Parties will test strength today

Official Newspaper Of More Than 7,000 Students

Vol. 39, No. 129

Lincoln, Nebraska

Thursday, April 18, 1940

Final vocational advisor appears speaks of 'crisis in religion'

Ken Robinson No, Westin didn't talk on war speaks today < on radio jobs

NBC continuity editor AWS, Dean of Women bring NBC script editor

Radio Executive Ken Robinson, continuity editor of the central division of NBC in Chicago, will address the last of the vocational guidance series at 4 in parlors XYZ of the Union today.

Subject of Mr. Robinson's "for men too' talk is 'Diversified Opportunities in Radio," on which the supervisor is well qualified to speak.

Newspaper promotion manager.

Robinson entered business as a salesman of office equipment, later joining the staff of the Chicago Evening American as promotion manager. While working for the Evening American his attention was directed to radio as a promotion medium, and his efforts to create radio drama were followed with immediate success.

One of the executive's accomplishments was a recorded drama series against war, which brought him to the attention of NBC. He was offered the position of assistant continuity editor for the central division in 1936, and became editor later in the year.

Author of serials.

Besides directing the writing. Robinson has himself authored several popular serials and some "Lights Out" scripts.

Robinson has general supervision of all creative writing initiated in the central division continuity department, and is editor of all NBC script material originating outside the studios.

Students of the university gath- countries of Scandinavia, the ered yesterday morning to hear Swedish historian said, "I think the long awaited speech of Dr. that independence may make Gunnar Westin on "The Scandi- successful resistance." navian Countries in the Present Crisis," expecting to hear the "inside" on the German invasion of those northern countries. Instead, they hear of the "crisis" existing between the church and the Nordic civilization in the Scandinavian countries. Instead of a first hand discussion of the history making invasion by Germany, they heard a review of the history of churches in Scandinavia. In short, everyone was surprised.

Am no politician.

was not going to discuss the largest political change of any Scandinavian war, adding that his country. The labor movement led "topic was formulated a month to a crisis with the church, but ago," before there was a Scandi- modification of the policies of both navian war. "Events are so rap-idly developing," he said, "that I cannot give developments for the last few days.'

Pointing out that there is great pressure in the Scandinavian countries today, with trade going down and taxes up, Dr. Westin stated that "national freedom is not a part of money." Although no one expects action from the small Church history. Discussing the history of Sweden and other Scandinavian countries in regard to their churches. he recalled that in the early 19th century the "provincialism of the Scandinavian countries was broken because of the revival movement and closer connections with England and America." The Anglo-American influence was very strong in politics, he continued.

Turning to "free people's" move-Remarking that "I am no poli- ments, he believed that the Scandi-tician," Dr. Westin said that he navian labor movement was the organizations has prevented conflict. Speaking of the change, Dr. Westin said, "As for Sweden, the system worked pretty well during the new situation."

Crisis is formed.

However, the crisis affected the Christian religion itself, problems being formed because of the work of naturalists, and "preponderers. (See WESTIN, page 4.)

N Club ticket sales brisk for Lunceford

Ticket sales for the annual N Club party which will feature Jimmie Lunceford and his ing to N Club members. Selling at $1.50, the tickets may be purchased at Uni drug, Student Union, and Magee's.

Informal, the party promises to be one of the outstanding affairs of the social season. Lunceford and his band will feature the famous trio of Willie Smith, Jerry Wilson, and Eddie Tompkins. The band has been heard many times on NBC and played a season at the wellknown Cotton Club.

Smith, Gill and Olson vie for orator position

Men cast ballots from 9 'til 5; 25 Innocent candidates to be nominated in preference vote

By Hubert Ogden.

With political fires already glowing from 'Tuesday's eligibility struggle, and with the Barb Union faction still a questionmark in the minds of campus bigwigs, three confident factions clash at the polls today in the Ivy Day Orator-Innocents election. Voting will take place from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. in the Union basement on the city campus and in Ag Hall on the ag campus.

Traditionally a preliminary testing of party strength prior to the annual Student Council contest scheduled for the middle of May, todays election is predicted to bring a large partisan vote. With Clineberg's inelegibility, law students now equalize the ability of the contesting candidates and declare that the results of an election have never been more unpredictable.

Candidates.

Progressives are putting forward Bryce Smith; Barb Union, Lyle Gill, and the Liberals are backing Gall Olson, who by the ruling of the

WAA gives

$25 awards

Sprague, Kienker,

Beams win; others

get participation cups

WAA presented scholarship

awards of $25 to Elnora Sprague,

Lorene Kienker, and Lorraine

Beams Wednesday evening. Participation cups went to Helen Ko-vanda, Dorothy Swoboda, Esther

Schneiderwind and Patricia Pope.

Helen Kovanda, president of the association, presented the awards.

Elnora Sprague and Lorene Kienker as participants in WAA activities, and one went to Lorrane

Beams who is not. The participation cups are awarded to senior girls who have participated in the most intramural sports during

Officers installed.

are: president, Hortense Cassady;

vice president, Elnora Sprague;

The officers who were installed

their four years in school.

Two scholarships were given to Council elections committee Tuesday was not permitted to officially file for the position. The Liberal faction plans to write in his name on the ballot.

Junior and senior men will nominate five candidates for the Innocents society from any junior man meeting the eligibility re-quirements of the society. A list of all those eligibles will be posted at the polls. The 25 men receiving the most votes will be nominated.

Election results are to be available at the NEBRASKAN office as soon as the polls close at 5 p. m. Votes will thereafter be tabulated until all ballots are counted.

Records all even.

Political victories at present evened off between the two major parties, by the Liberal win, of Willard Wilson as Orator last spring, by the Progressive student Council sweep of eight to five, and by the spit in offices at the Presidential election last fall, campus (See ELECTION, page 4.)

Profs attend joint meeting

Midwest Sociologists, Economists convene

Sixteen members of the faculty and several graduate assistants attend the joint program or will the Midwest Economics Associatreasurer, Jeannette Mickey; con- tion and the Midwest Sociological Society which will be held at Des Moines today through Saturday.

Dairy prizes go to Silvey and Carter

Cattle judging contest winner scores 1,024; over seventy compete

Harry Silvey, sophomore and Jack Carter, junior, carried off the nonors in the student dairy cattle and products judging contests respectively on ag campus as results of the contests were announced and awards presented Tuesday evening by Varsity Dairy club members, who sponsored the contest.

The vocational guidance series is sponsored by the AWS and the office of the dean of women. Mr. Robinson will hold conferences, which may be arranged for at Dean Hosp's office, in the Union faculty lounge.

Dancers give program here

1

Phys Ed club brings Shaw troupe exhibition

A cross-section of dances of the world will be presented in Grant Memorial at 7:30 Saturday when Lloyd Shaw's Cheyenne Mountain Dancers convort under the auspices of the Lincoln Physical Education club.

The troupe is composed of 16 Colorado mountain school artists who are now touring the United States from coast to coast.

European, early American, Mexican, and Cowboy dances are all given a whirl as a series in the presentation of historic dances.

Strictly in an informal mood, the unstereotyped dances move rapidly. Mr. Shaw, befitting the mood of the evening, adds brief dance data and parenthetical information when occasion demands.

Shaw's group has danced lately for New York university, Swarth-more college, University of Colo-rado, and University of California.

Silvey won the cattle judging contest by a wide margin, scoring 1,024 of a possible 1,200 points to defeat Norman Kruse, freshman, who scored 973 points. Hugh Rennard was third, Robert Pollard fourth and Keith Gilmore fifth in all classes in the cattle contest. More than seventy competed.

Mayfield second

who placed second, and Leo Tupper, third place winner, in all classes in the dairy products con-test, to win the gold medal em-blematic of first prize. Sixty-five students entered.

Gold, silver and bronze medals were awarded winners of the first three places in all classes in each contest. Fourth and fifth places ribbons. Ribbons drew were awarded for first, second, and third in each division. The dairy cattle judges placed eight classes,

(See DAIRY, page 2.)

Corporation manager to interview students

Carl Falconer, division manager for the Inter-Mountain Knitting Mills, a western cor-poration doing a nation wide business, will meet students with sales ability in Prof. T. T. Bullock's office 306 SS Monday.

The meetings are held for those wishing to find summer OF permanent employment. Group meetings will be held at 9 a. m. and 1:30 p. m. Monday.

The weather

It was disagreeable yesterday and to be consistent with its recent antics, the weather today, should be nice. And, forsooth, the prediction is fair and warmer.

secretary, Mary Ellen Robinson; cessions chairman, Mary Rosborough. Other council members to be installed are Mary Kline, publicity chairman; Betty Jean Ferguson, social chairman; Betty Neuman and Jean McAllister, assistant concessions manager; Betty Mallat, cabin chairman, and Janet Curley, expansion chairman.

Linguists turn to drama; Carter outscored Boyd Mayfield film and play scheduled French movie German group shows today stages drama

> The French club will present "The End of the Day," French movie acclaimed the best foreign picture of 1939, today in the Union ballroom at 4 and 7:30 p. m. The picture is the story of aged actors spending their reclining years in an actors home, and is particularly noted for the characterizations as each of the old actors plays in real life the part he played on the stage in his prime.

> Victor Francen, Louis Jouvet, and Micel Simon play the leads, and the picture was directed by Julian Duvivier The film is presented with a musical background and is supplemented by English sub titles.

chased at the door.

Students in the department of Germanics will present the oneact play "Unter vier Augen" tonight at 7:45 in the Temple. Under the direction of Dr. Lydia Wagner of the Germanics staff, the play will be free to the public.

Characters of the fast moving plot include Dr. Felix Volkart, a physician portrayed by Glen Nelson. Lucille Laird plays the part of Hermie, his wife, while Baron Hubert von Berkow is played by Theodore Roesler. Burton Thiel and Olga Marek act the parts of the servant and Lotte, a ladies maid.

The play centers around the ball given by Dr. Volkart and Hermine married four months. The servant, Bauman, is very excited Garey, and Elton Lux, associate over this affair and loves to recall extension agriculturist. Dean Wor-Tickets are available at U hall memories of the past when he 108 for 25 cents, or may be pur- served the Baroness von Forstner, in business administration, will mother of Hermine.

Dr. J. E. Kirshman, chairman of the department of economics, is vice president of the economics association and a member of the group's executive committee.

Society officers

Dr. J. M. Reinhardt of the department of sociology is first vice president of the sociology society and will be chairman of the section on social psychology. Dr. J. O. Hertzler, chairman of the department of sociology, is a past president of the society, and is chairman of the nominating committee. John Burma and Ralph Hukel, graduate assistants in the department, will attend the meetings.

Several members of the business administration faculty will appear on the three day program of their group. Dr. Kirshman will lead a discussion on business cycles, and Dr. W. A. Spurr will take part in a panel discussion of a study of individual incomes. Dr. O. R. Martin will read a paper on "Some Aspects of Accrual Accounting" before the accounting section. Prof. Earl M. Arndt will talk on "War-Time Industrial Expansion" at the section meeting on American economy and the war.

Others attend meeting

Other members of the business administration faculty who will attend the conference are Profs. C. O. Swayzee, E. S. Fullbrook, John Pfanner, C. H. McNeill, E. A. Gilmore, jr., Theodore Narburg, A. B. Carson, L. B. Snyder, L. F. cester, Lincoln graduate student also attend the meetings.