C. E. McBride of the Kansas City Star commends the Big Ten officials who decided Indiana was a better team than the Purdue basketball crew, which won the Western conference championship. It was reported that Purdue had a chance to represent the Big Ten in national competition, and turned it down. Purdue, though, never was invited, as the Big Teners just decided Indiana would carry their colors better. They seem to have been very right.

Entries for the intramural track meet which gets under way tonight closed Tuesday as seventeen fraternities filed entry lists. Preliminaries start this evening on the track under the coliseum at 7:30, and the finals will be held on Thursday evening, starting at the same time.

Phi Gamma Delta has lost Gene iLttler, who led them to victory last year, and it looks as though Alpha Tau Omega may come through with this year's crown. Seven events, the shot, 60 lows, high jump, broad jump, 40 yard dash, 75 yard dash and relay will be contested.

The ATO's have Don Morris, frosh quartermiler, and state sprint champion last year, in the low hurdles, the relay, sprints and the broad jump. Ralph Worden, who ran hurdles for the varsity last year, is in the hurdles, and both jumps, while Dick Delfs and Bill Wiley, both former high school trackmen, along with Dick Stasny, shot-putter, add strength to the team.

Fijis strong.

The Phi Gams will not be out of it, what with sprinters Dwight Whitaker, Bob Chatt and Phil Grant, while Bud Tallman and Sid Held are Beta hopes, Tallman in the low, high jump and sprints, and Held in the high jump and shot. Dow Wilson, who is entered in the lows, relays and both sprints, is the Delts' main threat, while the AGR's have Titterington, and the Phi Delts have Prince Bolton, Lyle King, Dean Jackson and Chuck Oldfather.

Harvards down Yales 6-0

Harry Hopp makes only touchdown

Harry Hopp's touchdown against Yale's second string gave the Harvards a 6-0 decision over the Eli's in yesterday afternoon's scrimmage on the Husker practice field.

Hopp went over from the one yard line to climax a 45-yard drive after the Eli's had recovered John Thompson's fumble. Hopp and Luther in two plays made it first and ten on the 32, then Wayne Blue, in the Harvard lineup for Henry Rohn, who has had several teeth pulled, plunged through to the 19.

Hopp got five yards, Blue three, and then Walt Luther carried it to the one aided by a fine block by Roy Petsch on a reverse. Harry going over from there. No attempt was made for the extra point.

Vike breaks loose.

Yale's best scoring chance came early in the first part of the scrimmage, as big Vike Francis plowed through for 40 yards to the Harvards seconds' 27 yard marker, but the Red team held.

Joe Partington was filling George Abel's guard post on the Yale's team, as the regular Husker guard was taking a rest last night. Herman Rohrig was slightly shaken up during the workout, and Jack Vincent filled in for him.

A second string Yale crew got inside the Harvard's 30 late in the workout, when Willard Bunker recovered a Red fumble on the Harvard 43. Ken Simmons and Ernie Weekes advanced it to the 29, but a bad pass from center put it back to the 41, and the best the Reds could get from there was to the 34.

Francis and Blue were plunging well, Vike once getting 11 yards through the middle. Dale Bradley made a 32 yard punt return to his own 42 on the play before Bunker recovered the Harvard fumble.
