Union plans harmony hour

Sinfonia sponsors first Carnegie program at 4

First harmony hour in which the Carnegie music set, given to the Union by the Carnegie foundation, will be used will be held this afternoon at 4 p. m. in parlor C of the Union. The meeting will be sponsored by Sinfonia.

The set is a classical anthology of music containing over 500 records, a player, loudspeaker, dictionary of music, a catalogue and a case to hold the records and their albums.

Value of the set is almost $2,000. Weekly programs will be arranged by Prof. Frank Cunkle, of the school of music, and will be presented by Sinfonia. Later on programs will be arranged on request more than once a week.

Popular program.

This afternoon's program will be presented by Professor Cunkle. It will include such popular numbers as the Symphony Number 4 in A major by Mendelssohn, Tchaikowsky's Nut Cracker Suite, the Hungarian March, from the Damnation of Faust, by Berlioz, and a choral number written by Bach.

Temporarily the set will be placed in parlor C, but as soon as

Rousek meets point limits

Ed Rousek, ag senior, informed the Men's Activity Point board yesterday that he has made arrangements to resign his presidency of the university 4-H club possible the set will be placed in a permanent room. The set was presented to the Union because the foundation felt that more students would hear classical music for the first time at the Union than at the school of music. Attempts were made to get the set last year, but attempts were unsuccessful until Chancellor Boucher applied for the grant, in behalf of the Union, this fall.

and to give up his positions as business manager of the Cornhusker Countryman and president of Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity.

When these resignations become effective, Rousek's total of 13 points will be reduced to the maximum of eight allowed senior men.

The board also considered a letter from Orval Hager, editor of the Cornhusker, asking representation on the board. The six members present ruled that the editor of the DAILY represented all publications.
