Film editor names striking pictures of past year

By Morton Margolin.

This time of year with announcements of academy award winners only a short time away, movie fans from coast to coast are venturing guesses as to who will win the little Oscars. Today, we select a group of pictures, not necessarily the best of the year, but those which will be remembered for a particular presentation.

First, we pick "Goodbye Mr. Chips", for the excellent portrayal of a schoolmaster done by Robert Donat. The film will also be remembered for the story by James Hilton, author of "Lost Horizon" and "We Are Not Alone", two pictures, which, with Mr. Chips, definitely established Hilton as 'good boxoffice'.

Three pictures which will be remembered because they started new cycles are "Captain Fury", "Dodge City", and the "Story of Vernon and Irene Castle". "Captain Fury" started a cycle which brought the best of adventure films out of Hollywood in several seasons. "Dodge City" brought a series of American historical films, and "The Castle" picture started a series of biographical films.

Christmas party nears

Refreshments, carols feature open house

The old adage, it is more blessed to give than to receive, will be demonstrated in more than a spiritual manifestation Tuesday night when the Union holds an open house and Christmas party from 7:30 to 9:30 p. m.

While the Union gives the party, students attending will have an opportunity to help give some Lincoln youngster a merry Christmas by bringing a toy for the Alpha Phi Omega toy pile, which will be built from toys collected that night. The toy pile will be turned over to a local social agency for distribution.

The party, scheduled by the Union administration as the biggest even of the year outside of the opening night celebration, will feature caroling, entertainment by a German band and free refreshments.

Thruout the evening, a German band will play in the lounge, and students will sing carols in the ballroom under the direction of William Tempel.

For admittance to the Union, students must present identification cards at the door. Tickets to be exchanged for free refreshments distributed at the door.

Tomorrow night the Union will close at 9, and students employed there will have a Christmas party of their own. Kenneth Van Sant, Union director, and his staff, will be host to all Union employees, who from 9 to 12 will frolic in the building where they spend their extra time working. On Tuesday and Wednesday the Union will be open regular hours.

The building will be closed during vacation. It will close Wednesday night at 10:30 and reopen at 8 a. m. Wednesday morning, January 3, 1940.

police record, and he must be able to fork over the sum of 50c annually. But his word is not enough proof in this matter, because two hoboes from another state are delegated to investigate the matter and woe to him if he hasn't been a George Washington.

The doctor, who got his degree from Pennsylvania State college last May and has documents to prove it, has his opinions on current political trends. According to him, Roosevelt will be re-elected if he runs again. And as for the present European situation, the hoboes not only dislike it, but they have severed "diplomatic" relations with hoboes from Russia, Germany, Italy and Japan.

He's writing a book.

The doctor is writing a book entitled "The 1939-40 Hobo Directory," content of which is known only to him. In fact the only glimpse of it I could get was to write down the title.

He carries with him his own private library which contains a 1939 World Almanac, a book of synonyms, "Ethics of the Fathers," an atlas, an encyclopaedia and three ten cent dictionaries.

But before I left, Dr. Lazarowitz said "I don't want you ever to say that a hobo never gives nothing away. I am giving to the reference department of your university library a copy of my list of how towns in Nebraska rank in hospitality."

Gifted soprano

Genevieve Rowe's glorious soprano voice is heard on the radio program, "Johnny Presents" on Friday nights, and on Saturday nights on the "Gay Nineties Revue."

Present holiday harmony hour

Built around the theme of "Christmas Spirit," a special holiday harmony hour, sponsored by Sinfonia, will be given in room 209 of the Union Tuesday at 4 p. m.

The program, arranged by Prof. Frank Cunkle, of the school of music, will be composed of numbers traditionally played at this season of the year. Selections for the program were all taken from the Carnegie grant, received by the Union last week.

The program includes: A "Christmas Concerto" by Corelli; "Siegfried Idyll" by Wagner; "Carnival des Animeaux" by Saint Saens; the "Gower Wassail Song;" and "Good News," sung by the Hall Johnson choir.

Engineers reorganize

Executive board adopts revised body of rules

The Engineering Executive board has adopted a new constitution providing for a faculty advisor and a different governing organization for Engineers' Week.

At its last meeting the board, composed of 16 students in engineering college representing each of the six departmental societies, the Nebraska Blue Print, and the Student Council, drew up and approved the new constitution intended to lead to more efficient performance of the duties of the board, such as arranging convocations, general meetings, general social activities, special elections and planning Engineers' Week.

The advisor will be in charge of the first meeting of the year and in general charge for the remainder of the year.

Dr. J. Leon Lazarowitz, Hobo King ranks university library equal to Harvard's, carries his own with him

By Betty Klingel.

Dr. J. Leon Lazarowitz, D.H.O. (Doctor of Hobo-ology), National Hobo President and also Official Chief Justice of the U. S. A. Supreme Hobo Kangaroo Court, galloped into Lincoln this week end in fine fettle and paid the university library an unexpected but definitely interesting visit. Naming Amityville, N. Y., as his home town, this by-now legendary figure of the roaring highways created very much of a sensation at Library hall when the news was noised around of his presence.

Lincoln doesn't rate very high.

Before I had a chance to ask any questions, he proceeded to acquaint me with his various credentials, and before I knew it, I was a member of the Rambling Hobo Fellowship of America.

Lincoln ranks only third among Nebraska cities in hospitality.

We Lincolnites, according to hobo standards of courtesy and hospitality take a back seat to Omaha and North Platte, ranking first and second respectively.

Dr. Lazarowitz is so extremely well versed in the art of talking (and by talking I don't mean conversation, since I've been told that conversation is that in which two people take part) that I had a chance to ask him but one question. That question was "How do you like our library?" "I'm glad you asked that," he replied. "You asked me and I'll tell you. I think your library ranks right along with Harvard and Princeton. The assistants are ready to help you find exactly what you want no matter how much time it takes."

Here for Kangaroo Court.

The much-publicized gentleman-hitch-hiker garbed in a black, exceedingly shiny suit, a rather dubious-colored shirt and a wine tie, explained that he was in Lin-

How to be a good escort in ten easy lessons

How to be the perfect escort will be the problem which will face, not the men, but the coeds Saturday night, as they take their dates to the annual Mortar Board party for which Frankie Trumbauer and his orchestra will play.

First of all, the girls must ask the men to attend, and incidentally, it is considered very impolite for a man to ask a girl for a date on that night.

After the girl has asked the man, she must of course buy the ticket.

Saturday night, the girl must call for her date, and must chat graciously with his housemother or parents. And, for once, the girl who has kept her date waiting for long minutes, will be sorry, for this is his chance to get even.

Of course, the girl must provide the transportation, and far be it from the man who is being the perfect date to object to any form of conveyance, from a milk wagon to a hearse.

Well, after all, men, it won't be so bad. Look who's paying the bill.
