Stormy weather is an omen of what Ivy Day will bring

By Agnes Wanek.

Stormy weather, and the elements are getting a head start on getting in condition for Ivy Day when it always, always rains. Last year the DU's managed to win the sing in a rainstorm . . . then in the afternoon the Theta's came through in bright, hot sun. . . wonder what'll happen this year? . . .

True to form, none of the campuses have been doing anything spectacular . . . except maybe Bob Brust, Phi Psi, who sits in ec class and draws "purty ditchers" and "choo-choo" trains. . . and I suppose we simply must include the much-publicized and much-maligned Bud Rohde of the Delt house who has nothing better to do on Thursday mornings than sit in the Union and scare all the women in sight with a frog that he filched from a science lab. . . drate big mans picking on an itty bitty frog. . .

FLASH!

Some things you dream about seem to come true. . . Sigma Nu Al Adamson has finally shaved off the mustache and sideburns that he has been "cultivating" so carefully for the past few weeks. The rumor is that he grew tired of wearing all that brush, but the fact is that when he began to trim the mustache, he tripped it just a trifle too much on one side . . . so off it came. . . then the same thing happened to the sideburns. He's sorry about the whole thing, but the girl-friend, Kappa Gene Stult, doesn't seem to be too upset.

DAME RUMOR

Is wondering just what the new developments, if any, will be in the veddy-veddy solid affair between Theta Pat Woods and Sigma Chi Grant Thomas, since Don Pape came back into town.

MIDWEST CONCLAVE

of the Acacia fraternity will be held this weekend beginning this evening with registration from 5 o'clock on. Plans call for officers' conferences, luncheons, and a banquet on Saturday night. Eight states will be represented, including five of the schools in the Big Six.

CELEBRATING THE 73RD year of their founding, the Phi Phis, both actives and alumnae.

will hold a banquet at the Hotel Cornhusker on Saturday night. Toasts will be given by Marylouise Simpson, Carolyn Charlson, Betty Roach, and Ann Beth Keith, members of the active chapter.

THE YEARS AT THE SPRING

and Raymond hall and Love hall will celebrate the season with a party to be held Saturday night. You'll see Alice Marion Holmes with Kappa Sig Dean Hansen, Ruth Grosvenor with Bob Anderson, Virginia Colton and Sigma Chi Dale Kreps, Bonnie Wennersten and Phi Deit Chick Roberts, and Pat Wons and Cliff Hurley.

YOU'RE MY DELTA QUEEN

seems to be Delt Jack Spittler's opinion of Pi Phi Shirley Faytinger these days . . . at least he tells the brothers that . . . One wonders, however, what Kappa Sig Verne Ingraham would have to say about that.

GOLDDIGGERS OF 1940

is a new game and they say that Kappa Sig Jack Clarke is sorry he learned the rules of the game. About a week ago, he was introduced to the idea . . . the rules being that your date takes all the gold jewelry in sight. The night he had a date with one of the "leaders" at the dorm, she took the game to heart and also his pin . . . which he spent the rest of the evening trying to retrieve.

INNOCENTS

the all-powerful, were entertained by the SAE's last night at another of the weekly dinners.

NEW OFFICERS

at the SAM house are Sidney Kalim, president; Ben Novicoff, vice president; Morton Margolin, secretary; Joe Raznick, historian; Max Prostok, house manager, and Erv Friedman, alumni recorder.

AT PRESENT WRITING

the Beta picnic, which was to be held this Saturday, will not be held, because the weather's too wet. Too wit to woo. (That's a slight misprint.)

A LETTER FROM THE DEAN

invited the campus to the Alpha Xi Delt house party and you'll be called on the dance floor instead of the carpet. Betty Klingel will be there with Sam Klein, and also Annette Beinbaum and Larry Rice; Priscilla Campsey and Don Bower.

Both men, women prefer men who are mannerly

. . . at New Mexico

PORTALES, N. M. (ACP). Whether or not it is true, as some one has written, that "women are making gigolos, lounge lizards and dress-maker models of men," it is one hundred percent true that both men and women at Eastern New Mexico college prefer men who are mannerly. . . This is the conclusion drawn from personality survey of likes and dislikes of students enrolled in general psychology courses conducted by Mrs. Lou Berkness.

Each student checked 30 personality traits of a person liked and disliked, both of their own and the opposite sex. Women voted one hundred percent for men who were friendly, honest and intelligent. Cheerfulness is a necessary trait for men and women, too, if the vote of the men students is an indicator of preference; and certainly the "beautiful but dumb" maid is not the popular one for the men.

Best not beautiful.

Eighty-five percent of the men like an intelligent girl and fifty percent admit that the best girl is not beautiful.

Men are almost unanimous in their choice of the girl who is en-

Modern dance group to put on program

Demonstration to show techniques, invention, pavan, modern Carioca

Marcia Beckman, Dorothy Jean Bryan, Hortense Casady, Bettie Cox, Betty Groth, Betty Mueller and Kathryn Werner are participants in a program to be given by Orchesis, modern dance society, in the Student Union, May 14.

First half of the program will consist of demonstration showing the techniques used in preparation for dancing. Studies in leaps and falls will be presented along with varying rhythm counts. A pavan and a two-part invention are scheduled for the classical numbers on the program.

Modern Carioca.

As a variety Betty Mueller and Betty Groth will present a Carioca in a modern manner. Stephen Foster's folk songs have been chosen as the final suite of the program in which the whole group will participate. Shirley Bennett, instructor, will make explanatory remarks throughout the program. The group is also scheduled to appear in Dorchester on May 7 and in Nebraska City on May 11.

'Y' freshman cabinet plans May breakfast

The freshman cabinet of the YWCA has announced that the annual May morning breakfast which it sponsors will be held on May 5, at 8:45 a. m. in the Student Union ballroom. This mother-daughter affair is open to all university women.

Tickets will be on sale for the breakfast in the various houses, on ag campus, and in the YWCA office. Committees in charge of the arrangements are: Invitations, Alec Ann Arthaud, and Maxine Fuller; programs, Marian Nicholson; publicity, Anne Kinder; and tickets, Betty Newman. They have already started making the arrangements.

Harpers Bazaar holds contest

Opportunity for undergraduate girls to participate in a fashion editorial contest is being offered by Harper's Bazaar in preparation of fall issues of the magazine. Each girl who enters the contest will be sent a series of projects to be turned in by the first of June.

Winners will be selected on the basis of their originality, clearness of writing, their ability to report important trends and events and fashion sense. One girl will be selected in each school to be the college editor of the College Bazaar for the coming year. Students interested in photography and sketching may participate also.

Application blanks may be obtained in the Daily Nebraskan office.

26 receive certificates in Girl Reserve course

Awards were made Tuesday night to 26 university women who have completed six weeks work in a Girl Reserve training course. Those who have completed the course, and are now qualified to lead any Girl Reserve group are: Helen Bamesberger, Adah Bella Barta, Leona Beighley, Martena Burke, Maxine Clapini, Jane De Latour, Milada Dolezall, Virginia Ericson, Margaret Ann Ground, Jean Hakauson, Irene Kindig, Maria Kroeper, Lucille Marker, Jane Loeffler, Imogene Mastin, Jean Miller, Wilma Morrison, Doris Redig, Wilma Sawyer, Leola Schaper, Jean Simmons, Priscilla Wicks, Elsie Wiebe, Ruth Wick, Nellie Young, and Ruth Pitzer.

tertaining, generous and loyal. While men prefer women who are cheerful, they also demand the same quality among friends of their own sex. Women demand one hundred percent loyalty from their sex.

Neither men nor women like one who is rude, the survey showed.

Famous members write for Theta Sigma Phi magazine

Nebraska members of Theta Sigma Phi, national honorary journalism fraternity for women, are now preparing for publication about the middle of May a magazine which will contain contributions of ten famous members of the fraternity.

The magazine, which will be much like the Prairie Schooner in appearance, will contain works by such famous writers as Mary Hastings Bradley, Elsie Singmaster, Ruby Black, Ida Tarbell and Lona Gilbert.

Trailing tiger.

"Trailing the Tiger" is the contribution of Mary Hastings Bradley. It is an article about an island in the South Seas where the women rule the men. Miss Singmaster has sent "Winter Night," a short story about New England. "Things I Wish They'd Told me" is an amusing article by Ruby Black, who relates some of the things she would like to have known when she started as a reporter. She is now a prominent Washington reporter.

Autobiography piece. Ida Tarbell has contributed "50 Years Ago," a part of her autobiography, and Lona Gilbert, reporter on the Los Angeles Times and home ec expert, has written an amusing article on cooking, "It's an Old Spanish Custom."

Commemorative messages have been received from National President Sally Moore, and Lucy Rogers Hawkins, editor of the Matrix, official publication of the fraternity. The cover will be done by Kanetha Thomas, Lincoln artist.

Cues for the Coed

Don't forget

that Ozzie Nelson and his orchestra will be at the Turnpike tonight, students. You will also be glad to hear that Herbie Holmes and his orchestra are coming straight from the Edgewater Beach Hotel for the opening of Antelope Park on May 2. Herbie Holmes features 17 members in his orchestra—so be sure to go to Antelope to hear him.

The classic

"Paradise Tango Spectator Pump" in tan and white, black and white, and blue and white, is featured at Magee's for $6.75. This closed toe spectator has a patented instep feature which prevents the cutting across the instep so common in ordinary pumps. See this spectator now—it's really the tops in smart footwear.

Especially popular among the coeds is the "Tommy Hat," featured at the Nancee Hat Shop—133 So. 13th St. This versatile hat, worn in many different ways, comes in all colors and sizes, priced at $1.00.

Ivy Day

reminds us that this is a good time to get your white hats. You will always find a grand selection of smart white Toyos in the different styles and also Flemish and Sailors and the Romancer brims at Nancee's.

You ought to have a Campus Wallet Purse to match your campus hat. You may get this purse, along with other styles of purses and gloves to match your costume at the Nancee Hat Shop. Phone 2-3033 and ask Miss Moore about "The Lay Away Plan."

Place

your order soon for invitations and announcements at Long's Nebraska Book Store—the deadline is May 6. Be sure to order them by the dozen so you will get them cheaper.
