MUSIC DRAMA

Symphonic band

Promises plenty of 'oomph' in tuba octet Sunday, Feb. 11

A band concert with plenty of musical gems of the ages. One of "oomph" will be presented by the these is an especially fine arrange-university R. O. T. C. symphonic ment of the Bach "Organ Fugue band Sunday afternoon Feb. 11 in in G minor." Another is from the Coliseum. The "oomph" will Richard Wagner's dramatic mu-be provided by the band's eight sic, "Wotan's Farewell," and his new tubas which will be heard in "Magic Fire Music," an octet arrangement of "Pom- Soloists with the band next Sun-

88-piece ensemble, of select play- of Engineering, who will sing "Aters from the 120 piece marching lantic Zephyrs" by Simons, and band and the 100 piece regimen- Neil Short of York, trumpeter, strains of the tuba solo, the program will include several of the

Nash appears Feb. 9 to 16

Young English scholar and noted clergyman to hold Union seminars

Father Arnold Nash, young English scholar already considered a distinguished clergyman, will appear on the Nebraska campus for a week, Feb. 9 to 16, under the sponsorship of the religious welfare council

Nash will speak in a seminar in the Union everday at 4 p. m. Monday thru Wednesday, leading dis-cussion on such topics as "The British Labor Party and the War in Europe" and "The University and its Place in the Social Order," and other subjects on which he is regarded as a "thoroly open minded liberal."

Arrives Friday. Arriving Friday morning, the Episcoplalian and his sociologist wife will appear at a dinner meeting of the Lincoln youth council, of university students from each church Friday night at Vine Congregational church.

Nash will also appear in several university classes according to C. A. Forbes, who is in charge of arrangements. Climax of the clergyman's stay will be his appearance at the annual interfaith banquet to be held Wednesday night under the auspices of the religious welfare the survey, expects to gather data history, not of an ascetic hermit the Louisiana territory had been in hand, can understand the love which will show the amounts of but of a man of letters of deep and the possession of the U.S. for only which Jesus taught as the greatest Union book nook, will begin at insurance that are being purchased in the country today.

Spangler studies insurance trends

nual reports of the 50 leading eau. insurance companies which operate in the state who are required in the least part, how great a assumed the duties and responsi-by law to file a copy of the annual report in the office of the that he should leave in the midst after Missouri had been admitted state department of insurance, based upon the records of at least content. His soul was made for the last 10 years. Professor the noblest society; he had in a Spangler expects to publish his short life exhausted the capabili-findings in a bulletin. Data will ties of this world; wherever there also be used as supplementary is knowledge, wherever there is material in the classroom.

Professors attend young citizen contest meeting

Miss Clara I. Rausch of the department of physical education for women; Dr. D. A. Worcester, professor of educational psychology and measurements; Dr. R. C. Clapp, director of physical education for men, and Mrs. Ruth Pike, days when irreligion masquerades associate editor in the extension as religion, it is well to remind division, attended a conference on ourselves of what the best mind of the young citizen's contest in Om-all the religions of the world has aha Wednesday evening. They thought and said. We must not, aha Wednesday evening. They thought and said. We must not, were guests of the Omaha World- like the frog in the well, who imag-Herald at a dinner that evening at the Paxton Hotel.

LEARN TO DANCE

Ballroom-Tap . . . Guaranteed To Teach You

Can Teach You to Dance in One Hour

Private Lessons By Appointment Register for Classes
LUELLA WILLIAMS

SELECT STUDIO

poso" with band accompaniment, day are Robert Slemmons of Don A. Lentz will conduct the Mitchell, freshman in the College tal band. The program will be sophomore in Teachers College, open to the public.

Music of masters.

In addition to the rollicking

Syncopated rhythm.

For those who like their syncopation there will be a clever arrangement of Bennett's "Rhythms of Rio," better described as an ultra modern South American rhapsody, "Rhythms of Rio" is really a compilation of current popular tunes in the countries of the southern hemisphere, says Mr.

Other numbers include "Bravado-Paso Doble," Curzon; "Rou-manian Rhapsody No. 1," Enesco; 'Valse Bluette," Drigo; and "Skyliner," Alford.

Soloists star with strings

Bingham, Furr play violin, piano in Lincoln orchestra tomorrow

Eunice Bingham, violinist, and Houghton Furr, pianist, will appear as soloists with the Lincoln string orchestra in a concert to be held tomorrow night at 8:15 in the

Eunice Bingham, Houghton Furr.

Cornhusker ballroom.

Bach, Bloch and Elgar will be featured on the program. Under school of music graduate, and Furr the direction of Dorothy Holcomb, is a senior and appears as organist the orchestra will play Bach's with the Lincoln Cathedral choir.

Lincoln symphony

BOOKS

Sways audience to 'Southern Roses'; Wishnow shines

* *

core from the orchestra and bow after bow from Violinist Emanuel Wishnow after they had ably re- Wishnow, of the school of mu-laxed the listeners with a Strauss sic faculty, created artistic tenwaltz and stirred them with sion with his rendition of the Tschaikowsky's Sixth symphony concerto in E Minor by Jules Conand a Conus concerto.

Responding intently to the four pathetic strains into a love song, movements of the "Symphonic The outstanding Lincoln violinist Pathetique" the audience found carried the burden of the intricate the second section most brilliant concerto much of the way, the orand haunting, though the bass

"Concerto in E Major" and Bloch's 'Concerto Grosso.'

Play Bach Aria, An "Aria" and the "Prelude and Fugue in D Major" by Bach will also be played, as well as an "Introduction and Allegro" by Elgar. The orchestra appeared in New York last summer, playing two concerts at the World's Fair, in Equitable Gardens.

Miss Bingham is a university

Renon's Life of Jesus, translated work of a man with the Bible and types and landscapes of Syria.

was due to his characteristics of two powerful causes was the

The Greek and Roman philoso-

whole conduct of life,

of all commandments.

the Temple of Religion and in the

The audience at the Lincoln viols took a vigorous beating. The Symphony concert last night in last movement under Leo Kucin-St. Paul church won a rare en- ski's baton, became truly "Pathetique.'

THE ARTS

Plays modern concerto. us, and made many of its symchestra remaining silent, Smiles for Strauss.

Both audience and orchestra relaxed, enjoyed the "beer garten" lilt of Johann Strauss' "Roses From the South," went away smiling. Many thought it most ably presented endeavor of the musicians since their "best" rendition of Sibelius' "Valse Triste" at the last concert.

Opening the evening was the overture to "Oberon," by Carl von Weber, which overcame a weak and rather thin beginning of "fairy music and the magic horn of Oberon," to give form and body to the finish of the regal overture.

The orchestra will play again on March 25, for the last performance of the year. Rise Stevens, mezzo-soprano of the Metropolitan opera, will sing on

German faculty

"The Muzzle," an outstanding presented under the sponsorship of the Germanics faculty Thursday afternoon and evening, Shows will begin at 4:30, 7:30, and 9 p. m. in the Union ballroom. "Maulkorb" is an international comedy hit, stars German Actors Ralph Arthur Roberts, Hilde Weissner, Charlotte Schellhorn, Theodore Loos, Paul Henkels and Renon points out with great of a district attorney who, returnforce the two elements which con- ing home in a gay mood, puts a tributed to the success of Chris- muzzle on the statue of the reigntianity, they are: a miraculous element and a moral element. The discover the offender, he proceeds first gave the necessary initial impetus, the second made the movement endure. In addition to these ment endure. In addition to these two powerful causes was the

a thesis by tion by Jesus of love as the principle that should underlie the schedules Louise Snaff

Miss Louise Snaff of the Prairle phers had made justice the under- Schooner book shop will ask lying principle. But justice is too "What are you reading now?" in abstract to be understood by all speaking for the Coed Counselors' 7:00 p. m.

Reviewer hails eccentric 'Thoreau

by Margaret Ann Osborn.

"Thoreau" is an illuminating biography of a great American written by Dr. Henry Seidel Can-This peculiar man who sat in company "with a certain ironpokerish-ness," this ugly man with puckered, expressive lips and "terrible eyes" of gleaming gray-blue, this friend of woodchucks and enemy of the state, was not easy to be understood even by his closest friends, Emerson and Chan-

Canby pictures him as an eccentric man of dual nature, one half positive, and passionate to yearning, one half negative, satirical, and really perverse. His eccentricity was to keep out of the greeds, the brawls, the current enthusiasms, and the blind strenuosities of his time.

Too rustic to feel at ease in the the world, and resolved to be famous for staying at home. He lived all of his life in Concord village in New England. Thoreau's individualism was his life, being called the Concord "skulker" by Stev-

Dr. Canby has presented two his broken task, which none else into the Union as a sttae. The university study will be can finish... But he, at least, is the noblest society; he had in a ties of this world; wherever there virtue, wherever there is beauty, he will fird a home."

Wisdom of the East Series presents "The Persian Mystics: Ansari" by Sardar Sir Jogendra Singh. This is a translation into English of the "Sayings of the" Mystic, Abdullah Ansari." As Gandhi has said: "Islam has given the world mystics no less than Hinduism of Christianity. In these ines that the universe ends with the wall surrounding his well, think that our religion alone rep- by the business man in the growth resents the whole truth and all and development of pioneer life. the others are false. A reverent The merchant was an outstanding study of the other religions of the member of his frontier community. world would show that they are As a distributor of merchandise, as equally true as our own; though a pioneer in building industry, as a all are necessarily imperfect. banker, as an advocate, and patron

Abdullah Ansari was born on of social institutions, as a patriot, Friday at sunset in 936 Hyri, or he was a citizen of importance.

A. D. 1005 with browledge. He A. D. 1005 with knowledge. He did not have to seek and discover by Hutchinson, is filled with at-it anew. At the age of nine he dis-mosphere of the East. It is the presented under the sponsorship played a remarkable mastery, and seemed to know all that was ever theology, and no less acquainted known of religion and philosophy. with the inscriptions, monuments, It is said that he had about a hundred thousand Persian verses Renon was the first French writer by heart, and had composed him- of the 19th century to draw the self 6,000 verses in Arabic. He attention of a wider public than gathered a band of devoted dis- that of scholars, and his success ciples around him, forming the society called Silsila-i-Ansari, and it insistent idealism, and his diveris said to have survived up to the gence from hte sceptics of the prepresent time.

The story of the film is that

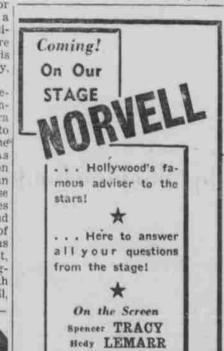

A Yogi gives up that which has world, he thumbed his nose at no real value, and becomes a world forsaker-not a world seeker. According to Ansari:

"What is its joy, what is its woe But scented ash that used to glow?

A sandal wood of long ago ...

A camphor of the past.' "A Pioneer Merchant of St. ouis, 1810-1820" is a thesis by thinker with weighted wings, and Sister Marietta Jennings. It pre-The trend in life insurance sales the ascetic with a passion for liv- sents an account of Christian Welt, for the nation and for the state ing. He believes Thoreau was a a pioneer merchant of St. Louis will be the basis of an exhaustive life-long apprentice to the art of during the decade from 1810 to study by Prof. Clifford D. Spang- good writing. This narrative, con- 1820, years that mark'a well deler of the department of econom- trary to common opinion, is not fined period in the development of ics. Spangler, who will conduct a futility but a success story, the the western community. In 1810 whole life, endowments and term troubling emotions, And with the six years and St. Louis had been closing words of Emerson's ad- a chartered village in that terri-dress at Thoreau's funeral, we tory for one year; in 1820 the Ter-Spangler and his assistants will leave you with the pure, puritan-ritory of Missouri, carved out of secure their facts from the an-ical New Englander, Henry Thor- the Louisiana Purchase, was rapidly being settled, and St. Louis. "The country knows not yet, or emerging from the pioneer stage, the least part, how great a assumed the duties and responsi-

The book shows the role played

'I Take This Woman'

Starting Thursday

LINCOLN

Where you can save money while buying quality merchandise at competitive low prices. HISTORY PAPER A competitive Whitedge History Paper. History Here is the most for your Paper ... SEE OUR LAW NOTE BOOKS HISTORY COVERS Black Paper, inside rings......10c and 15c Flexible Black Texhide with one inch rings 45c Stiff Black Texhide with one inch rings...... 50c Heavy Green Waterproof Canvas, booster rings. 80c Black Imitation Leather with one inch rings.....89c Black or Brown Imitation Leather with booster rings......98c Genuine Leather Black and Brown . . with Your Name in Gold, $1.45 ALSO Largest Line of Zipper Covers in the City Priced from $1.00 to $6.00 Buy Your Engineering Drawing Supplies

Student Supply Headquarters

LATSCH BROTHERS

STUDENT SUPPLIES 1124 O Street