Who, who, who? Those are questions before Ivy Day

By Mary Jean McCarthy.
Looking forward is almost the nicest thing any one can possibly do—and this week it is especially delightful—deee—lovely—or something. Who will be Ivy Day Queen? Who will be beauty queens? Who will be at Larry Clinton on Wednesday and almost best of all—who will be at school on Thursday? No one—we hope, for none has been scheduled—as if you didn't already know. Of course the deadbeat of the whole deal is Friday—but then that won't be so bad because it climaxes the perfect week and ushers in a brand new week end.

SWEETS FOR THE SWEET
poured forth at the Kappa house last night when Helen McPherson and ATO Ned Steenberg came thru with a bit of confectionary. The gals were mighty surprised too—for they were suspectin' but had another couple all picked out. Thrilled them terrifically tho—for it's been so long.

TEE 'N HEE

the fellahs sure had fun the other night. That is, speaking of those artistic guys who have left splashes of their art on almost every available corner or house. Looked like Christmas touches at the Kappa house for their spotless white porch furniture had been transformed into a brilliant red and green. The Alpha Xi Deltas balcony also had that "final touch," even the Beta's Prince carries those symbolic colors. We sure would hate to dare them to "paint the town red."

THE JOY OF LIVING

is being realized by ATO Roy Proffitt now that Jean "Junky" Humphrey, former Kappa, has returned for a visit. He wasted no time in copping all of her evenings—much to the misfortune of many other admirers.

COME WARM WEATHER

comes time for water—that is, when speaking of tubbings. Newest in the "beware of dampness list" are the "over the weekend" pinnings of ATO Clark Kuppinger and Kappa Cecile Mitchell. Sigma Nu Nate Holmon and Pi Phi Millie Mort also joined the ranks—it's a

Boucher picks new board

Ten faculty members to aid in placements

A new board on occupational placement has been appointed by Chancellor C. S. Boucher to facilitate the present program of student placement in all departments of the university. The board is composed of ten faculty members. Dr. T. J. Thompson, dean of student affairs, has been named chairman and executive secretary.

The new group will formulate matters of personnel policy for the university and will act as a steering committee to direct visiting company representatives to the colleges and departments in which they are especially interested.

Members of the board are Profs. T. T. Bullock, department of economics; O. E. Edison, electrical engineering; C. S. Hamilton, chemistry; Luvicy Hill, commercial arts; F. D. Keim, agronomy; L. W. Lancaster, political science; R. D. Moritz, teacher placement bureau; E. F. Schramm, geology; Miss Helen Hosp, dean of women, and Dean Thompson.

good thing—for it was almost—a romance that hit "de rocks."

I'LL NEVER

go steady—quoted a certain Alpha Phi and now she is doing just that. Harold Larmon, ATO, finally persuaded Marion Patton that it was the best thing to do. Guess they're not the only ones, 'cause Theta Eleanor Elliott and DU Dale Ganz have decided that "a" way too.

SPECIAL

initiation services were held at the Alpha Phi house Sunday for Pat Herminghaus, Virginia Chambers, and Marey Bauer.

SWINGING OUT

at Larry Clinton tomorrow night will be most everyone—for more reasons than one. Some of those celebrating the eve of Ivy Day will be AOPi Betty Ellen Kuhns with FIJI Bob Chatt; Theta Aline Hosman with DU Bob Green; Alpha Phi Pat Prime and DU Ed May; and Kappa Mary Lou Kelly with Phi Gam Byron Deck.

WHAT TO WEAR

for Ivy Day seems to be puzzling many of the young ladies—but the best advice to all so far, is probably—hang on to your raincoats. For the drenching drops (those welcomed by every farmer) have been promised. Another word along the advice lines is on the subject of "to do—or not to do." 'Tis true, that, that the louder you open your mouth, the more beautiful the tone—but it may be best, (in case of rain) to keep it slightly closed—to avoid drowning.

TO ALL THOSE

who said it couldn't last—you were right. Kappa Ann Craft is again back in circulation and she and Beta Jack Stewart are still very good friends. This new deal has probably made many of the guys very happy—but most of all—a certain Phi Delt. Another break up is that of Alpha Phi Helen Gartner and ATO Ed Butler.

A CANDY PASSING

we missed last week was that of Dean Worcester and Joy Pestal. They passed the sweets at the Paladian meeting Friday night.

Ivy sing—

sorority sing was Kappa Alpha Theta, who will be trying for their fourth victory this year. The trophy, which has been in possession of Kappa Alpha Theta, will remain on display in Long's bookstore until Thursday.

Delta Upsilon is the defending fraternity, having won the cup last year. Three years and the "victor takes the spoils," meaning that the cup goes permanently to the fraternity which is able to capture top honors in three successive Ivy Day sings.

Announce judges Thursday.

The judges for the sings will be announced Wednesday, but judging will be made on the basis of general excellence of the participants' efforts rather than on technical perfection. Taken into consideration, however, will be the appearance of the group, selection of song, tone quality of the voices, balancing of parts, and interpretation as shown in style, attack and diction.

The rules state that there can be only 25 singers including the director, but that an accompanist may be used as a twenty-sixth person. Groups are allowed to sing one song or medley, and it cannot sing the same song as the preceding year. Each singer must have, or be registered for, hours sufficient to make the total 25.

Ivy chain practice

First practice for the Ivy Day chain will be held in Temple theater tonight at 5. W. G. Tempel will be in charge. Another meeting of the group will take place Wednesday at the same time and same place.
