Ray Richards, former Husker line star, and now line coach at U. C. L. A., turned down a similar job at Stanford . . . Clark Shaughnessy contacted Richards when he got the Stanford job . . . Ray, tho, just signed a new 5 year contract at U. C. L. A. . . . Nebraska's unexpected stiff battle against Minnesota's wrestlers made Gopher Coach Dave Bartelma switch plans . . . He had been using Leonard Levy for the tough matches, and saving Bill Kusisto to relieve Levy in the breathers . . . But when the Huskers were only 2 points behind with the last match coming up, he decided to play safe and use Levy . . . and the big Gopher grappler didn't let his coach down as he made short work of Husker heavy Royal Kahler.

Yourbe, Little elected new Phalanx officers

Bruce Yourbe replaced Kenneth Worland as adjutant and Frank Little took Raymond Carlson's place as warden-historian Tuesday at a meeting of Phalanx, national military fraternity. Following the election a business meeting was held and plans were discussed for a formal party Febr. 24.

Weir to take eight Huskers to Illinois

Wibbels, Littler, Cook, Brooks, Hunt, Smutz, Scott, Prochaska go

Eight Nebraska track men will make the trip to Urbana, Illinois for Saturday's Illinois Relays, according to an announcement by track coach Ed Weir last night.

Edsel Wibbels, Gene Littler, Harold Brooks, Harold Hunt, Bill Smutz, Bill Cook, Ray Prochaska, and Harold Scott are the Huskers who are entered at the Midwest's track carnival of the week.

Littler, who holds the University's 300 yard run record, will be entered in that event at Urbana, and will give the meet favorites a run for their money Saturday night.

600 entered.

Approximately 600 athletes from 35 schools are entered at the 17th renewal of what is considered the nation's greatest indoor track show. From New Mexico in the west to Boston college in the east entries are pouring in.

Biggest team entered is Michigan, which has 38 men in the meet. Missouri and Kansas State are the only other Big Six schools in the meet.

Other entries are Anour Tech, Butler, Chicago, Yankon, Minnesota, Illinois, DePaul, Drake Grinnell, Indiana, Emporia Teachers, Loras college, Loyola, Marquette, Ypsilanti Normal, Kalamazoo Teachers, Northwestern, Notre Dame, Ohio State, Purdue.

Eight I-M games on tonight; two SAE men ruled ineligible

The intramural office has allowed protests by the Phi Delta Theta and Farm House basketball teams in regard to their basketball losses at the hands of Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

The Sig Alphas won their first two League 3 games from the Phi Deltas and Farm House respectively, but the intramural office ruled they had used ineligible players Vike Francis and Harry Hopp.

Francis was out for varsity track at the time the games were played, while Hopp was not registered for the second semester. The losses practically eliminated the SAE team, defending champions from title consideration.

Tied in league

The Phi Delt and Farm House teams are left tied with the DU's with two wins in League 3, while the Sig Alpha, Delta Sigs and Pi K A's are in a tie for the cellar spot.

Eight games, all in "A" leagues, are scheduled tonight, and first-place ties will be broken in at least two leagues. In League 3, the Farm House team, with Fred Preston and Louie Knoflicek at the helm, will face the DU's as one of them is slated to drop from first. The Phi Deltas will play the Pi K A's.

In League 1, the AGR's face the Chi Phi's. Both teams have one win. Sigma Alpha Mu, who has also won once, meets the Kappa Sigs, while the Phi Psi's, and Alpha Sigs, who are in the cellar with the Kappa Sigs, meet each other.

In League 2, the three leaders play the three cellar teams.

Swimmers to face Ames, Grinnell

Huskers underdogs against Iowa State, conference champs

Coach Pete Hagelin and ten Nebraska swimmers leave tomorrow morning for Ames, Iowa, where they will face the Iowa State Cyclones, defending Big Six tank champions Friday. Saturday they go to Grinnell, to face Grinnell college.

Iowa State walloped Kansas State after the Wildcats had beaten the Huskers. Both Nebraska and the Cyclones have been beaten by Minnesota, but the Ames team is a distinct favorite Friday. The Huskers, tho, have a better than even chance to win at Grinnell.

Six lettermen are pacing Iowa State this year. Captain Gene Armstrong, Big Six champion for the last 2 years in the 150 yard backstroke, and Roger Adams, conference sprint champion, are outstanding.

Jackson nips Lincoln High

Led by Waldo Winter who tallied 25 points during the game, Jackson high school last night downed Lincoln high, 31 to 25.

The game, one which will help decide the inter-city basketball championship, was considered one of the most important in state high school basketball competition this year. Both teams were included in the "ten best" in the state.

High point man for Lincoln high was Lauer who got eight points during the game.

Varsity baseball men to report Monday

Official baseball practice for the 1940 season is slated to begin Monday, Feb. 19, according to a statement from Wilbur Knight, baseball coach.

Tallman's 23 counters put him third in team's scoring

Frank Tallman's 23 points against Kansas State bolted the Creston, Ia., forward into third place in the Husker scoring race. He was in sixth place with 60 points before the game, but moved past Don Fitz, Al Randall and Irv Yaffe.

FRANK TALLMAN

Harry Pitcaithley brought his total up to 108, and still leads, altho Sid Held his his 99 points and is on Pit's heels. Yaffe's twelve points weren't enough to keep him in third place because of Tallman's spurge, but the Omaha boy has 80 to date. Don Fitz moved passed Al Randall again, as the Husker guard got four points in his first game in several weeks. He has 70 now to Randall's 68.

Goetze seventh.

Hartmann Goetze is still in seventh, with 51 points. Bob

Therien and John Hay, the only other two men to score Tuesday night, are next with 26 and 18 points respectively.

Lyle King has 12, Chuck Vaccanti 8, Bruce Duncan 6 and Les Livingston 5, to complete the squad scoring.

Yaffe, smallest man on the team, has the most fouls, with his three against Kansas State bringing his total up to 32. Pitcaithley has 30, Randall 29, Goetze 26. Tallman and Held have but 20 apiece, and Fitz has 14.
