

Candy passings come forth; Alpha Chis honor Rutledge

One of the all too infrequent candy passings occurred on Monday night to the delight of the DE chapter, whose Bob Bailey is now informally engaged to Margaret Mead. And at the Tri Delt house Lois Enyeart and Milton Ebers, former AGR, came thru with the sweets, too.

CENTER

of news this week lies in the round of national officers' visits and Founder's Day banquets. As to the former: Mrs. Richard Rutledge of Tulsa, Okl., who is the western councillor for Alpha Chi Omega—and Mrs. Maynard Buchanan, the province president, are visiting the local chapter. On Wednesday afternoon the Alpha Chi's are entertaining at a tea from 3:30-5:30, to which the dean of women's staff; the Mortar Boards, sorority presidents and chaperons are invited. Mrs. Rutledge will leave on Thursday.

TRI DELTA

will have a Founder's Day banquet in the Georgian room of the Cornhusker hotel on Saturday, November 18th. The toastmistress for the evening is Mrs. John Pfanner. Using the four seasons as the theme, Tri Delt speakers will include Ruth Grant, Rachel Robertson, and Mrs. C. Myron Loomis. The pledge class will provide entertainment with songs and acts. The presentation of the scholarship cup will be made at the dinner. Chairman of the banquet committee is Sarah Fields.

Alumnae of Delta Gamma entertained the pledge class on Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Clarence Davis for dinner. Mrs. Glen Foe was chairman of the occasion and was assisted by Mesdames Ruth Raymond Gavin, Merle Rathburn, Arthur Raymond and Frank Woods.

MOTHER'S

who are meeting include the Sigma Phi Epsilon mother's club at the chapter house yesterday afternoon. The Alpha Phi Mother's club held a meeting on Tuesday, too. As entertainment, Mr. John DePutron showed moving pictures of the girls. On Monday afternoon the Tri Delt Mother's club held a buffet luncheon.

We heard two ATO actives, Bill Horne and Bill Wiley teach Sunday school. Bill Horne entertains his class with cowboy stories.

ANOTHER TYPE

of 'Ball' takes place on Nov. 18th—the Engineer's ball. Among those attending will be Mary Eileen O'Donnell, Kappa Delta, with Fred Klug, Theta Xi; and Beth Schroeder, Alpha Chi, with Royal

Prizes will be presented to the firsts in individual and team sales at freshman A. W. S. meeting tomorrow at 5 in Ellen Smith. The individual high of 700 was not as high as it has been in some years.

Proceeds from the sale of the N stamps go for printing the registration records used in women's organized houses, to help print "Hi, Freshie" booklets which are sent out to freshmen before school starts in the fall, to finance the all-activities tea, the A. W. S. tea dance and judges and cups for the Ivy Day sing.

notice. This arming may be an indication that the loudly proclaimed success of the British navy in driving the Germans from the sea is not as complete as the allies desire.

The Belgian-Dutch mediation offer has received the courteous "no-thank-you's" which were expected from both sides. Now observers are wondering if the move was not merely a disguise for united action by the two neutrals to safeguard their safety. Belgium has long realized that effective help for Holland should she be attacked would have to go thru her land, and that if Holland were subdued she would be the next and an easy victim. The Belgians having at last decided that Holland's safety is of Belgian concern.

Rumors persist that a fully equipped German army is on the Dutch border and international guess-makers long ago decided that the first powerful offensive would very likely come thru the low lands. It is this feeling which has alarmed King Leopold and Queen Wilhelmina and now it appears the two are preparing to work out their destiny jointly.

Was it the ex-kaiser?

The story that the ex-kaiser was behind the recent attempt on Hitler's life is now being circulated. Part of the rumor says that the nazis have executed a dozen monarchists, including the kaiser's playboy grandson, Prince Frederick of Prussia, for suspected part in the bombing. The rumor bears marks of being pure fabrication.

The allies this week announced that the resurrection of Austria, Czechoslovakia and Poland as part of their war aims. Should the allies be successful in securing a new and different government in Berlin, it appears they will not permit Austria to remain a part of Germany. That they have long and loudly preached self-termination and that for years the Austrians have wished Anschluss doesn't ring a bell in their memory. All they hear is the protest of those Austrians who disliked the nazi government.

10 WAYS TO HAVE A GOOD TIME FOR 5¢

Any one good time for a nickel would be a bargain. But in this week's Post, you get at least ten kinds of entertainment, and a lot of timely information, all for 5 cents!

6. PLAY GOLF WITHOUT AGONY. Ever play with somebody who keeps quoting rules—in his favor? Read Frank Bunc's story, Fore!, of the sweet young thing in red shirt and shorts who got even with the club's most formidable player—by being up on rules we bet most golfers haven't even heard of!

7. SHARE YOUR PLEASURE in the Post with others. Tell them how Father Divine produces thousand-dollar bills with the dexterity of a magician, to fool regiments of negro—and white—"angels." You'll learn how when you read Jack Alexander's rollicking article, All Father's Chillun Got Heavens—about the half-pint messiah who admits he is God.

8. GAME OF LOVE: (Played by 4). Is an ambitious wife a spur or a knife in the back to a husband starting in business? Here's the bittersweet story of two husbands whose wives raced for "success." Richard Sherman's Won't You Walk a Little Faster?

9. BE A MAN-ABOUT-TOWN WITHOUT MOVING AN INCH. You can enjoy a personally conducted tour backstage with the First Lady of the Theatre. Read about the time Helen Hayes first met George M. Cohan; the time she played to cowboys; what happened in her first "grown up" part. (It's in the unique story of her life, by her mother, continued in this week's Post. Third part of eight.)

10. FUN IN TAHITI WITH NORDHOFF & HALL. It may be raining or snowing when you take this week's Post home. What do you care? You'll be in Tahiti having a gay time reading Out of Gas, the comic adventures of the Tuttle family. You're in time to catch the second part of this five-part novel, by the authors of those best-sellers, The Hurricane, Mutiny on the Bounty and The Dark River.

1. FOUR-WAY DRAMA. The leading story in this week's Post is recommended for (1) football fans, (2) engaged couples, (3) girls smitten with gridiron stars, and (4) fathers who have sons in love with the wrong girl. Read Yesterday's Heroes, by a new Post writer, William Brent.

2. INFORMATION PIECE. Are you annoyed by people who know "all about the war"? You can silence them by revealing the important secret clause in the Rome-Berlin axis agreement. You'll find it in Demaree Bess' article, Mussolini Prepares for War. A radio dispatch from Geneva.

3. FUN WITH OUR FOUR-FOOTED PALS. Note to Wives: When you see papa polishing his shotgun, quick—get him Vereen Bell's yarn, Brag Dog, to read! He'll end by wanting to own a bird-dog, of course. But you can talk him out of that.

4. HIGH JINKS BETWEEN THE LINES. After the game is over, read Tom Meany's football article, Dixie Plays for Blood. Not that the South fights the Civil War all over again, you understand, but what's a kick in the face if the referee isn't looking? Sizzling football stories retold by a sports writer who's watched the stretchers go by!

5. THE WOMAN IN THE CASE. "His wife doesn't know it, but I hear Professor Lorber has been running around with that good-looking school-teacher!" Is there a girl in your neighborhood the men all like and the women all hate? You'll recall her, definitely, when you read the story on page 18 of this week's Post, But Love the Sinner, by Eve Bennett.

ENCORE! Don't miss the editorial on page 22, A Chance to Go to Work. And fourteen swell cartoons. And poems (we direct your special attention to one on page 24 entitled For The Agony Column).
