

Campus observers have . . . Great chance to see women with hair down--from rain

By Agnes Wanek.

"With the Wind and the Rain in Your Hair" is just about the most appropriate song for this kind of weather, but the person who wrote it was definitely confused about how romantic a girl looks with the wind and the rain in her hair. . . Seeking shelter from the downpour were Delts Jack Cates and Dick Gellatly. . . Pi Phi Virginia Haney and Phi Delt Al Ashworth coking while Harold Schrag waited three booths away and looked too, too impatient. . . And ZBT Irv Sherman and ATO Bob Leadley having a hasty breakfast. . .

If you go to Omaha, be careful or some bearded wonder will ask you what you call a "cold pygmy with a frozen finger". . . don't be surprised when you hear it's a "frigid midget with a rigid digit" . . . everyone in Omaha preparing for the second edition of Golden Spike Days. . . and everyone in Lincoln looking forward to Ozzie Nelson and other parties. . .

WEEKENDS MAY COME

and weekends may go, but it looks as if pin hangings and steady deals go on forever (but not for long). Big news in the realm of pin hangings are two that occurred Sunday. . . the lucky people are Sig Ep Clint Jurgenson and Alpha Chi Faye Irwin and DU Joe Fraser and AOPi Mary Ellen Crites. . . An off again on again pin hanging is that of Betty Dobbs, Pi Phi, and DU Bob Evans. . . at present writing Betty still is wearing the pin, but you can look again tomorrow to see for sure. . .

FOOD AND MORE FOOD

was provided for the Sigma Kappas Sunday when they were entertained at breakfast at the home of Miss Luvicy Hill and Miss Gertrude Beers.

THERE'S A CROWD

is the decision of ATO Clark Kuppinger and Kappa Cecile Mitchell and now they too have joined the ranks in the Steady Parade.

PI PHIS

came through with a candy passing last night when Betty Dolphin and Alpha Sig George Graham passed the sweets.

IT'S BEEN SO LONG

but Beta Jack Stewart is still on the steady path. . . anyway three weeks is a long time. . .

IT HASN'T BEEN SO LONG

but Joe Dye, Sig Alph who once declared he wanted to stay clear of any entangling alliances, has hung his pin on Kappa Molly Woodward. They started dating and often! two weeks ago, and started going steady a week ago, and now a pin hanging.

SURPRISE CANDY PASSING

at the Kappa Delta house occurred last night when Lillian Shinn announced her engagement and forthcoming marriage to Woodie Hamill. Miniature bride and groom dolls decorated the box of sweets. They are to be married at the chapter house on June 9th.

Union Harmony Hour will give Anton Dvorak's 'New World' symphony

Anton Dvorak's Symphony No. 5 in E minor, commonly known as the "New World" symphony, will be played during the Sinfonia harmony hour today at 4 p. m. in the Union faculty lounge. The symphony is recorded by the Czech Philharmonic orchestra, and was first performed in 1893. Since that time, it has been included in the repertoire of every symphony orchestra as an interpretation of the spirit of American music. A suite from Bizet's "Carmen," recorded by the London Philharmonic, will also be played.

know, Norman "Butch" Bordy received a gold crested miniature paddle from the SAM initiates. And believe it or not, he is supposed to have blushed with pride and modesty at the honor. . . Practically speechless, he was almost unable to express his appreciation. . . (still quoting).
