

Swing king, beauty queens on Ivy slate

'Night before' program features revealing of queens, Clinton band

An added attraction at the Union anniversary dance in the coliseum on May 1 will be the presentation of the Cornhusker queens. Maestro Larry Clinton will perform the duties of master of ceremonies and will present the queens between 10 and 10:30 p. m. when the orchestra is broadcasting.

The candidates for the title of beauty queen are Kathryn Park, Maisie Imig, Margaret Mohrman, Alice Blackstone, Harriet Talbot, Marilyn Barr, Marjorie Waechter, Frances Breed, Mary Stone, Harriet McIntosh, Holly Shurtleff, Maxine Stalona, Jo Duree, Eleanor Crawford, Jean Wochner, Esther Louise Lefter, Marion Starlin, Genevieve Smith, Nelda Anderson, Claudia Baker, Yvonne Costello, Helene Alberts, Virginia Clark, Eleanor Berner, Nancy Mauck, Maxine Fuller, Dorothy Filley, Jean Cullinan, Ann Yockey, Janet Costello, and Suzanne Woodruff.

Six chosen.

Six queens have been chosen from these thirty-one candidates for the honor. The queens were selected by the editors of the year-books of the Big Six conference universities, and, according to Orval Hager, Cornhusker editor, this method of selection will guarantee a universal collegian's choice of Nebraska beauty.

Regarding the celebration, Pat Lahr, Union social director, says, "The Student Union is offering the best birthday celebration possible to the students, with four hours of dancing with Larry Clinton, the presentation of the beauty queens, and the Delta Phi Delta sketch carnival."

... and Clinton

Arranger-composer Larry Clinton will come to Lincoln from Chicago where he and his orchestra are currently playing at the Hotel Sherman. Unlike most band leaders who had to endure a long struggle to get to the top, Clinton's career was a success almost from the minute he picked up his baton in the RCA recording room in Manhattan. He is now winning more fame for himself and his orchestra as a Victor recording star and for his composition of novelty tunes and his re-arranging of classical melodies.

AWS to hold Ivy Day tea dance

The AWS board has announced plans for its annual Ivy Day tea dance. This year Johnny Cox will play in the Union ballroom and all students are invited to attend.

"The dance will come as an exciting climax to the festivities of the day, and we hope that this year it will be more successful than ever before," said Jean Simmons, president of the AWS board.

People who attend the dance will be given scarlet and cream colored tickets to wear. Most organized houses and barb associations are paying the admission price for all their members. Those who do not secure tickets in this way may purchase them for ten cents each.

The dance will begin directly after the tapping of Innocents and the masking of Mortar Boards. Tickets will be sent to the organized houses Monday night for distribution among members.

West Virginia university will have 21 visiting instructors from as many colleges at its summer sessions.

First atom-smasher at a woman's college is being installed at Smith.

University of Kansas welcomed its first new Greek group since 1923 when Tau Kappa Epsilon founded a chapter there.

A four-unit greenhouse has allowed Rutgers university to expand its work in plant biology.

Eight signers of the Declaration of Independence were Harvard graduates.

Weight lifters set to perform here tomorrow

Saturday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, the YMCA is holding a statewide weightlifting contest, the first of this kind of thing to be held here, and great plans are being made for a successful start. The contest will start at 3 o'clock and last until late in the evening.

There are three types of weights to be lifted, all of different poundage, the winners will be judged on the total amount of pounds lifted. There are to be several side events between the liftings, among these is a contest to determine the best built man entered.

45 entries. Approximately 45 entries are expected. Some of the towns to be represented are: Alliance, Scottsbluff, Omaha, Lincoln, Sioux Falls and Huron, S. D., Norfolk, and Yankton college of Yankton, S. D., is sending five men. Harry Raeder of Alliance is head official and Dr. Ralph McGoogan of Lincoln is in charge of the meet. Jack Sampson, Nebraska student, is expected to be one of the meet's standouts.

Economic students hear Will Hays representative

Students in Prof. Bullock's 11 o'clock class Friday will hear Irvin E. Deer, a representative of the Will Hays office in Hollywood, speak on "Some of the Economic Aspects of the Moving Picture Industry."

The class will meet in SS 101. Anyone interested may attend.

Hear "CARMEN"

April 30

8 P. M.—Coliseum

Presented by the University of Nebraska Choral Union

Dr. A. E. Westbrook, Conductor.

... 9 Soloists

... Symphony Orchestra

Admission 25c

at MAGEE'S

Relax and Play the Nebraska Way

For your busy go-everywhere, ready-for-anything existence... MAGEE'S gives you a magnificent group of sports. Entirely different ideas... sport jackets... slacks... ensembles... for you who want casualness, color, style and comfort... Here they are... MAGEE'S new sports.

South Bend

SPORT COATS

Hollywood styling by famous clothing makers.

Like broad shoulders and trim waistline... yes, but they must be well tailored to be right... and that's where MAGEE'S sport coats step ahead of the field. See the new plain and pattern fabrics.

$12⁵⁰ to $22⁵⁰

SPORT SLACKS

Styled for comfort with wider knees and narrower cuffs. The new coverts, gaberdines, tweeds and chevots are a spring tonic in color. Sizes 29 to 38.

$3⁹⁵ to $7⁵⁰

Crete

Jennis

SLACK SUITS

1940's smartest combinations... outstanding rayon weaves... matching and contrasting ensembles. Make a "double play" with a long sleeve ensemble with blending short sleeve shirt for "double smartness."

$1⁹⁵ to $10⁹⁵

SPORT SHOES... $3.95 to $10

SPORT HATS... $1.95 to $5

Golf

SPORT SHIRTS

Take your pick of long or short sleeves in a smart selection of new rayon or cotton fabrics... plain shades, patterns and natural.

$1 to $5

Hotel Cornhusker
UNDER SCHMITTEL DIRECTION

Pi Beta Phi Banquet
Saturday Night

Theta Xi Banquet
Saturday Night

HOME OF THE TASTY PASTRY SHOP

MAGEE'S
QUALITY MEN'S WEAR
LINCOLN