NU beats A and M

Field event power gives NU victory

Nebraska's track team, supreme in the Big Six, added another feather to an already surfeited victory hat, as the Huskers, led by a strong field event crew, downed Oklahoma A & M, Missouri Valley champions, 72-59.

Cold weather and a strong north wind held down times on the track, but the much-heralded mile race between Forrest Efav, the Aggies' great distance man, and sophomore Harold Brooks of the Huskers was the best of the day.

Efav led most of the way until Brooks fought past him on the homestretch, but the slight Oklahoma blond put on a last second surge at the finish to nudge Brooks by no more than two feet in 4:22.7. Efav came back later in the afternoon to add a second crown, as he won the two-mile in 9:57.2.

Win in field.

It was in the field, as was expected, that Nebraska piled up its margin of victory, as the Huskers grabbed 26 of 27 possible points in the shot, discus and javelin.

Ed Wibbels, high point man of the day, took the shot with a 48' 1" toss, and threw the discus 156' 2" to again break the old Big Six record of 155' 11, although he was more than four feet behind his new mark. He placed second to Herb Grote in the javelin, which the Omahan won at 198 feet.

Ray Prochaska and Henry Rohn finished in that order behind Wibbels in the discus; Wibbels and Bus Knight were second and third in the javelin as the Aggie entries scratched. Vike Francis was runner-up in the shot, where the Oklahomans got their one point, as Singleton grabbed off third.

Gene Littler won easy victories in the 440 and 220, as he turned his hundred yard duties over to George Abel. Abel won the century in 10 flat, while Littler was resting from a :50.4 breeze in the quarter-mile. The Redhead beat big Abel in a :22.6 two-twenty.

Harold Hunt went 13 feet to beat Stewart, Missouri Valley champion in the pole vault, and Bill Smutz beat Billy Munn, another Valley titleholder in the 120 highs in :15.5.

Nebraska's ninth victory came in the low hurdles as big Bob Kahler jumped out ahead at the curve and stayed there to beat Munn and Smutz in :25.3.

Don Boydston, the Aggies' heralded high jumper, won with a 5' 10" jump.

Herschel Burrus, the Ags' Valley champion in the 440, stayed out of that race, and entered the hundred in which he could get but third. He led the broad jumpers with a 21' 1/2" effort against a bad wind and let teammate Pattillo come in ahead of him in the 880. Milfeld, also an Aggie, was third, to give the Oklahoman's their only sweep. Their relay team of Morgan, Burke, Metcalf and Burrus finished far ahead of a Husker combination in 3:28.3 after Nebraska had cinched the meet.

Track meet notes: Don Boydston actually won the high jump with only one jump . . . the four other entrants cleared 5-8, which he didn't try . . . they missed at 5-10, which he cleared . . . Judges asked him how high he wanted the bar moved up . . . "Oh, to about 6-4 or 6-5 . . . they complied with his wishes, but the lanky Aggie missed three times at 6-4 1/4.

For any one wanting a good exhibition of power running, we'd advise them to see George Abel run . . . Abel, who was first in the 100 and second in the 220, seems to run with shoulders . . . he might make a fair-to-middlin' backfielder . . . at least, his track performances show why he's such a good running guard.

Re. spring football: Unofficial poll of Ivy league schools showed all of them with the exception of Yale to favor abolition of spring football, while a writer in the U. C. L. A. Daily Bruin says the Pacific Coast conference may cut out spring drills. All of which helps give impetus to dear old Stan Woodward's idea that spring practice should be abolished; but more important, that the first to abolish it, because of their "prestige" or such, should, of course, be the Ivy boys.

Spring football as it is, seems to be more or less of a necessary preventive evil—a school can't afford to do without it in these days of high pressure football if they want a football team. It has gone, in cases, to extreme of intercollegiate games in the spring. Even we agree with the sancti-

Frosh lose to Buckeyes, beat Iowa

Nebraska's frosh track team broke even in two recent telegraphic meets, nudging Iowa 67-64, but losing 72 1/4-53 1/4 to a strong Ohio State frosh outfit.

Bob Ginn, Madison star, won the mile, 2-mile and 880 in both meets, as he did the mile in 4:23.9, the 2-mile in 9:46.4, and the 880 in 1:57.7.

Sensational hurdler-sprinter Wright led the Buckeyes as he swept the sprints and hurdles. His best time was in the highs—14.3. His other marks were 9.9 in the hundred, 21.2 in the 220, and 24 in the lows.

One of the best performances came as Johnston of the Buckeyes pitched the discus 157 feet 9 inches. Johnny Linta, their national interscholastic pole vault record holder, won at 13-3. Jack Hazen, Wayne Blue and Charley Hoffman swept the javelin in both meets.

In the Iowa meet, Clyde Taylor won both the highs and lows for the Huskers in 15.5 and 26.5 respectively. W. Todd swept the three short races for the Hawkeyes doing 10, 22 and 49.5.

Colorado baseballers sweep two-game series; win 9-5, 8-2

Colorado's baseball team remained undefeated for the year, as the Buffaloes beat the Huskers 8-2 yesterday after beating them 9-5 in ten innings Friday.

Big John Pudlik allowed the Huskers only five hits, while the Buffs were getting their runs on ten hits off Bob Searle, and five Husker errors.

The game was temporarily halted in the eighth inning because of a shower, but continued in a few minutes.

The Coloradoans led 1-0 after the first inning until the sixth when Searle doubled down the third base line, and came in a moment later on Oscar Tegtmeyer's bunt.

In the seventh, though, the Husker defense fell apart, and the Buffs got two runs on two errors and a hit. From then on it was a walkaway, as the Buffaloes scored three in the eighth and two more in the ninth.

Searle scored again for the Huskers in the seventh on Dow Wilson's hit. The Husker hits were scattered among five players, while big Paul McClung got three safeties for the winners.

Colorado scored four runs in the tenth to nudge the Huskers 9-5 Friday, although the close battle Nebraska put up was due somewhat to the generosity of base umpire Jack Eitel insofar as the Huskers were concerned.

William Rainey Harper, first president of the University of Chicago, liked to lie on the floor to study when he was a student at Yale.
