

Sophs Hunt, Brooks, Smutz among 18 going to KU relays

—Journal and Star.

Sophomores, as usual, will carry the load Saturday as Ed Weir sends an 18 man Husker squad into action at the Kansas Relays at Lawrence.

Harold Hunt, North Platte, the Big Six's best pole vaulter; Gothenburg's Harold Brooks, Nebraska's best distance man in years, and Bill Smutz, Pawnee City, Big Six indoor low hurdles champion, are in the entry list.

Hunt is entered in the pole vault, Brooks in the four-mile relay and the sprint medley, and Smutz is in the 120 high hurdles, the broad jump and the sprint medley.

Littler a favorite.

Red Littler, phenomenal sophomore sprinter, is one of the favorites in the hundred, along with Welby Williams of North Texas and Myron Piker of Northwestern. George Abel, another new man, is also entered in the hundred. The Husker sprint medley team will be picked from an all sophomore group including Littler, Smutz, Abel, Brooks, and Norman Davis, intramural "find" from Mitchell, Littler's home town.

Edsel Wibbels has the best competitive mark of any man entered in the discus, although he faces stiff competition from Jack Hughes of Texas, Ray Prochaska, who will finish his football duties Wednesday, may not hit his best form this early in the season.

Another footballer, Bus Knight, is entered in the javelin. Knight, who surprised by winning last year's Big Six crown, will have a star teammate in Herb Grote, sophomore. The Kansas meet will be Grote's first appearance in college competition, although he won the junior AAU championship and tossed the spear over 213 feet in the senior event last summer. Maynard Swartz, Omaha, will be making his debut with the Huskers, having been kept out of competition by a bad knee last year.

Wibbels and Prochaska are entered in the shot as well as the discus, and Bob Kahler, one of the team's few juniors, is in both the high hurdles and the high jump. Sophomore Dale Nannen is in the high jump and broad jump.

The Huskers' four-mile relay includes Bill Cook of North Loup, the Husker distance man who never did any high school running; LeRoy Walker, veteran from Hastings; Dale Garrels, first year man from Diller who had a year at Doane, and Brooks.

Recipients of basketball numerals are Clyde Bronn, Roca; Lowell Armstrong, Lincoln; Robert Bramson, Omaha; Dale Bradley, Lincoln; Paul Dinnis, Lewiston; John Fitzgibbon, Tobias; Warren Gabelman, Tilden; Theodore Greene, York; Stanley Huffman, Elgin; Dean Jackson, Lincoln; Wayne Kellogg, Omaha; Robert Lovick, Falls City; John Thompson, Lincoln; Max Young, Lincoln.

Knight searches for hitting as baseballers drill

In effort to find some hitting power on his Nebraska ball nine, Coach Wilbur Knight sent his baseball prospects through an elongated hitting drill Monday afternoon. An intrasquad game was held with varsity pitchers Harry Truscott and Raymond Doyle opposing each other.

The first team infield was revamped with Oscar Tegtmeier taking over first, Bob Searle was playing third base, and Leonard Van Buskirk was subbing for Bernie LeMaster at shortstop.

The DAILY NEBRASKAN

By June Bierbower.

Funny part of last Saturday's scrimmage was watching the Yale first team drive to a score against the Harvard firsts, then letting Harvard's second team score on them. Of course, it was only a twenty-yard drive which brought the first tally scored against the first string Reds all year, who incidentally were playing without their regular ends Prochaska and Preston. However, the Eli's deserved it, because the Reds were given a chance on the Yale's 20, but they couldn't put it across. The Biffer, who was more or less "chaperoning" each team on offense, called for Dale Bradley to throw the pass which Vike Francis intercepted, to start the Yales on their way. To even things up, he turned the ball over to the Harvards after the touchdown.

Don Rubottom's touchdown against the Yales was the first scored by a reserve team against a first team this spring, too. The Harvard first team scored on the Yale first team a couple of Saturdays ago, although last Saturday was the first time the Yale's could do it.

Harry Hopp turned in two nice runs after he was apparently trapped trying to pass...the first time he got nearly 20 yards, and the next time around 15...although the gains were due partially to careless tackling, Hopp showed a fine change of pace and some powerful running on the two occasions...veteran guards Alfson, Abel and Schwartzkopf look better every day...behind them George Stearns, Howard Zorn, Lynn Myers and Francis Greenleaf, none of whom have had any experience, are all coming along fast...the Huskers are certainly not lacking in fullbacks...Vike Francis has been blasting 'em this spring...Wayne Blue was smacking the second Yale line for four and five yards at a crack Saturday...little Ken Simmons has been a consistent ground gainer all season...he showed he had plenty of defensive ability in the Kansas State game last fall...Hank Rohn has been out most of the spring because of some bad teeth, but he proved his worth last fall.

For the first time in history, every Big Ten school will be entered in the Drake Relays...A Southern Cal, sophomore, Leroy Weed by name, is said on good authority to have run the mile in 4:12.8 in a recent warmup meet against the S. C. Athletic Association...Dean Cromwell, his coach, tho, padded the time up to 4:18.7, the way it appeared in the summaries of the meet...Oklahoma spring football drills will continue "indefinitely and maybe longer," according to Tom Stidham...Russell Bradford, who went to Nebraska a few weeks, then was at Wayne a while, has shown up at Iowa State Teachers college.

Sports scribes pick Yanks, Reds to win flags this year

By Jim Evinger.

Everybody else is doing it, so why not the sports staff of the DAILY? Picking the ultimate outcome of the major league races, we mean. A huddle was formed Monday afternoon and three scribes came up with the results predicted in the following paragraphs.

Tuesday afternoon, the big league circus gets under way to last until the first week in October. A lot of batting and pitching will roll under the bridge before the forthcoming campaigns will be concluded and the selections presented here are only the way the teams size up at the present and the way the three crystal gazers believe should be the final results.

Sports Editor, June (Swami) Bierbower, Alex (Grantland Rice) Mills, and Jim (Yahudi) Evinger spent many a thoughtful moment before coming up with their selections, so they must not be taken with a grain of salt.

All three scribes were unanimous in picking the Yankees to repeat in the American league, while in the senior loop, Cincinnati drew top honors on two sheets and the St. Louis Cardinals a first place on the other chart. The poor Philadelphia Phillies and St. Louis Browns seemed doomed to finish in the cellars according to the crystal gazers. The selections:

SAM wins handball title

Victors get tenth title in 14 years

For the tenth time in fourteen years, Sigma Alpha Mu took the intramural handball title, as they went into the finals Monday afternoon with the Sigma Nu's and won 4 to 0, without the loss of one match in the entire championship contest.

This victory climaxed a successful attempt to continue the hold on this title as the winning singles team went through the season without a loss while their double team lost only one match. Irv Yaffe beat Bill Mowbray 21-8 and 21-10; the doubles team of Bordy and Woolf won over the Sigma Nu's doubles team of Wurtz and Dobson 21-8 and 21-17 in the other single match Finklestein eliminated Howie Marshall 21-7, 21-9.
