

Guys 'n gals ...

Find class-going hard after Ivy Day; plan big week end

By Agnes Wansk.

This business of going to classes is pretty hard to become accustomed to after the Ivy Day vacation, with finals only a few weeks away, though, all the glamour guys and gals are trying to settle down instead of performing their usual society antics. Even so, plans for the weekend include a Delt picnic, Sig Alph formal, and Duke Ellington at the Turnpike.

TRIAD PINHANGING

of some note: Sigma Chi Bill McKerney tried hard to keep quiet about the news that he had hung his pin on Theta Barbara York, but he just had to announce it to his fraternity brothers. And via campus grapevine, the news was all over town by Sunday morning. And we understand he loses a steak dinner on this deal.

I'VE BEEN WORKING ON THE RAILROAD

can well describe Beta Harold Howell's feelings since Friday night when his car was stuck on a railroad track in the middle of Penn Woods. After some mighty effort, he managed to get the car off the tracks . . . and the train whistle sounded not too far away.

MOTHERS' DAY

dinner was held Sunday noon at the Kappa Sig house. About thirty-five guests were entertained. The chapter award made each year to the outstanding senior on the basis of activities, scholarship, and fraternity spirit was presented to Bob Flory.

TEARS FOR A BRIDAL VEIL

were shed last week when Tri Delta Lois Enyeart misplaced her wedding veil. It had arrived early, so she put the box under the waste basket for safe keeping. It was so safe that the maid threw it out with the trash. Everyone was properly sympathetic except Maryanna Cockle who was told that if she couldn't be sorry she could at least be quiet.

SINCE IVY DAY

the name of Pi Phi Maxine Fuller, newly-named beauty queen, has been stricken from the ever-shortening dating list. She is now going steady with (you guessed it!) Phi Gam Dale Ruser.

WHAT IS THIS

4-H club business that Theta's Peg Cowan and Virginia Stoddard are engaged in? It is very much concerned with John Haberland and Max Hulbert, with whom they've been seen very, very often.

MORE STEADY-GOERS

Now it's Wallace Fausch, AGE, and Kappa Delt Eileen O'Donnell. Kappa Jeanne Newell strolling down sorority row with Beta Bob Gannon, erstwhile Innocent? . . . how many girls were wearing slacks Sunday. . . . Picnicking at Crete were DU's Ralph Reed and Bob Wekesser, the latter with Theta Edie Knight. . . . Coking in the Union were Beta Tom Woods and Alpha Phi's Nancy Halligan and Janet Moon. . . . Phi Gam Byron Deck and ATO Ed Calhoun having a quick ice cream cone.

AND DID YOU SEE

. . . Kappa Marian Cramer and Beta Bob Aden looking amused over Beta John Stoddard's latest wisecrack. . . . Tri Delta Ruth Satterlee and Sigma Nu Dick Ryan concentrating on each other. . . . Phi Delt's threatening a Monday night tubbing. . . .

ANOTHER JOURNALIST was added to the ranks at the Kappa Sigma house last night when Ralph Combs took a pin.

NEWLY ELECTED

officers of Sigma Alpha Iota were installed Sunday afternoon. They are Janet Regnier, president; Betty Vlasnik, vice-president; Betty Jo Kochler, secretary; Alice Sohl, treasurer; Frances Keefer.

"Emil und die Detektive," second and last German movie of the semester, will be shown in the Union ballroom May 16. It is a comedy and was written by Erich Kastner. There will be three showings: 4:30, 7:00 and 9:00 p. m. The picture is sponsored by the university's German department.

Simmons college freshmen observe May Day by hanging May baskets on the doors of their junior sisters.

chaplain; Miriam Rubnitz, editor; and Harriet Meyer, sergeant-at-arms.

THE AGR'S

are planning great things for their war party Friday night. Blackouts, cannon on the lawn, and all such things are in the offing.

THE SWEET KIDS PASSED SWEETS

and cigars last night when Jack Cole, Sigma Nu, and Lois Keller, Theta, finally did the long overdue jobs at their respective houses last night.

Beta's came into their own finally last night, when for the first time this year, cigars were passed. Allan McHugh and Ruth Holland, Pi Phi; Al Armbruster and Betty Schroder, Delta Gamma, broke the record. This going without a candy passing was almost an established Beta tradition, too.

Campus cop holds books until loser claims them

A number of volumes from a set of law books were found back of the Temple by a night watchman. The owner may have them by calling at the office of campus cop Regler, whose office is at the north-east corner of Social Science annex, and identifying them.

Womens phys ed department first to grant degree

Discovering that Nebraska was the first institution to grant a certificate of specialization in physical education along with a bachelor's degree, thus recognizing physical education in the college curriculum, Miss Mabel Lee, chairman of the department of physical education for women, announced that her department will celebrate the 40th anniversary of the granting of the award this June.

Mrs. R. M. Robinson, formerly Alberta Spruck of Seattle, Wash., the woman who received the first physical education award, plans to return for the celebration.

Exhibits.

Miss Lee and her faculty have arranged a two-day program with historical and modern exhibits, discussions, demonstrations and recreational activities, concluding with a banquet the evening of June 8 in honor of Mrs. R. G. Clapp, of Lincoln, founder of the professional course for women, Mrs. Robinson and other early graduates, and members of the 1940 class.

Miss Lee stated that "for many years Oberlin college claimed the distinction of graduating the first woman with a certificate in physical education. Last year, however, while delving into old records, we suddenly realized that we could better Oberlin's claim by two years. After considerable correspondence, we have finally established Nebraska's priority in this field of education."

Almost 2,000,000 students in 16 colleges and 120 schools were served last year by Boston university's visual education department.
