Union music room opens to students

Summer school students will have first opportunity to use the Union's new music room just decorated and furnished last week. The Music Room is built around the Carnegie music set, a fine phonograph with a collection of over 600 records given by the Carnegie Foundation to the Union. The Music Room, located in 209, has been planned as a lounge for students listening to music. The color scheme is in soft greys and blues. Regular Record Request Programs are scheduled for 4:00, Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, and for 7:30, Monday, Wednesday, Friday, and Sunday. Harmony Hour, a planned program of music, will be held every Tuesday at 4:00 in the afternoon.

Resigned—

 for the past two summers, and has been asked to develop courses in psychological measurement, a field in which he has attained nationwide recognition. Hunter, who will leave the university at the end of the summer term, has taught in the speech department the last two and one-half years in the field of public speaking, and has taught summer classes in radio techniques. He has been associated with the University Players for several years variously as business manager, actor, director. The year he directed the spring Kosmet Klub show.

Frank Cunkle, the school of fine arts only organ instructor, will leave to continue his music teaching at Kansas university beginning next fall.

Big Ten schools sent Hal Kemp on radio road; band plays here Friday

Nine out of ten of the Big Ten colleges who chose Hal Kemp "tops in bandmasters" in a popularity poll are responsible for the radio rise of the Kemp band, which appears Friday night here at the Turnpike.

College support giving him his first radio commercial, Kemp went to Astor Roof, to Coconut Grove, to Hotel Ambassador, to Hotel Drake, and has made the rounds of the top radiocasts. Two trips to Europe were included in the early ventures of the band, which is now setting new attendance records in ballrooms all over the country.
