Victory of Tarkio college in the national basketball tournament for small colleges at Kansas City last weekend, wasn't any too surprising to the sparse crowd that saw the Tarkio team perform plenty of cage magic here when they walloped the Husker "B" team by some 40 points here.

Don Boydston, the Oklahoma A. & M. sports editor, got 6 feet, 8 1/4 inches at the Southwest Exposition track meet last Saturday... Boydston, only a sophomore, barely missed at 6-9 1/4, which would have been a new world's record.

Intramural track meet is April 3, 4

Six individual events, two-lap relay slated for NU indoor track

Plans are under way for the second renewal of the annual interfraternity track and field championships sponsored by the intramural office.

Intramural Director Harold Pets has set Wednesday and Thursday, April 3 and 4, for the preliminaries and finals of the meet which will be run off on the indoor track beneath the east stadium.

Phi Gamma Delta, with flying Gene Littler leading the way, ran off with last year's laurels, but with Littler graduated into varsity ranks, this year's affair looks wide open.

Two dashes slated

Six events and a relay will again be contested. Entries will be taken in the 40 and 75-yard dashes; the 60 lows, the shot, high jump and broad jump.

No more than three entries will be accepted from each fraternity in any event. Entries are due no later than April 2.

Six places will be awarded, and a 6-5-4-3-2-1 scoring system will be used.

Hopp scores only touchdown as Harvards trip Yales, 7 to 0

The Huskers went thru their second scrimmage of the year yesterday, and Harry Hopp scored the only points as the Harvards got 7, the Yales 0.

A first string Yale squad started against the Harvard seconds, but could not score. Closest they came to a tally was the 20 yard line, after a Rohrig to Bob Kahler pass from midfield had put the ball on Harvards 30.

An offside aided Yale in getting a first and ten on the 20, but the Harvard defense, which had Arlo Klum and Leonard Cooper leading roles, stalled the attack as Floyd Harris, center, intercepted a Rohrig pass, and new teams were sent in.

The first Harvard team was the one that scored against the second string Yale outfit. The Yales fumbled on their own 12 to set the pins for Hopp's touchdown.

The Hastings plunger got 11 over tackle, then hit the line for the tally. He added the extra point.

New teams.

Jones then sent new teams into action, and the third stringers of both squads finished up the night against each other.

A stiff scrimmage is scheduled for today, as the Huskers wind up drills before leaving on spring vacations. Yesterday's drill was the third time outside for the team.
