

There are . . .

Still some lads 'n lasses who are footloose, fancy free

By Mary Jean McCarthy.

Now that everyone is going steady or else they at least have a pin it seems a little difficult to find something to ramble about. But then, people still drink cokes, go to movies, have house parties, and formals. Then too, some are still foot loose and fancy free and are just scanning the happy hunting grounds. We are hoping that everyone is looking forward to another perfect week end for today, it has arrived—after five o'clock.

WHAT TO DO

is the question Kappa Delt Marion Stone is trying to solve these days for last week she asked Marvin Kruse, Farmhouse, to her spring house party not knowing that the Kappa Sig party was the same night and being the reason that Don Siemson to whom she was pinned for a year, would be down for the fun. Some fun. Yes???

THE PARADE

you might have seen a few evenings ago out north was all brought on by Sig Alph Clark O'Hanlon, who had bet the brothers he could run for two solid miles, without rest, water, food, or drink—of course it took Lloyd Wright, one of the brothers, to set the pace and spur him on, but old "Butch" finally won, and is now ten dollars to the good.

WEDDING BELLS

will soon be ringing for Theta Marie Anderson for she is now wearing a beautiful diamond and Easter present from her flying cadet.

MYSTERY LOOMS AGAIN

at the Beta house and they are hoping it will be the last time too. Last night, when it was all dark, someone, not saying who, for we don't know, but someone, cut down one of the trees in the front yard. What will they do for shade???. What will they do for leaves? What will they do

BLISS, 'TIS WONDERFUL thinks Kappa Sig Pledge Rex Crews since he met Beth Howley. He has some dates in the near future with her and when telling his brothers of his fortune they merely scoffed and said, "O. K. We bet you can't get her picture." So a few nights later he called the mocking brothers in, and as they stood around they saw on his dresser, yes, that's right, Beth's picture. We wonder who's laughing now. By the way a flying cadet down Texas way has the original copy.

TROUBLES A BREWIN'

and this time it is between Kappa Ann McLaughlin and Phi Psi Tom Grimes. They used to be seen almost everywhere together but now one of the brothers, namely Al Busch, is head man and has stepped into Tom's old shoes.

SUNDAY NIGHT

the Alpha Chis will have a buffet supper and entertain the fellahs. Some of those going will be Carole Brown and Acacia Butch Larson; Faye Irwin and Sig Ep Clint Jurgenson; Mary Lu Adams and Whitey Reed, Delt and Nancy Mauk with Bob Schricker.

SOME OF THE BOYS

say that on the twelve-thirty nights Sig Ep Julien Bors takes a step ladder over to the AOPi house and a few minutes before "lights out" he mounts the ladder and turns out the lights. How come J. B.?

COME OVER FOR DINNER

tonight girls, for DG Margy Krause says that this is the big night and that she has decided it would be an excellent time to pass the candy. Why tonight? 'Cause there will not be so many there? Wonder what happened to the old adage—the more the merrier?

Ski Stealers —

craftily send out ski troops to round up the potent beverage which is the staff of life to the Russians.

"Ski Stealers" includes a cast of 17 characters, headed by "Egor," known as Jack Bittner, arts and science senior and star of the University Players. Louis Wilkins, arts and science, has the role of "President Helsinki" who leads his side in the attempt to gain revenge on Rush.

"Studsky" and "Crabitch" Egor's right hand men, are portrayed by Bob Gelwich and Verne Geissinger. The Parts of "Guy Helsinki" son of the president, and the "Colonel," an Englishman called in by Finland to solve the Rush mystery, have been assigned to Carl Harnsberger and Tom Philips.
