

Petsch loses in 'Gloves' finals

"Cowboy" Roy Petsch, Nebraska varsity footballer lost a hotly contested fight by decision to Jack Fickler, Omaha Y. M. C. A. entrant, in the finals of the Golden Gloves tournament in Omaha, last night.

Petsch lost the fight for the light heavyweight crown after coming up through the ranks and winning bouts earlier this week in Fremont.

Petsch was the only university entrant in the tournament this year.

Farm House goes against A G R's for Ag cage title

Alpha Gamma Rho and Farm house will vie for the Ag college basketball title tomorrow afternoon in the ag Activities building at four o'clock.

The two teams are tied for top honors at the end of the ag college round robin tournament, and both have been beaten once.

Farm House lost to the AGR's in their previous meeting in two extra periods, but lost to a Barb team. The Farm House team is slightly favored to win the second encounter, but Boyd Mayfield, a regular, may be unable to play because of an injured hand.

Winner of the game will probably meet the frosh team in a preliminary to the K-State-Husker game in the Coliseum Tuesday night.

Lineups.

Probable starting lineups for the two teams are:

Alpha Gamma Rho	Farm House
Floyd Mechem	Fred Preston
Orrin Schneider	Louis Knoflock
Ed Ockerman	John Fitzgibbon
Garyn Campbell	Lloyd Schmadeke
Lester Reid	Norman Davis

K-State forward out for season

Jack Gardner, Kansas State coach, said that Joe Robertson, senior forward, probably would be out of basketball the rest of the season.

BIG SIX STANDINGS.

Oklahoma	5	1	.833
Missouri	5	1	.833
Kansas	3	1	.750
Kansas State	2	4	.333
Nebraska	1	5	.167
Iowa State	0	4	.000

Friday night: Kansas State at Iowa State, Nebraska at Oklahoma.

Huskers clash with Sooners

Teams battle at Norman this evening

Brownemen underdogs in Big Six contest; Tallman game captain

Coach W. H. Browne and nine Nebraska basketballers left yesterday afternoon for Norman, Oklahoma, where they take on the Sooners tonight in a game in which the Huskers are the underdogs.

Nebraska lost 56-41 to the Sooners two weeks ago at Lincoln, and altho the Huskers showed improvement against Missouri last week, the Oklahoma team will have the advantage of playing at home. The Sooners, who are now tied for the conference lead with Missouri, will be out to protect their laurels.

Starters.

Browne will start Frank Tallman, game captain, of Creston, Iowa, and Irv Yaffe of Omaha at forwards; Al Randall of Omaha, center; Sid Held, Lincoln and Hartmann Goetze, St. Joseph, Missouri, guards.

Don Fitz is still out and did not make the trip, but Harry Pitcaithley, who has been on the injured list, may see quite a bit of action altho he won't be on the starting lineup.

Others making the trip are Bob Therien, Lincoln; Les Livingston, Hastings; John Hay, Lincoln.

Sooner lineup.

The Sooner's starting lineup will probably be the same as the one which opened against the Huskers here. Jimmy McNatt and Dale Carlile, forwards; Herb Scheffler, center, and Marvin Mesch or Mat Zollner and Marvin Snodgrass, guards.

Mesch was recently released from the infirmary after having missed the Kansas State game because of the flu, and will probably be out tonight. If he is unable to play, Mat Zollner, a junior shifted from forward, will replace him.

May drop.

Should Nebraska lose, and Iowa State beat Kansas State at Ames tonight, the Huskers will drop into last place in the Big Six standings. If both the Huskers and Iowa State lose, their standings

Swim team drops meet to K-State

Wildcats come thru in final relay event to nip Nebraska 43-41

Coming from behind by winning the 400 free-style relay, the invading Kansas State tankers defeated the Cornhusker swimmers 43 to 41 at the coliseum Thursday afternoon. The victory was Kansas State's first over the Huskers in ten years.

Before the final relay event Nebraska held a 37 to 35 lead.

The surprise of the meet came when LeRoy Foster won the 200 yard breast stroke event with Rodenbeck, Nebraska, and Carl, Kansas State, following him to the tape. Sophomore Bill Edwards captured both the 50 and 100 yard free-style events.

Kansas State won both relays, but only two individual events, as Stover won both the 220 and 440 free style for the Wildcats.

Ralph Worden continued undefeated in diving, as he beat Phil Novak, while Bob Ager won the Huskers' other first as he took the 150-yard back stroke.

The Kansas State swimmers go from here to invade Iowa State tomorrow night where they go against last year's Big Six champions.

will remain unchanged, as they will if both teams win.

Lineups:

Nebraska	Oklahoma
Tallman (GC)	McNatt
Yaffe	Carlile
Randall	Scheffler
Held	Snodgrass
Goetze	Mesch or Zollner

Players --

(Continued from Page 1.) It is made of 2x4's which are covered with chicken wire. Over this wire are layers of newspapers, and finally a layer of muslin and paint. The whole thing can be pushed together and folded up compact enough to permit it to be pushed into a corner when not needed.

Folding steam room

The steam room in which the men sit and plan the disaster which is to befall another may likewise be folded up and shoved back out of the way. In a stage production, especially in one where so many "props" are needed, all scene property must be made compact.

The living room of one man is finished in a vivid green color, the most disturbing that could be obtained, with large tulips on it. The property man must have a fine sense of contrasting colors and light effects to produce desired effects in the plays.

All properties which must be taken up and down from the stage to the workroom must be able to fold up to a ten foot width, in order to fit the sleeve elevator. This is just one more worry for the stage and property director.

Weir's indoor cinder team makes season's first start Saturday night against KU

Ed Weir's indoor track team, without a senior in the ranks, makes its first start of the season Saturday night as Kansas University comes here for the first indoor meet ever held at night in Lincoln.

Bob Kahler, hurdler and high jumper and a letterman, is recovering from a pulled muscle, and altho he will probably forego the high jump, will probably get into the hurdles events. Other letter winners are Ray Prochaska and Ed Wibbels, shot putters, and pole vaulter Harold Scott. Leroy Walker, distance runner, is a minor award winner from last year.

Red Littler, the Mitchell flash will make his debut for the Huskers, and has his eye on the .52.7 meet record held by Les Pankonin. The Husker track has been improved, and all performers have been turning in better times than are usually evidenced this early in the year. Nebraska, incidentally, holds every meet record.

A feature race will come in the mile between Harold Brooks, star Husker sophomore runner, who recently did a 4:26 mile. He will be facing Ray Harris of KU, second only to John Munski as a miler in the Big Six last year. Brooks, also on the 880 entry list, may also push Bob Morris' mark of 2:02.2.

Gridders enter.

Football players Vike Francis, Henry Rohn and George Abel will compete in the sport for the first time for the Huskers, with the first two entered in the shot, and Abel in the 60 yard dash.

Pacing the Kansans along with Harris should be Bob Stoland. Stoland, Big Six champion in the high jump has not reported for practice, but won both the indoor and outdoor titles last year with only a few practices.

Dick Overfield, frosh sensation at KU last year, has left Lawrence, so will not be on hand to bid against Littler in the 60.

Others in.

Other Huskers competing will be Jack Banger, Callaway, broad jump and high jump; Millard Cluck, Scottsbluff, relay; Bill Cook, North Loup, mile, 2-mile; Jim Dixon, Blair, 880, relay; Dale Garrels, Diller, mile, 2-mile, Erwin Goldenstein, Elm Creek, high hurdles, low hurdles.

Harold Hunt, North Platte, pole vault, O. J. Irwin, Lincoln, 880, Dale Nannen, Lincoln, high jump, broad jump; Warren Radtke, Council Bluffs, 440, relay; William Smutz, Pawnee City, high and low hurdles, broad jump, high jump.

Meet records:

60 yards: Dodd	1938	:06.2
440: L. Pankonin	1937	:52.7
880: Morris	1936	2:02.2
Mile: W. Andrews	1938	4:34.3
Koper	1938
