

The DAILY NEBRASKAN

By June Bierbower.

In case you wondered just what yesterday's column was talking about—so did we. However, a story we had written about Pitt's football prospects was unceremoniously divided into two halves, and you got the second half. First half now follows:

Champions in eight special events at the Kansas Relays are entered at Drake. Included in the list are Myron Piker, Northwestern, 100 yards; Boyce Gatewood, Texas, 120 high; Elmer Hackney, Kansas State, shot; Welles Hodgson, Minnesota, broad jump; Dale Higgins, Missouri and Beefus Bryan, Texas, pole vault; Jack Hughes, Texas, discus; Don Boydston, Oklahoma A. & M., high jump; Bob Waldram, Missouri, javelin.

Bob Waters, a California high school boy, recently did 9.7 seconds in the hundred and 21.6 in the 220. . . Little North Texas Teachers Saturday plowed under Rice and Louisiana State in a triangular meet—and without the services of the Rideouts who were in Lawrence. . . The Teachers made 70 points, Rice 51½, LSU, 48½. . . Welby Williams, the North Texas sprint sensation was here as was Freddie Wolcott, the Rice Adonis. . . Williams beat Freddie (no relation) in the hundred.

Fred Ramsdell, the Texas U. sprinter, who was third in the hundred at KU behind Piker and Littler, is the son of Tex Ramsdell, who was a member of the 1908 Olympic team. . . The elder Ramsdell is Philadelphia's city engineer, but he went to Texas U., so he sent his son there. . . Jimmy Dykes, Jr., is a freshman at Villanova, and a great major league prospect. . . Steve Wood, son of Smoky Joe, former Red Sox fireballer, is a pitcher at Colgate.

Charley Bowsler is having fullback trouble this spring at Pittsburgh. Practically every candidate for the job has been on the hospital list at one time or another this year.

George Kracum, the "unknown" who caused Nebraska so much trouble back at Squirrel Hill last year, has been moved to fullback this spring. However, he is on the hospital list with a bad ankle. Joe Ross, second string fullback, is on the injury list, too. Ernie Borelli is being used at a halfback post, so he's pretty well occupied.

SAM's beat Beta's, 6-5, in softball

Irv Yaffe hurls winners into tie for first in league

In intramural softball league play Wednesday, the Betas, up to this time undefeated, were overcome by a strong Sigma Alpha Mu team, 6 to 5. Irv Yaffe pitched for SAM, while the entire team played good ball with Norm Borden leading the hitting and Prostok looking the best in the field.

This leaves both the Beta's and the SAM's with one defeat in their league. The only other fraternity game was between the AGR's and the Phi Psi's, The AGR's, led by Schnieder, who pitched a two hit game, ran wild over the Phi Psi's to the tune of 14 to 1.

Barb softball, which got a late start, started off with a bang, with the Juggernauts winning over Baldwin Hall in a close game, 11 to 10. The Brown Derbies lost to the Commanders, 5 to 2. Dark Horse swamped a weak Cornhusker Coop team, 17 to 1. YMCA won over the Cornshellers, 10 to 2. Union Leaders beat the KKK's, 6 to 2, and the Tappa Kegga's with a strong team took the Dirty Irish in a no run game, 13 to 0.

Frosh athletes win scholastic honors at convo

Four Greek softball games slated today

The Phi Gam Delta Sig softball game which was to be played Wednesday was postponed as well as the ATO, ZET tussle. Those games scheduled for play Thursday are the Phi Sigs-Farmhouse encounter and the Theta Xi-Zeta Beta Tau game. The Acacia-Phi Delt game and the Beta Sig-Sig Ep games are to be run off Thursday.

The DU's who lost to the Chi Phi's, and later protested the illegal use of a player, won the protest. This leaves them with a clear record as far as league play is concerned.

Regulars beat Blues in 9-3 game

Knight shifts men in outfield, infield for Mizzou series

By Don Pollock.

Coach Wilbur Knight's Cornhusker baseball team scrimmaged a five and one-half inning game yesterday, and the Blue Skyrockets won the tile from the Reds 9-3. The regulars did not take long in starting and in the first inning they batted around, counting six times. In the third the Blue boys scored three, while the best the Raiders could do was to score a lone run in the first, second and sixth frames.

Knight is still spending his practice sessions in search of a clicking infield and outfield. Big Six champions last year, the Missouri Tigers will face the Huskers on the home field this weekend. Changes from last week's games at Iowa State were, Bob Searle, a former pitcher, on third; Oscar Tegtmeier, an outfielder at short, and Sid Held, a starting pitcher, in the outfield.

Herndon, Petsch report.

Sid Held is slated to be the hurler in the first Tiger fray, with Harry Truscott mounting the hill for the Saturday tussle. A welcome sight visiting the bench yesterday was Bernie LeMaster, letterman shortstop, who broke his ankle the night before the first game of the season. LeMaster will have to be on crutches, however, for six more weeks.

Porter elected head coach at Cozad high school

George Porter, Husker senior football man, has been appointed head coach at Cozad high school, where he will take over his duties next September.

The Denver athlete won a minor letter last fall, having served for three seasons as substitute quarterback on the Biffer's team. Injuries struck him down through most of his junior year.

Porter, one of the most popular players on the team, was a versatile player. He attended St. Regis high in Denver, where he gained basketball and baseball recognition in addition to football fame. He is 22.

Psychologists hold clinic in North Platte

Dr. Warren Baller, Marshall Hiskey, Miss Leona Fallor, and Dr. D. A. Worcester, chairman, all of the department of educational psychology and measurements, held a psychological clinic at North Platte Saturday.

Track team leaves today for Drake

Husker contingent to leave by car for Des Moines carnival

Nebraska's track team leaves today at three o'clock for the Drake relays at Des Moines. Those making the trip are going by car, on the last big trip before the National Intercollegiate which are to be held in June shortly after school is out in Minneapolis.

Lloyd Wright, Beatrice star who has been hampered with scholastic difficulties thruout the year, will join the team for the trip if he doesn't fall down in a Psychology test taken Wednesday afternoon. He would add strength to the sprint relay with Littler running close to 47 seconds in the 440 and Brooks coming through in good shape in the 880 at the Kansas meet last week.
