

Husker cagers whip California, 46-32

Hebron J. C. beats 'B' team

Husker subs lose 42-32 decision

Nebraska's "B" basketball team, rusty after a two weeks layoff, met a tartar in the Hebron Junior college team which came from behind to beat the Husker subs, 42-32 Friday night at Hebron.

Nebraska's seconds led 21-17 at half time, put center Hobbs, who scored 16 points in the game, and forward Bailey who got 10, led the Hebron team in a rally that put them out to stay. The Husker B's made only four of sixteen free throws, while their foes missed nine of fifteen attempts.

Don Schultz, a regular, did not make the trip. Bob Garey with eight points and Ray Rhoades with nine, both former Jackson high players, led Chill Armstrong's team in scoring.

NU leads throughout entire game

Home boys finish pre-Big Six play with 4 wins, 4 losses

The Huskers finished their out-of-conference play with an even break in eight games as they took the traveling California Bears into camp easily last night, 46-32, after leading 27-19 at half time.

Bob Therien, surprise starter at guard, who had appeared in only two games this year, without scoring a point, came through with the best game of his career as he got twelve points to lead the evening's scoring. The tall Bethany senior, whom Browne started to provide height against the tall California scoring threats, came through.

Pitcaithley scores. Therien and Harry Pitcaithley, who potted eleven tallies, paced the Huskers in building up their half-time margin. The team was "hot" in the early moments of play, piling up fourteen points in seven minutes while the Bears were getting ten of their own. It was unheralded Dud Morgan who kept California in the ball game throughout the early moments of the first period, as he potted four baskets and two gift tosses before

Cagers to open conference season here Monday night

Coach W. H. Browne's Huskers open their 1940 Big Six basketball race tomorrow night, as Iowa State college's Cyclones invade Lincoln on a Nebraska invasion, having played Creighton at Omaha last night.

Alto Iowa State has four regulars and six lettermen back from last year, the Cyclone lineup may include two sophomore starters.

Al Budolfson, all-state forward from Rolfe, Iowa, is slated to be at one post, while Gordon Nicholas was to be moved from center to forward on the Nebraska trip.

High scorers. Nicholas and Bob Harris, all Big Six forward as a sophomore last year, are tied for the lead in team scoring, but press releases from Ames say Harris may not be in the starting lineup.

Carol Schneider, 6 foot 6 inch sophomore from Rock Island, Illinois, will get the nod at center to give the Cyclones much needed height. Nicholas, a 6 foot, 3 inch player, is four inches taller than Harris, and is good at both forward and center.

Bob Menze, 5 foot 7 inch spark-plug of the team, and son of the coach, will get the call at one guard despite his lack of height. He is one of two seniors on the squad, the other being Don Beresford, a substitute forward.

Gordon to start. Fred Gordon, junior guard, will probably be the other starter. He alternated at guard last year and is a speedy, ball hawking player, and, like Budolfson, is 5 feet 11 inches tall.

intermission, although he could get only a solitary free throw in the second half.

"Nibs" Price kept regulars Almeida, Ogilvie, Bickerton and Bickerstaff in reserve for the first nine and a half minutes of play in the second period, which opened dully. After ten minutes the score stood at 34-22 for the Huskers, but scorers on both sides opened up in the final minutes.

Ogilvie bottled. The Bears' aces couldn't do anything about the Husker lead, though, as Almeida was the only one to come through with a basket in the last period. The Huskers started stalling with six minutes left, but opened up again in the last two and a half minutes to run their total from 39 to 46. Soph forward Bob Biles brought the Bear mark up to 32 as the gun sounded, while soph center John McGee got the only other California basket of the period.

Other men besides those mentioned above making the trip include Darrell DonCarlos, forward, and a junior; Jean Lange, sophomore guard, and Dale DeKoster, who transferred from a junior college and was not eligible for Big Six play until after Christmas.
