Laurel, Hardy draw laughs from cinemites; Flynn rides

A comedy in which two street cleaners get a college hazing at Oxford university when they enroll there as students and a shoot-in thriller of the romantic old west will be the main features providing excuses from the daily grind for relaxing scholars and "cinemites" in general at Lincoln theatres this weekend.

The comic-team Laurel and Hardy co-star in "A Chump at Oxford" and turn the whole Oxford campus topsy-turvy on the Nebraska screen starting Saturday.

Street cleaners.
While working as street cleaners in America the two boys catch a bank robber and are then awarded educations at Oxford by the bank president. The English lads, seeing a chance to have some fun, give the two new students a genuine college hazing. Among the various forms of mayhem is a "dunking" in the pool and running a line of paddles. Our heroes return home after the dean becomes involved in the melee.

A companion feature at the Nebraska is "Death of a Champion" with Lynne Overman and Virginia Dale.

"West of Dodge City there was no law...and there lay Virginia City!" once commented a newspaper man.

"Virginia City" now showing at the Lincoln is the story of a city in Nevada when during the wild and woolly days, according to Mark Twain who worked on the "Territorial Enterprise," it is said it was no disgrace to kill a man in the city, and slayings were so frequent that local paper treated them with astonishing brevity.

The story deals with the con-

Finish cartoon, win tickets!

Twenty-five free tickets to "A Chump at Oxford" with Laurel and Hardy will be awarded to the students who pencil in the funniest finish to this Laurel-Hardy cartoon. Only your imagination and your own ingenuity are needed to show how the two might look invading Oxford's halls of learning. All entries must be submitted to the DAILY business office by 5 p. m. Monday. Prizes will be awarded Tuesday. Judges are Arthur Hill, business manager and Dick deBrown, editor of the DAILY, and Mr. Lofgren, manager of the Nebraska theater.

Swinging Along

By Floyd Irving.

Colonel Manny Prager, Ben Bernies old side-kick, and popular of "The Kings Horses" has top billing at the Turnpike this weekend. For a new band showing there is something to cheer about. Eighteen-year-old Betty Bonney really gives with the voice. If deservability and hard work mean anything, this outfit should go far.

Dick Jurgens, who long ago swore he'd never have another girl singer, evidently changed his mind.

Dick has signed 16-year-old Chicago high school girl, Gloria Gilbert, to take over as vocalist. Gloria will fill spot left vacant by Eddie Howard, who left the band to form a band of his own for radio.

Trends.

Insiders in the band business look to the colleges and universities to the tip-off on orchestra trends and popularity, and the busiest barometer of collegiate taste today seems to be Jack Teagarten and his orchestra. Since January Jack and his "band that really plays the blues" have included seventeen college dates in an already crowded cage, ballroom.

theater, recording and hotel schedule—a record for college engagements, since seventeen dates are more than the average band plays in a year or more.

Howard Woods and band have introduced a new and novel style called, "Musical Echoes," in which one section of the orchestra echoes in tempo and melody which has just been played by another section.

"Budweiser Bob" is what his cronies call Bob Eberlee, chanter with the Jim Dorsey gang. Eberlee is reputed to be able to down three beers in three minutes, night or day, before or after meals.
