded a three year wait with a big candy passing. The result was hilarious. At the Chi Phi buffet supper there was a candy passing worth noting when Barbara Clark and Joe Saunders came through.

Tanksterettes are having a picnic for the new pledges at the W. A. A. cabin. Formal pledging will follow the picnic dinner.

appears to be greatly engrossed for the next week in hour dances, exchanges, dinners, initiations and pledgings—and last but not least Mother's club meetings, but the general atmosphere concerning these activities does not carry the enthusiasm found when the week-end comes around. Phi Mu pledged Betty Hackman and Lucille Wiggins; Gamma Phi Beta pledged Mary Ellen McCracken, and Kappa Delta pledged Anna Margaret Lipp. Delta Sigma Pi announces the formal pledging of Max Bergen and Bill Turney. Initiation at the Delta Sigma Pi house included Dick Allgood, John Becker, Ray Carlisle, Stan Markytan, Eric Riisness, Bob Westfall, Don Rector and Vernon Wiebusch.

AFTER HAVING

her picture appear in the Collegiate Digest Yvonne Costello, Chi O, received letters from boys at Notre Dame, Villanova, Leigh, Niagara university and Springfield college. Yvonne was elected as queen of Brownson hall at Notre Dame by the residents, who each semester choose a coed whose picture appears in the Digest to reign as their queen.

hour dances include the Delta Gamma-Delta Upsilon on Friday night; AOPi-Delta Upsilon on Saturday night. The Sig Eps have a dorm hour dance on Friday and Phi Phi on Saturday. The Gamma Phis have a Phi Gam hour dance on Friday and Phi Psi on Saturday. The Tri Deltis will have a Phi Psi hour dance on Friday and Farm House on Saturday.

EXCHANGE DINNERS

will include the DU-KKG dinner; Alpha Phi-ATO's; and Tri-Delt-Sigma Nu's tonight.

The Alpha Phi mothers club held a bridge-benefit on Tuesday afternoon to raise funds to decorate the room at the chapter house reserved especially for town girls. On Thursday the Sigma Chi mothers club will meet for a 1 o'clock luncheon. Also on Thursday the Chi Omega mothers club will meet for a 1 o'clock dessert luncheon. Mrs. R. L. Cochran will speak on the history of Chi Omega.

A CANDLE LIT

church wedding formed the background for Miss Irene Louthan, Kimball, and Mr. Bernard Tomich, Bushnell, when they were united in marriage at the Presbyterian church in Kimball at 4:30 p. m. with Rev. John Weston officiating.

Baseball--

coln, first baseman; Dick Joyce, Lincoln, and Al Schmode, Winside, catchers; and John McDermott, Grand Island, outfielder. Lawrence Anderson, Wolbach, regular right fielder on last year's squad is not in school this semester but he will return to his post next spring.

Wilson back.
Except for pitchers and centerfielders, Coach Knight can put on an experienced team on the diamond. With Joyce and Schmode both lettermen and the old dependable Wilson and LaMaster at second and shortstop, respectively, the center line of defense looks good.

Hurley, Gilmore, Held, Garey, Jackson, Ray, Pollock, Van Buskirk, Heming, Ockerman and Schoening are the leaders from last year's promising freshman team and holdovers from the varsity team. The pick of these men will replace the seniors on last year's squad.

The schedule for next spring has not yet been announced but conference games will be played with Kansas, Kansas State, Missouri, Iowa State and Oklahoma of the Big Six. Non-conference games may include a spring vacation trip to Texas university, and Texas A. and M. Tentative plans for a game with Minnesota may materialize.

Varsity men checking out equipment were: First base, Rubino, Lincoln; Lonquist, Waverly; Buell, Bassett; Ganz, Alvo, and Pollock, Fremont. Second base, Schoening, Lester, Ia.; Wilson, Dow City, Ia.; Third base, Essman, DeWitt. Outfielders; Gilmore, Lincoln; Van Buskirk, Worland, Wyo.; Boye, Omaha; Gabelman, Tilden; Stron, Plymouth; Grovert, Lincoln; McDermott, Grand Island; Hurley, Ohioa; Ockerman, Lincoln. Pitchers, Truscott, Omaha; Garey, Lincoln; Tegtmeyer, Burchard; Bauer, Lincoln. Catchers, Schmode, Winside; Gillespie, Lincoln; Joyce, Lincoln; C. Schmadeke, Newman Grove; Heming, Chappell. Shortstop, Doyle, Red Cloud; LaMaster, Elm Creek.

THROUGH THE

INTIMATE LETTERS

of Helen Hayes' mother to Helen Hayes' daughter about

Helen Hayes

Here is a unique story: what the outsider does not see of Helen Hayes, the anecdotes the world hasn't heard. Here, as Helen Hayes' mother says, is "every little thing I can recall about my Helen Hayes" ...In a series of letters called Mary, This Is Your Mother, she reveals to her granddaughter (and to Post readers) the struggles and glamorous career of America's great actress, who has spent thirty-four of her thirty-nine years in the theater and "on the road." First of eight parts—this week.

IN THIS SAME ISSUE

A half hour of excitement: Harold Channing Wire's yarn Glory Hole about a cave-in 1700 feet down! (Too bad they'd fired the lad they thought was "yellow," the only man who had the key to the rescue....)

AND a lively story of a girl reporter who went out to cover the races and ran into a story with a real news angle—when she fell in love with a gentleman rider, and he walked away!

MORE spine chills in the climax of Alec Hudson's vivid and authentic submarine war story, Battle Stations.

PLUS... an article, The Great Red Father, by W.G. Krivitsky, on the bloody undercover work of the Comintern in Germany; and If You Must Borrow—by Lowell Brentano. (Attention—students low on their pocket money!) Also stories by Zachary Gold and William Faulkner, poems, editorials, cartoons.

LILY-WHITE FOOTBALL or PLAY FOR PAY?

Why isn't a student who works on the football field for the profit of his school just as much entitled to pay as janitors or secretaries—particularly since the college gets a bigger return for his labors? Francis Wallace, sports authority, this week in the Post reveals the facts about the tug-of-war at the University of Pittsburgh between simon pure Chancellor Bowman and the rooters for Coach Sutherland, now ex-coach. You'll see what happens when a college tries to back out of the play-for-pay business.
