

SOCIETY

Stay-at-homes offered three parties here

Sigma Kappa, Kappa Sigs, Alpha Phis hold open houses, dances.

Three house parties hold the spotlight for those who find the campus the more healthful weekend recreation. The theme of the Sigma Kappa party on Saturday night will be the "Stardust" party; a stairway to the sky the main decoration. Among those who plan to attend are Wilma Jones with John Beckwith, Farm House; Delores Storjohann with Russ Reid, AGR; Jewel Tinker with George Gostas, and Barbara Marston with Bob Evans, SAE.

KAPPA SIGS

will hold their annual barn dance—as always an open party—on Saturday night. Among couples attending are Fritz Almstead and Betty Jean Ferguson, Chi Omega; Rex Crews and Eileen Davidson, Chi Omega; Bob Rothwell and Janet Shaw, AOPi, and Bob Flory and Helen Pascoe, Chi Omega. The dates may receive a surprise in the form of hayracks as conveyances, and the entrance will land the couples in a haymow.

ALPHA PHIS

are also staying home from the Missouri game in order to prepare for their big house party on Saturday. The theme will be "Fiesta Life on a Dude Ranch"; all those attending will wear sweaters, skirts or slacks, and cowboy boots and hats. Saddles, lassos, and ten gallon hats will decorate the house, and the five piece orchestra will be dressed as cowboys. Barbara Beerman and John Gayer, Alpha Sigma Phi; Virginia Way and Ed Keating; Gigs Bergman and John DePutrom, DU; Betty Lou Wentz and John Spence, Sigma Nu, and Florence Moll and Dow Wilson, Delta, will be among those attending.

COLUMBIA

fans will be able to celebrate the victory we're counting on at Tommy Dorsey. Today adds to the list of those who plan to support the team in person. Emily Hess and Lois Friedbach, Thetas, are going to Columbia with Bill Fox and Brandy Backlund, Phi Deltas. Phi Gam Bill Hines will meet his father in Kansas City and go on to Columbia from there with him.

LEAVING FOR

Columbia at 2 p. m. on Friday are Frances Vaughn and Kay Donovan. June Bierbower, who will also attend the Mizou game, will join them in staying at the Phi Mu house.

PIN-HANGINGS

and candy passings featured the week. AGR's Russell Pfeiffer's pin is now the property of Katherine Titterington. Theta Xi Gordon Worley left his pin with a Chi Omega from University of Maine this summer—thus putting him off the list of "eligible bachelors". Bill Iverson, ATO, announced his engagement to Miss Elizabeth Huette of Aurora. The stooges claim that Betty Clark, AOPi, and Ed Steckley, Sig Ep, will pass the candy on Monday.

ELIZABETH WAUGH, KKG

will spend the weekend in Omaha. Winifred Martin, also KKG, will attend Doane homecoming.

Dating in Lincoln, but with no particular plans, are Delta Gamma Mary Lou Johnson and Harold Swan, Phi Psi; Marg Krause and Bill Wellinger, Sig Alph, and Pat Frank and Doc Elias, Beta.

SIGMA KAPPAS

have an hour dance on Friday with the Betas; on Saturday with the Kappa Sigs. The Phi Mus and Acacia have an hour dance on Saturday; the AGRs and Phi Phis also on Saturday—the AGRs will also have an exchange dinner at Loomis hall on Friday night.

Acacia announces the pledging of Bob Slemmons, Lee Pelton and Bill Dean.

The Harvard university chapter of Phi Beta Kappa has voted to have "spirituous liquors" at its annual banquets.

Now that we've covered socks, let's consider shoes

Angora bobby socks, half socks and the new knee length imports from the girls' schools have been long holding the spotlight, but now it is about time to consider those props and soles that keep us off the ground, namely shoes.

Definitely anti "flats", or to the uninitiated, crepe-soled shoes, is Betty Roach, Pi Phi. And, her criticism isn't at all destructive, because she has substituted some of the best-looking shoes seen on this campus for many a day. The toes and heels are in practical brown leather while the rest of the shoes in the new elasticized leather, fits snugly. Down the sides of the shoes are two little brown and white buttons complete with buttonholes.

And peek-a-boo toes

Betty Wolfers, Theta, blossoms out in what threatens to be a new classic; ultra-smart black alligator pumps with peek-a-boo toes.

Another Theta sister, Betty Jackson, goes to classes in pumps. The high brown alligator heels and toes and the rich brown suede of the rest of the shoe are typical campus favorites this year.

Mary Byrd, Alpha Phi, streaks to class in a flash of color. The orange binding around the brown suede vamp and the novel orange platform heels make her shoes decidedly different.

"Flats" from Vogue Also in "flats" which are straight from the pages of Vogue is Jo Ley, AOPi. Hers are of Paris tan with very thick soles. There is nothing ordinary about these shoes, which lace with leather thongs.

Kappas Helen Louise Cather and Mary Louise Kelly are simple and sophisticated; Helen Louise in egg-shell tan laces with very high heels and open toes, and Mary Louise in grey snakeskin and black suede ties. The heels are high and both toes and heels are of the snakeskin.

Betty Flory, Chi prexy, wears built up black suede pumps with a high vamp. Across the toes are three gabardine straps.

ADMINISTRATION - -

dents would be run to the ground.

Barbara York, teachers freshman

Yes. After all, this place is run mainly for the benefit of the student so why shouldn't we have just a little bit to say about what to do. When a person is at the age of an average collegian, he should possess most of the qualities that come with maturity. If we can't run things here, what are we going to do when we get out?

Jim Ivins, law college senior Absolutely not. What can a student know of the administrative policy of the university. The student, it has been proven, has enough difficulties of his own without bothering with something that can be handled much more efficiently by others.

Jean Reed, bizad senior

It seems rather foolish to say whether we should or should not, when the real issue is if we can or cannot. Theoretically I believe the student should be relied on more than he is for administration of things that are not only directly related to the student. The Council for instance should have a voice of its own rather than being a Charlie McCarthy for someone else.

Byron Salem, bizad sophomore

How can they have "more" power when they don't have any. Since the university is run partly for the students I think they should have something to say. To accomplish this end I believe the Council should enlarge its authority rather than inaugurate some new administrative group.

Myanard Swartz, bizad junior

Gosh no! They have enough now. I think the Student Council is more than sufficient to handle the affairs of the student. All the members of the Council have to do now is to fight among themselves.

Stanley Truhlsen, bizad junior

Yes, first of all the Student Council should be enlarged to give better representation of the campus. After that, more powers of an administrative nature should be delegated to that body.

Victory whoops startle bathers in far Waikiki

Palm trees were waving in the tropical breeze and the sun was beating down on the beach of Waikiki, when suddenly all the sun-bathing Hawaiians were startled by a wild war whoop and a cheer. They looked around and saw Martin Oelrich, cadet colonel at Nebraska last year, and now second lieutenant with the U. S. marines on the islands, cheering and waving his arms.

The reason for the outburst: The radio on the beach had just announced, "Nebraska 6, Minnesota 0, final score."
