

By June Bierbower.

Nebraskans who saw both Indiana and Kansas play basketball here this winter can count themselves fortunate indeed in that they saw those two, play for the national championship Saturday night. Nebraska is the only team in the country which has played both teams, and Nebraska's is the only court in the country where both teams have appeared.

Coach W. H. Browne thinks Kansas will win, and so does Sam Barry of U. S. C., whose team beat Purdue which has beaten Indiana. From seeing each team in action, our pick would be Indiana, altho the Jayhawkers, great opportunists that they are have come along in a great late-season rush. Indiana, to refresh your memory beat the Huskers 49-39. K. U. won here 48-41, and 40-24 at Lawrence.

Kansas may be lucky, but they're good, too. They drew the bye in the Big Six playoffs, faced Oklahoma A. & M. in the regional playoffs when the Aggies had just finished a New York tournament, after which they boarded an airplane for the midwest; then drew a comparatively easy first round opponent in Rice before beating U. S. C.

When the chips were down KU came through against Southern Cal, to win 43-42. Browne credits Phog Allen with some good strategy and Dick Harp with a great performance in the U. S. C. game. Phog put Harp on Ralph Vaughn, Southern Cal's great lefthanded shooter. He told him to disregard Vaughn's right-hand fake shots, but to play his left handed shots close. That is what Sir Richard did, and he had Vaughn practically at his mercy. Harp scored more points than the U. S. C. man did all night.

The Huskers can put an all-married backfield in now... Roy Petsch, Harry Hopp, Bob Kahler, Henry Rohn... that quartet is very likely to be one of the Biffer's first two sets of backs next year, at that... Leo Yeo, the Kansas State swimmer, is a promising candidate in the 440 and 880 as the Wildcats go into the outdoor track season... Clark Hetherington, Oklahoma polo star, is out for football... Iowa State college is sponsoring the national AAU wrestling tournament at Ames April 5 and 6... Campbell Kane, Indiana sophomore, who won the junior AAU 800 meters here last summer, turned in a 4:16.2 mile the other night... and Martin "Bob" Biles, California U. sophomore forward whom yours truly interviewed on a radio program last winter when the Bears played here, got 207 feet 11 inches as he won the javelin throw against Stanford in their recent meet... Stan Andersen, Stanford footballer, got 53-3 in the shot.

Harry Hopp back at NU grid practice

Huskers refrain from scrimmaging; new lineups listed

Biff Jones held his Huskers out of scrimmage for the second consecutive day, as yesterday's practice featured a return to the fold by Harry Hopp, latest benedict of the team, who arrived back in Lincoln after a short honeymoon.

Jones drilled the team on punting, passing, pass defense, and blocking, and the Yales and Harvards ran through a few plays. Charley Carper, end candidate from Lincoln was on the sidelines with a knee injury.

A scrimmage is certain for Saturday, while there may be one this afternoon.

Squadmen were shifted Wednesday afternoon, with promotions based for the most part on early season performances. Some moves were necessitated by scholastic difficulties of a few candidates.

Waddick moves up.

Don Waddick, Grand Island, was moved up to second string right end for the Harvard team, and Willard Bunker, Lincoln, went up to second team left end for the Yales. Gerry Kathol, Hartington frosh, was moved from the Yales to the Harvards, where he is second string left end now.

Fred Metheny, Lincoln, moved up behind Roy Petsch in the Harvard backfield, and Joe Partington, another former Lincoln star, moved in behind George Abel as Yale's left guard.

Jerry Dutcher, promising end candidate from Omaha Benson, was forced down the list because of scholastic trouble.

Baseballers drill outside for second time this week

By Don Pollock.

Nebraska's baseball team worked outside for the second day in a row yesterday, but the high wind and dusty weather curtailed drills to batting practise.

The practice consisted of limbering up drills, infield workouts, batting practice, and pepper games. Sid Held, Oscar Tegtmeier, "Ole" Swanson, Harry Truscott outstanding plebe pitcher at Annapolis two years ago, and Bob Garey pitchers, warmed up easily with catchers, Cliff Hurley, and Dick Joyce.

Knight divided the infield into two groups. The first outfit had Lance Ray on third, Bernie La Myster at short, Ed Ockerman at second, Frank Rubino on first base and Dick Joyce catching. The second lineup had Leonard Van Buskirk at third, Bob Blakewell at short, Frank Coffman at second, Don Pollock on first, and Cliff Hurley catching.

Dew Wilson, hard hitting second baseman from last year's team, John McDermott, and Al Schmode were the lettermen absent from last night's workout. Knight expects these men to report later in the week. Pitcher Edsel Wibbels, and the outstanding first base prospect Lloyd Kronick were in street cloths for the drill.

Regular workouts will be held outside daily at 3 o'clock if weather permits, and if not strategy meetings will be held in the coliseum. Practices will be held daily prior to the first game with Luther at Decorah, Ia. on April 18.

The schedule:

April 18: Luther at Decorah, Ia.
April 19, 20: Iowa State at Ames.
April 26, 27: Missouri at Lincoln.
April 29, 30: Minnesota at Minneapolis.
May 3, 4: Kansas at Lawrence.
May 10, 11: Kansas State at Lincoln.
May 13, 14: Iowa State at Lincoln.
May 16: Oklahoma A.&M. at Stillwater.
May 17, 18: Oklahoma at Norman.
May 24, 25: Colorado U. at Lincoln.

Simmons to run in select 500 yard race at New York

Bob Simmons, Nebraska grad who holds the Big Six indoor and outdoor 440 records, left last night for New York where he will race Sunday night in a special 500 yards race against the country's best men at that distance.

The race, one of seven top-notch events which will be contested in the Finnish Relief fund program at Madison Square Garden that night, will pit Simmons against Charley Belcher, Georgia; Roy Cochran, Indiana; Dick Gill, Boston. Simmons is filling in. Simmons has never run the 500 in competition, although he has worked out at that distance. Bob won a special 600 yard race at Kansas City recently in 1:15.5.

A three-mile race between Greg Rice of Notre Dame and Finland's Taisto Maki will be the feature of the meet. Simmons will return to Lincoln on the Burlington Zephyr, arriving here Monday night.

The Husker grad, now a law student, had to pass up an invitation to run the 440 at the Millrose games in February because of his law studies. He, however, was notified Wednesday that he was chosen to run in Herbert's place Sunday night, and can make the trip. He may also run as a member of a "west" relay team against an "east" outfit.
