Thetas' Grand President visits Nebraska chapter

IN THE LIMELIGHT
 this week is Mrs. Donald Sinclair, of Toronto, Canada, Grand President of Kappa Alpha Theta. Mrs. Sinclair has been in Lincoln all week—and is being entertained at many festivities in her honor. In the receiving line at the tea on Monday afternoon were Priscilla Chain, active president; Mrs. Sinclair; Mrs. Leonard Skold, alumnae president; Mrs. Co, housemother; and Mrs. James H. Moore, district president. Mrs. C. S. Boucher and Mrs. John C. Whitten poured during the first hour, and Mrs. C. F. Ladd and Mrs. H. E. Flansburg during the second hour. Yesterday evening Mrs. Sinclair was honored at an alumnae dinner at the home of Mrs. George E. Proudfit.

HONORED THIS WEEK
 at the AOPi house will be Miss Dorothy Kenyon, an AOPi, who is now judge of the Municipal court of New York City. She will speak before the Woman's Educational club at the Hotel Cornhusker, on Saturday evening, Nov. 25. Miss Kenyon is a member of many prominent law groups in New York state. In 1938 Miss Kenyon was a member of the League of Nation's Committee on Legal Status of Women. In 1936 Elmer F. Andrews appointed her to do legal work on a committee which hopes to clarify the constitution by amendment. And Frances Perkins, Secretary of Labor, appointed Miss Kenyon as a member of the committee to draft model state law on Consumer Co-operative Corporations in 1937. Miss Kenyon is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and has received an honorary LLD from Kenka College in 1939.

ON TUESDAY
 Mrs. Katherine Brackett, District Governor of Alpha Phi, was honored at an alumnae luncheon at the Student Union. Fall flowers served as table decorations. Evelyn Leavitt, Pi Phi, and Bill

Lyman, DU, passed the candy and cigars on Monday night. The candy arrived at the Pi Phi house in a big toy drum with the announcement printed on the drum head. Charlotte Stahl, Pi Phi, and Bud Rhode, Delt, are joining the ranks of those going steady.

 coming up again. The Tri-Delt's and Alpha Sig's on Friday; Sig Ep-Alpha Xi Delta also on Friday; on Saturday the Sig Ep's have an hour dance with the Alpha Phi's. The Gamma Phi's and DU's have an hour dance slated for Friday; the Sigma Chi's with the Pi Phi's also on Friday; and on Saturday the Gamma Phi's and Theta Xi's.

MILITARY BALL DATES ARE PILING UP --
 at this stage it would appear the entire university will attend. To add to the roll call the following couples are making plans to aid in opening the formal season. Bob Krikac, Sig Ep, and Marion Whitney, Alpha Xi; Betty Gibson, Gamma Phi, and Guy Williams, Acacia. The reigning Nebraska Sweetheart, Beth Howley, will attend with Harold Schrag. Betty Ann Duff, Towne Club president, will be with Evan Evans; Donald White with Marilyn Barr, Betty Rangeler with Jack Donevan, Theta Xi; Virginia Bergsten with Franklin White, Phi Gam. Marion Gibson, DG, and Dick Leask; Alice Wykoff, also DG, and Bob Kiplinger, Phi Psi; Gay Gimple, DG, and Dick Stastny, ATO; and Helen Cather, KKG, and Phil Southwick, Phi Psi, are among the campusites who will be seen together at the ball.

Carl Rapp, PiKA was elected social chairman on Monday night. Alpha Sigma Phi announces the pledging of Melvin Gottschalg and Cliff Hurley. AOPi initiated Dorothy Heumann, Marcia Beckman and Jean Sanders recently.

Williams college students have voted to retain hazing as part of the college's fraternity program.

Yale university has more endowment per student than any other U. S. college or university.

'Hour of Charm' to open Friday

Phil Spitalny's "Hour of Charm" with a 32 member all girls orchestra comes to the Paramount theatre stage in Omaha for a week's entertainment beginning Friday.

Featuring "Three Little Words," a harmony trio of the old south, Rasalinda and Lola, the pair on the grand pianos, and the famous Spitalny all girl glee club, the entertainers hail from 17 different states.

The Paramount will present four stage shows daily along with the current film attractions.

Rally committee holds final slogan contest

An award of one dollar to the student submitting the best pep slogan for the Oklahoma game will be given by the rally committee. All entries in the contest must be turned into the DAILY office by 6 p. m. today.

"MIND IF I GO TO WORK ON YOUR HUSBAND?"

"You don't care, do you, Lily, my pet? Mike doesn't mean anything to you any more, does he?" For eight long years Lily had fought to put this man out of her heart and mind, never mentioning his name because the sound of it hurt. Mike, Mike, why did you have to turn up now?... A modern romance of a girl cheated out of love.

A New Story by MARJORIE KINNAN RAWLINGS

Author of "THE YEARLING"

Some women never do learn the best way to hold a man is to let go—at the right moment. Will Dover's steatopygic wife sagged the scales at 220—but it was her heavy hand that got her in trouble! (Plenty of chuckles in this one!) A short story.

Cocks Must Crow

AND... in the same issue MacKinlay Kantor brings you an emotional short story of the War through the eyes of a boy being evacuated from London, How Happy We Could Be... A prohibition article, The Drys Return to the Wars, by Stanley High... A timely radio dispatch from Shanghai from Hallett Abend, Japan Picks on Uncle Sam... PLUS serials by Nordhoff and Hall, and William Brent, editorials, poems, Post Scripts and 16 swell cartoons... all in this week's Post.
