Wave of nationalism sweeps over college fashion frontier

By Mary Jean McCarthy.

Waves of nationalism sweeping over the fashion frontier have made red, white, and blue the popular color combination for the spring of '40. True patriotism is the spirit and we can easily see why. Could be the war, could be the predictions of the famous Schiaparelli, or could be just the favorite hues of the campus cuties. So fall in line, and sing this rhyme . . . Three Cheers for the Red, White and Blue.

EAST-ER WEST

seems to be the question now, as to the inquiry of vacation travelers. Kappa Mary V. Knowles is quite excited about her long-awaited trip to Chicago and to Sigma Nu Ed Steeves. Ibs Waugh is getting rather thrilled too, as the days roll past and her visit with Beta John Brownlee draws nearer. Theta Mary Marnell will trip up to Kansas City to welcome spring and vacation.

'KAPPA SIGMA

summer house—"some are home and some are out." This is the jovial phrase that will greet your ears if you would just happen to call the Kappa Sig house this week. The pledges looked mighty spiffy in their tuxes. Guess they are preserving them for further use with that necklace of moth-balls.

ALTHO

Alpha Phi Dorothy Tipton and Phi Delt Lauren Barnaby are definitely through and hardly ever see each other they seem to keep the wires plenty hot between the two houses.

CONVENTION BOUND

are Bill Mowbray, Bob Simmons, Jack Cole, and Jim Kirkendall. They are leaving for the Sigma Nu regional convention in Austin, Texas, today and plan to spend some time browsing about the southlands. It seems the boys have some feminine acquaintances down Mexico way who will keep them well occupied when they are not conventioning.

WERNER BUCH

German exchange student at the Phi Psi house last year is back for the holidays. He will spend his vacation in Omaha as the guest of Boo Ball. He is attending the University of Chicago this year.

THE PIN

epidemic has hit the Kappa house, and after five hangings (of pins) in one week, all are wondering who will be next. Bets are on Kay

Wilson has been noted for his ableness as a lawyer in the law firm of Wilson and Vankirk. Foster added. He was county judge of Lancaster county before the war, a member of the state legislature in 1923, and assistant attorney general in 1919. The subject he teaches at the university is Evidence.

Spring--

(Continued from Page 1.) winter are soon forgotten with the coming of the light of spring. Come the first spring rains and the fifth and dirt left by the slush of winter are washed away. Come Easter morn and all the world dresses in its new spring clothes . . . on Fifth Avenue, the Elite display their Paris-derived finery, on Wilshire Boulevard, the Californians flaunt their cinema-conceived clothes, and on the streets of all the nation, Americans are dressed in their best.

With all this "dressing up" in the minds of men and on the bodies of men comes a new rhythm in the hearts of men. We no longer blaspheme the damnable cold nor the stinging wind—we now look with a sort of reverence at the new-bright sun, at the new-soft sky, and at the new-found happiness of the whole universe. THIS is spring.

occurred and new officers now rule the roost at the Sigma Nu house. Commander is Jack Cole; Vice-Commander, Bus Knight; Treasurer, Bob Simmons; and Pledge Captain, Les Johnson.

Women voters sponsor two civic meetings

The Lincoln League of Women Voters and other Lincoln civic groups will sponsor two citizenship meetings in the Lincoln high school auditorium tonight and Thursday. Tonight at 8 p. m., Dr. Shepherd L. Witman, associate professor of government at the University of Omaha, will lead a panel discussion on the question, "What are the issues before Nebraska voters in this campaign?"

The candidates for the United States senate have been invited as the principal speakers at the meeting Thursday night. The men who will speak are Edward Burke, Hugh A. Butler, R. L. Cochran, A. W. Jefferis, John H. Miller, Adam McMullen, and Arthur J. Weaver. The candidates for county commissioner have also been invited to briefly discuss their plan for the administration of relief in Lancaster county.

Court clerk tells Young Advocates of Integrated Bar

Explaining the organization and function of Nebraska's Integrated Bar before a meeting of the Young Advocates, pre-law group, George Turner, clerk of the state supreme court declared last night that the advantages of the Integrated Bar far outweigh its disadvantages.

Included in the list of functions performed by the bar are the setting up of qualifications for admission, the promotion of patriotic observances, the prosecution of unauthorized practice of the law, the promotion of statutes approved by the judicial council and the hearing of complaints made against lawyers by laymen.

Clyde Martz was appointed chairman of a committee to plan the pre-law banquet. Members of the committee are Louise Wilke, Howard Bessire, Delores Carter, James Webb and Blaine Sloane, ex-officio member.

Phi Sigma Iota initiates seven new members

Phi Sigma Iota, honorary language fraternity, initiated seven new members last Saturday night at a meeting which 50 attended. Dr. David Cabeen, visiting instructor, was toastmaster. The principal speech was given by Dr. Mabel Strong, of the English department.

Title of her speech was "Charlie Chan and the Mort d'Arthur." She compared the principal incidents in the life of Sir Palamades as interpreted by the "Mort d'Arthur" and by a modern satirical book, "Customs of St. Johns Day" was the subject of an amusing speech by Lloyd Heal, Spanish instructor.

The seven new initiates of Phi Sigma Iota are: Thomas R. Wiley, Spanish instructor, Dorothy Smoke, a graduate student, Louise Henson and Edith Keller who graduate in 1940, and Robert Sandberg, Elizabeth Groth and Jewel Tinker, all graduating in 1941.

- ★ I WAS A PRISONER ON A SUBMARINE. Lights winked out of the blackness. Someone said, "Submarine!" And within minutes, eight dumb-founded passengers were hustled off their America-bound liner and into the sub. The writer tells what he saw, and what happened during his ten days as an underwater war prisoner. Read the strange document in this week's Post, by HUGO BLEIBERG.
- ★ FOOL FOR A WIFE. She was too pretty for a farm wife, they said. And too silly. Photographing flowers, while the dinner burned. Strolling in the woods, while her husband plowed . . . Then something happened to make neighbors wonder who the real fool was. A short story, Perley Thinks I'm Silly, by DAVID LAMSON.
- ★ "WE'LL BEAT THE YANKS!" "Last season we batted .291 to the Yanks' .288, beat them 11 games to 8. Break up the Yanks? I say build up the Yanks! We want to win the pennant by a knockout, not a foul!" The Red Sox Manager this week tells you the fine points of his team, his recruits and his "farm" prospects. Told, with George Kirksey, by JOE CRONIN.
- ★ FRESH-WATER MERMAID. When a man makes a fool of himself over a woman, everybody knows it—except the man himself. Lydia, with her wide blue eyes and her taking ways, had Des hooked plenty and was reeling him in. His fishing partner just had to invent some way to shake loose that hook! A new big game fishing story by PHILIP WYLIE.
