

Union forum brings stylist

Robert Surrey to talk to uni men Monday

Ace style scout of men's fashions, Robert Surrey, will speak to men at a Union forum, Monday, at 4 p. m. in parlors XYZ.

Surrey is employed by a prominent men's clothing firm to visit colleges, Palm Beach, California, and to cover resorts in the winter in order to find new tips on correct styles for men. He will stop in Lincoln while on a trip from Chicago to Sun Valley to study winter sports clothes.

Surrey's idea for traveling is that a person never can tell where he is going to pick up a new style idea, but he can be pretty sure that if he's not in the right places he'll never find out about them.

Hollywood is one of the best places in the country to pick up new ideas, according to Surrey. He makes notes when he sees new styles and turns them over to his firm which plans accordingly. He is not interested in faddish clothing but in the correct dress for the occasion.

NU symphony plays in Union

72-piece orchestra will give concert Sunday

The university symphony orchestra will present a varied program Sunday afternoon at 3 in the Union ballroom.

The 72-piece orchestra directed by Don Lentz, will open the program with Gluck's "Overture to Iphigenia en Aulis." The music was revised by Richard Wagner.

"Concerto in D Major for Violin Allegro ma non troppo," by Beethoven, with Emanuel Wishnow as violinist will be a featured number of the program. The cadenza to be played at this performance was composed by Fritz Kreisler.

Other numbers on the program are: Prelude and Love Death—Tristan and Isolde, Wagner; "Ballet Music—Rosamunde," by Schubert; and "Overture—Fantasia, Romeo and Juliet," by Tschalkowsky.

the board's senior, junior and sophomore membership.

Keefer vice president.

Affiliated junior members are Frances Keefer, Lincoln, who will assume the post of vice president by virtue of polling the most votes of any junior candidate. She is a member of Delta Delta Delta. Harriett Talbot, Lincoln, and a Delta Gamma, is the other affiliated junior.

Unaffiliated junior members are Margaret Forrey, Lincoln, and Ruth Grosvenor, Aurora. Miss Grosvenor, as well as Misses DeLator and Sheldon was a member of last year's board.

Unaffiliated sophomore member will be Jean Powell, Lincoln. She polled more votes than any sophomore candidate, so will be secretary-treasurer of the group. Dorothy Latsch, Alpha Omicron Pi from Lincoln, was chosen the affiliated sophomore member.

press office, and the Villa Cortright in Italy.

Up in the workshop we found some of the scenes in the state of preparation. There we found a garden wall, supposedly of stone, which two men could carry, hotel and office rooms, and a ship bar. In this workshop of wonders, four men can carry a whole room about with comparative ease. They pick up the scenery for a room, carry it out thru the extra-high door, place it on a special elevator, and lower it down to the stage.

This work is directed by Delford Brummer, instructor of stage design and scenic art, and he is aided by students from the beginning stage craft class and the lighting class, who work as stage and property crews for their lab work.

Books on the European war are most popular of the non-fiction books used by students in college libraries.

IU band plans three state tours

AMES, Iowa, March 7—Iowa State's concert band will make an 1,820-mile tour through Iowa, Nebraska and Colorado during the 9-day vacation between the winter and spring quarters, Band Director Alvin R. Edgar announced.

The band of 74 students will give 22 concerts on a trip that will be self-supporting.

The band will conclude its tour with concerts at Blair, Neb., and Logan, Harlan and Atlantic, Iowa, on March 27.

experience than men like Dewey and Wheeler. He's more able to keep us out of war than any other man. Besides, he's got the government in a mess and he's the only one who can get us out."

C. R. Wilkinson, arts and sciences freshman:

"Vandenberg. I think he has had the necessary experience in government, and he's an able political leader. There has been too much spending in the new deal."

Charles Sandall, law freshman: "Dewey. We need a change of administration and policy. He's a man of the people like W. J. Bryan. He talked to a delegation of negroes before he talked to a group of white people."

Margaret Robbins, arts and sciences senior:

"Gracie Allen is my choice. She has fine ideas. She believes in nepotism. She's not the capitalistic type. She believes in sharing the wealth—among her relatives."

Lester Peckler, Bizad junior:

"Vandenberg, because he's a liberal republican. He has practical ideas and is not as radical as Roosevelt."

Music students give York recital

A group of students from the school of music went to York Tuesday evening to give a program for the fine arts society there. For the most part, the program consisted of solos and vocal quartets, with Mrs. Margaret Lindgren as accompanist.

Several other students of the school of music have been entertaining at various functions in Lincoln recently. Tuesday afternoon Aronita Daskovsky, violinist, played at a tea in the Jewish Synagogue, and Betty Jean Horner accompanied for a program given by Mrs. Charlotte Kiesselbach at a meeting of the Sorosis Club in the home of Mrs. Samuel Avery.

Hazelmae Ogle sang a group of songs for the Hall-in-the-Grove Club at the YWCA Friday afternoon, accompanied by Malcolm Hayes. Hazel Arpke, soprano, will be soloist at the First Christian church at Beatrice, Sunday morning.

Style?... There's no question about it.

MAGEE'S

"The Campus Style Center"

Here are the clothes that were Ok'd by the Campus Clinic

LAST Tuesday 100 university fellows gathered at Magee's to review the 1940 spring and summer styles and to O. K. those numbers that met with their special approval. What more critical audience could you imagine... but Magee's new campus styles came through in flying colors. You can count on their style authority... they're approved by Magee's and the Style Clinic!

Here were the suit favorites

TWEEDS: a leading favorite in sport type fabrics for sport coats and two-somes.

TWO-SOMES: a matched coat and slack set that combines with blending slacks to make ideal sport outfits.

COVERTS: still a campus favorite... the natural shades and spaced stripes were hits of the show.

FLY-FRONT TOPPERS: in tweed and plain coverts. Stitched cuffs and coat bottom preferred.

BLUE HAZE: the new color sensation for spring. Led the poll in colors for suits, topcoats and hats.

THREE BUTTON COAT: the three button jacket for suits and sport coat is the great favorite for spring.
