Evidently the Oklahoma players who took part in the Orange Bowl game last year have had enough out of the season footballing to do them for a while.

Frank Spence, sports editor of the Oklahoma Daily, says in a letter to this column:

"The bowl talk this week had the students more excited than the football players. Jack Jacobs and some of the sophomores seemed anxious, but the seniors seemed to be ready to have the afternoons off for a while.

Dick Fullerton, the Pitt center who was seriously injured when he suffered a brain concussion against Fordham, was released from a hospital last week...he won't be able to attend classes until February...Bob Seymour, Oklahoma fullback, was married last week end...the Robertson who knocked down that fourth down-fourth quarter pass for USC against UCLA is the Bob Robertson who was an all-stater at Central in Omaha five years ago...and our man Charley Brock is still showing the world why he's a great center...he snagged two more passes as Green Bay won the pro championship, one of them as the Giants were threatening to score.

Two freshmen and two varsity players are facing a pretty dreary Christmas vacation...Ed Wibbels, whose football career was terminated, at least temporarily, in the 1938 Iowa State game by a knee injury, has been wearing a brace on his injured knee...he's to take it off by Christmas vacation, and if the knee isn't healed he'll undergo an operation for it...Jerry Prochaska, sub end who was injured this season before he could get in time for a letter, will very probably have to undergo an operation on his knee during vacation...same goes for Bob McNutt, star frosh tackle, who injured a knee this fall...Russ Brehm, frosh back, has a broken cartilage, too, and may have to have an operation during Christmas vacation.

More than one-fourth of the University of Arkansas student body are relatives of graduates or former students of that institution.

Husker cagers to meet strong Indiana team Friday; Huffman captains Hoosiers

Nebraska's basketball team, fresh from a 39-15 drubbing of South Dakota, runs into stiffer competition this week as Indiana's Hoosiers play here Friday night. The Hoosiers are among the early season favorites in the Big Ten, and boast a fine team captained by Marvin Huffman, brother of the former Hoosier football ace.

The Huskers listened to a talk by Coach Browne on the mistakes they made Friday night, and worked on plays against a man to man defense such as the Hoosiers use. Bud Tallman, Harry Pitcaithley, Al Randall, Sid Held and Don Fitz were working on the first unit, as the varsity seconds scrimmaged the "B" team.

Charley Brock stars as Packers win pro crown

According to Jim Gallagher, INS sports writer, Nebraska's Charley Brock, who is playing his first year of pro football with the Green Bay Packers, was the shining light of the pro championship game between Green Bay and the New York Giants which the Packers won, 27 to 0.

Says Mr. Gallagher: "Charley Brock, Green Bay's freshman center from Nebraska, and Larry Craig, freshman end and blocking back, were the standout men on the field. Brock intercepted two passes that meant touchdowns; he tackled Tuffy Leamans to prevent a score; he passed the ball perfectly and blocked like a demon on offense; he tackled viciously."

Green Bay drafts NU's George Seemann

George Seemann, the Huskers' senior end from Omaha, was drafted by the Green Bay Packers, newly crowned professional football champions, Saturday night, as professional grid representatives met to take their pick of the 1939 college crop.

Seemann, who had previously indicated he would be interested in a professional offer, was the only Husker drafted at the meeting. Seemann, who is 6 feet 1 inch tall, and weighs 195, is a fine defensive end, having looked especially good against Oklahoma.

All-school grapple meet set to start

Deadline for entries is today; meet starts tomorrow afternoon

Entries are still being received for the all-university wrestling meet for novice, frosh and non-lettermen grapplers, which will be held tomorrow and Thursday. Today is the last day for entering, and entries are to be placed with the athletic office, equipment room attendant or Coach Jerry Adam.

Gold medals will be awarded to the winners in each division, while runnersup will get silver medals. Competition will be held in the following pound weights: 124, 131, 139, 148, 158, 168, 178 and heavyweight. These weights are three pounds over the regular college weights.

Late entries
Latest entries are Bob McLeod, 178; Joe Martin, 168; Bill Wheeler, 131; Harold Bacon, 138; Bob Sauer, heavyweight; Gines Gabarron, 168. Larry Ferdlund, 135; Marvin Berogen, 145; Frank Bartak, 131; Leon Kaiser, 145; Dwight Burney, 145; Bill Steckelburg, 158, and Fred Henson, 124.

The meet will be held on the varsity mats on the sub-coliseum floor. The scoring will combine the point system and regular collegiate rules, while fraternity championships will be computed.

NU coaches go on tours

Nebraska's coaching staff this week will set out on the annual aftermath of the football season, namely: speaking at football banquets and showing Cornhusker grid pictures.

Major "Biff" Jones, Link Lyman, Glen Presnell, Wilbur Knight, Ed Weir and Rollie Horney, all members of the staff, and Gregg McBride, director of publicity, will make the trips.

The week's schedule:

Thursday—Coaches at "N" club; McBride, Kimball; Horney, Central City; Knight, Barneston; Lyman, Midland.

Three water polo games on today

Sigma Nu rang up the curtain on fraternity water polo competition last Thursday with a 5 to 3 decision over Chi Phi's in League 1. Two other scheduled meets, Acaela and Theta Xi in League 1 and the AGR-ATO fray in League 2, were postponed.

League 3 swings into action today when the Farm House meets the Sig Alphas and the Phi Gams vie with the Phi Deltas. Beta Theta Pi and the DU's, in League 2, also compete today.

Major awards go to 24 gridders

Four Husker players get minor letters; juniors predominate

Major Biff Jones announced major letter awards to 24 Cornhusker football players of the 1939 squad, and minor letters to four other men.

Jones' first two teams, along with Center Fred Meier and Fullback Adna Dobson, won major awards. Minor letters went to George Porter, Bill Herrmann, Bob Kahler and Bob Ludwick.

Nine sophs listed.
Five seniors, ten juniors and nine sophomores won major letters, along with Student Manager Dick McClymont. Sam Schwartzkopf, Jack Ashburn, George Seemann, Dobson and Bob Ramey are the seniors, Warren Alfson, Forrest Behm, Bob Burruss, Harry Hopp, Royal Kahler, Bus Knight, Walter Luther, Ray Prochaska, Roy Petsch, and Herman Rohrig are juniors.

The nine sophs are George Abel, Bob DeFruiter, Vike Francis, Fred Meier, Clarence Herndon, Hubert Monsky, Fred Preston, Henry Rohn and Ed Schwartzkopf. Porter and Herrmann are seniors, Bob Kahler a junior, and Ludwick a sophomore. Porter, from Denver, is the only out of state man to receive an award.

Lettermen initiated into the "N" club last night are: Ralph Worden, swimming; Don Schultz, tennis; Lloyd Wright, track; LeRoy Walker, track.

George Abel, Vike Francis, Hubert Monsky, Ed Schwartzkopf, Henry Rohn, Clarence Herndon, Fred Meier, Fred Preston, Bob Ludwick, all football, and Dick McClymont, football manager.
