

Mary Jean says . . .

It's March, march, march --or anyway, spring is near

By Mary Jean McCarthy.

March, march, march the boys are marching and if they aren't spring is. Oh well, maybe it isn't, but then spring is coming and that is something, and love is just around the corner, the question being, where is the corner? Don't you think that song titles fit in with just about most anything that happens? Spring—romance—tragedy—gaiety—nonsense—well, just about most anything? Frinstance—

'THE DIPSY DOODLE'

or something, describes Ruth Satterlee, Tri Delt pledge, for the other night at their hour dance with the Sig Alphas she looked meekly up at a tall, handsome brute, and muttered, "I remember the dip but not the face."

'LOVE NEVER

went to college' or else it's just 'I Surrender Dear' for Sigma Nu Bill Mowbray as he accompanied Kappa Jeanne Newell into a third grade class room at an Ashland school. Of course, it took many minutes of persuasion from Jeanne before "Old Mobe" finally weakened.

'ONE IN A MILLION'

just about fits Pi Phi Mary Kerrigan as far as Sig Alph Wait Rardin is concerned but then, I guess the feeling is mutual 'cause Mary is all 'Smiles.'

'CHERRIES ARE RIPE'

or getting the jump on the first robin, is the feeling the Alpha Sigs have for they are among the first to announce their spring party which will be held at the Cornhusker Friday, March 8. In the traditional Hawaiian style dancers will wear colorful leis and island decorations will predominate. Leo Peiper and his orchestra will play and a dinner in the Cornhusker for Alpha Sigs and their guests will precede dancing.

'GLOOMY SUNDAY'

certainly doesn't fit this jolly day because society takes the limelight with dinners, buffet suppers and teas.

The Pi Phis will have a date dinner with all the trimmings. Among those present will be, Johnny Mason, ATO, with Virginia Clemans; Sigma Nu Bob Moffett with Nancy Haycock; and Phi Gam John Curl with Betty Baker.

The Eetas are treating their gals to a buffet supper. Some of the lucky gals are: Jesse Moore, D. G. with Bob Lichty; Hap McIntosh, Theta, with Dean Miller; and Mary Ann Goff, Kappa Delt with Neal Withrow.

The Kappa pledges will be hostesses this afternoon at an informal tea given for the other sorority pledges and house mothers.

Not to be outdone are the Phi Deltas who will also entertain their dates at a buffet supper. Aline Hosman, Theta will be there with Bob Gillespie, Louise Bignell, Tri Delt with Dick Hermann, and D. G. Beth Merrick with Jack Lee.

'LOOKY, LOOKY, LOOKY, THERE GOES

cookie' hum three SAM boys, Bob Bramson, freshman, Max Prostok, and Ben Novikoff, sophomores as Sareva "Cookie" Braverman, S. D. T. pledge puts in her appearance. She keeps them guessing but we think her favorite is, well—you know, these freshmen will stick together.

'I THOUGHT ABOUT YOU'

whistles D. U. Frank Meyer so Bea Beghtol, a Stephens lass, is traveling all the way from Columbia, and just for the Prom.

Well, by now everyone should be in a happy, and gay mood. Are you???

Ah spring—ahhhhhhhhhhhhh.

Yvonne Costello,

1940'S PROM GIRL FINDS SPRING . . .

. . . in a tailored brown and white narrow-striped wool dress-coat ensemble at Simon's. Schiaparelli patch pockets, brown military braid trimming, and a velvet collar definitely "date" the coat as high fashion for Spring 1940. The crisp white pique yoke and bow of the dress are the bright spot between the coat lapels. Yvonne "tops" off her outfit with a brown lacquered straw "Bishop" type sailor with a brown mist veil adding the feminine touch.

. . . Why not find spring for yourself as Yvonne has, in a smart new outfit from . . .
