

'Mellerdrammer' shows in Union

Melodrama in an old silent film with Fatty Arbuckle and Mabel Norman in "Cast Adrift and How" will be included in a free movie program in the Union Ballroom next Tuesday evening at 7:30. This old-fashioned thriller has been remade with a sound track in keeping with the comedy. Shorts to accompany the show are "Outboard Stunting," a picture of fast speedboats, and "How to Fly," a new film on lessons in aviation.

Social life swelters swims; Union plans entertainment

Books and Bridge

First of a series of Book Reviews will begin today at 4:00 in the Union Book Nook, with Mrs. W. B. Romans giving a brief survey talk on recent Pulitzer prize winners and recent purchases of the Union for the Book Nook. Everyone is welcome. Some five Book Reviews will be given every Thursday at the same time during the short summer session.

Students may register at the Union checkstand for Bridge Tournaments to be held Saturday evenings, June 28, July 13, and July 27. The first tournament will be at 7:30, June 28, in Parlors A and B. Students may register only in pairs. Prizes will be offered to the winning couple and runner-up couple.

Come summer—come summer school . . . these hot days are beginning to get the best of the campus caperers. . . Treks to the beaches, golf courses, picnics, and in general out in the open anywhere seem to be the order of the day. . .

SOUTH BEND

has been the favorite of many a summer student these days. . . Ask Mason Mitchell and Hy Messmore about the life down there. . . Two days in a row for this pair is not an uncommon excursion for these two. . . Saturday was an outing for a carload of Kappa Sigs at the same swimming hole. . . Kenny Anderson and Martha Beghtol, steady going Sig Olph and Theta, were also sunning themselves. . .

HAL KEMP

held the fancy of many of the Kollitch Kids, last Friday night. . . Seen there were Dorothy Askey and Avery Forke, Alpha Phi and D U, Sig Alph Butch Wertmann and D G Betty Holtorf, Phi Gam Joe Elliott and D G Margaret Ann Buttman, Coach and Mrs. A. J. Lewandowski and Jean ack ohn Wolf, Sig Nu, and Gamma Phi Ella Mae Kingdon. . .

MORTAR BOARD

member Mary Kline, a Delta Gamma was announced as engaged to Dr. Ben Ewing on June 12, and sorority sisters have been giving Mary numerous fetes.

PIN HANGINGS

have hit the Kappa Sigs since the regular school year has closed. . . John Miller hung his on Pete Osborn, Alpha Phi, and Hubert Ogden connected with Margaret Ann Osborn. . . Another Crescent and Star is also in doubt. . . Mary Black, Chi O, claims that John Sullivan forgot and left his before he returned to Indianapolis. . .

Dick Jurgens' band with 'versatile boys' plays here this weekend

Dancers Despite the Heat will swing to Dick Jurgens this weekend. He appears at the Turnpike out south on Sunday, featuring, as usual, his celeste and his double-talented orchestra men. Every man in the orchestra has the ability to double on some instrument other than that which he regularly plays.

Jurgens and company come here from Chicago engagements at the Trianon and Aragon and nightly broadcasts on MBS. The band has done the country's major entertainment centers, including Los Angeles' Palomar, the Wrigley Casino on Catalina Island and Chicago's Drake Hotel.

The call of the horse flesh has caught Bob Simmons and Bill Mowbray. . . The former has been sticking by the number seven hoss in nearly every race.

SWINGING OUT

this weekend will be Beth Merrick, DG gal of the smiling countenance behind the Grill cashier booth, and Harry Pitcaithley, he of the cage sport. . .

Lutheran group picnics at Van Dorn tomorrow

A picnic for all Lutheran students will be held tomorrow night at Van Dorn park, according to Lutheran Student Pastor, Rev. H. Erck. Picnickers will meet at the Temple at 5:30. All those with cars available are asked to bring them. Rev. and Mrs. Erck and Mrs. R. E. Rangelier will chaperon the group.

The Lutheran student pastor will be available each forenoon during the entire summer session in his office, Temple 102a, and welcomes all Lutheran students.
