Double talk . . .

No prejudice here—we see society from both angles

by Mary Anna Cockle.

Eddies of snow being blasted about as Marian Kidd hurries toward a two o'clock ... half the Sig Alph chapter filing into one of Mr. Stepanek's sessions ... Betty Rathburn looking kinda cunning in a ski suit ... Johnny Folsom dubbed "Rhett Butler" . . . Betty Bachman, one of the lucky gals to have her fortune told this p. m... Jack Hyland taking to the hickories on the slopes outside Lincoln...and all of us hunting now between Bill and Esther for our mittens and ear muffs again.

PHI GAMS

have the monopoly on Friday night parties with their shindig at the Cornhusker tonight. You'll be seeing Lowell Ellis there with Frances Green, Alpha Chi, John Carr with Mildred Anderson, KAT, and Carl Olenberger with Betty Jo Byllesby also Theta. The Fiji's are getting right fancy about the whole thing, with dinner at the house for the chapter and their dates, and some mighty clever crested jewelry for the lucky gals.

SOME SAY

that Beta Bob Clow is a wee bit Pi Phi Charlotte Stahl has broken perturbed because Ann Craft, KKG, is going to the Kappa formal with Sigma Nu Bill Stuht. All of which reminds us of something that happened early last has bounced into the Theta house fall. Herb Glover, Beta, called the Kappa house one night for a date. "I'm sorry," said a coy young Kappa pledge, "but December 14th is my first open date." After some consideration Herb decided if that was the best she could do, it would be all right, but he wasn't quite prepared for her comeback of "Do you want the whole evening-" anything that has even been attempted at the Delt house, Bud West has been delving into philosophy tomes of late. It all started when a Tri Delt suggested they keep things purely platonic, so Bud has had to do some industrious reading to find out just exactly what it was this guy Plato was talking about.

Dale Ruser, Phi Gam wrestler, grew a beautiful beard for his match yesterday afternoon but evidently Pi Phi Maxine Fuller prefers glamour to goatees because she showed up in the Crib with DU Bill Niehus. This caused considerable comment not only in the Phi Gam house but also in the Theta house where the sisters are expecting steady dates any time Louise Lefler.

ANOTHER PROBLEM

in geometry arises from the Jerry Thompson-Ruth Yourd-Frosty votes letter of Wilson triangle. A bulletin from the AOPi house informs us that Ruthie and the Sig Ep, Frosty. are now going steady. However from the Phi Gam house comes the information that she is still going to dinner and the Phi Gam formal with Jerry tonight. Are president of the Foundation. you going to stand for that, Frosty?

up with Bud Rohde of the Delt house, she has been getting along with an old flame Bill Edwards, the Beta swimmer. Meantime Bud and Betty Jackson is taking him to their formal.

IF ANY

of you have that almost unheardof disease, too many dates, you may sympathize with Betty Dodds and also profit by her experience of this week. It seems she inad-vertently accepted two dates for this Saturday night. The result? She is going to Omaha with Bob Wherry, DU, Saturday and with Max Meyer, the other one, to the ATO fireside Sunday night. Pretty slick, Betty!

Comes 'The Gentle People', 1 amiable fable of modern life next week in the Temple theater, amiable fable of modern living. Franchot Tone and Silvia Sidney played the leads in the Broadway production last season, and critics praised this story of simple, amiable people who are unable to adjust themselves to the mode of modern living with its gangsters, courts of justice, and birds of prey.

It was Tone's comeback.

Tone ended a long exile from the footlights in playing this lead while Miss Sidney has recently returned to the stage after several successful years in Hollywood. Other members of the Broadway cast included Lee Cobb and Sam

The story concerns two quiet, peace-loving, old men who would rather fish than face the reality of the modern world. They spend their time in dreaming of things

Bryan award to be given

Offered this year to students registered in any political science course is the William Jennings Bryan award for the best written essay on any subject concerning the political sciences.

The award of $25 will be given in the latter part of April. Deadline for entries, according to Prof. L. W. Lancaster, is April 1. The papers may be in the form of and essay or other paper submitted in connection with any political science course in which the student is registered, or a paper specifically prepared for the contest. Entries should contain at least 3,000 words and not more than 6,000.

The contest is open to any student or graduate student who is taking a course in political science. The committee of judges, composed of L. W. Lancaster, political science department head; Roger C. Shumate and David Fellman, reserve the right to withhold the prize if no worthy paper is submitted.

The prize money is part of approximately $250 given by William Jennings Bryan, illustrious Nebraskan, to create interest in government.

Due to the small response given the contest by students in former years, the award was not offered. Members of the committee in formation to students if desired.
