

Yahudi Writes Again

Comings and goings . . .

Coming and going thick, fast what with Fourth and so forth

By Yahudi's Yahudi.

Big talk of this week will be the Fourth of July festivities, here, there, and everywhere . . . And a four-day holiday weekend will bring some jaunts out of state that have long been eagerly awaited . . . With a few of the big dances out of the way—namely Glenn Miller—the students are planning picnics and more outdoor activities.

LEAVING TOWN for home in Iowa and eventually to Okoboji will be Bob Sinkey, Kappa Sig, for the weekend . . . Margery Brown, Chi O, left Sunday for Denver and the remainder of the summer.

MILKMAN duties are calling Grant Reed, Phi Gam, away from Jeanne Humph-

ENGAGED now are Wilma Grinstead, Chi O, and Ralph Garvin, ex-Acacia . . . The announcement came a week ago Tuesday when Wilma passed the candy at a regular weekly luncheon of the whole Lincoln clan of Chi O's.

PING PONG games hold the interest almost nightly of Florence Steuteville, Alpha Xi Delta, and Bob Searby, and Mary Jean Westcott, Alpha Chi O, and Bill Irwin . . . These two doubles combinations are becoming quite constant even away from the Union game room.

MARRIED Saturday night at the Delta Delta Delta house were Lois Enyeart, Tri Delt from Bellwood, to Milton Ebers . . . Last week also marked the marriage of Barbara Selleck, Kappa, and Robert Bemis.

UNUSUAL after a fashion was the coupling of Mary Beeson, Kappa, and George Blackstone, ATO, who were dancing at the Park Saturday . . . Bette Rathbun, DG, appears to still be playing the field, at least Tom Davis, Phi Delt, had the honor last Payday.

PINNED at last are Betty Mallo, 1939 beauty queen, and Paul Brown, dashing Sig Alph . . . Incidentally, another Broken Bow Alph, Bruce Duncan, has been seeing quite a bit of Betty Holtorf, DG, this summer.

GLENN MILLER brought university patrons from far and near . . . Up from a Council Grove, Kas., ranch came Helen Kelley, Pi Phi, and Harold Hopkins, Kappa Sig . . . keeping the Lincoln contingent alive were Evelyn Hopkins, Kappa Delt, and Jim Anderson, Sig Nu, along with Dick Ryan, Sig Nu, and Jane Clausen.

for a downtown firm, serving as business manager for the summer DAILY, and seeing one's love on the side . . . nice work if . . . etc.

Stoke to address South Dakota grads and convo Dr. Harold W. Stoke, dean of the graduate college, will give two addresses at the University of South Dakota on July 11. He will discuss "Our Underlying Agreements" before a general summer session convocation in the morning, and will appear before the graduate club in the evening to speak on "The Professional Touch."

Second of three contract bridge tournaments scheduled for this summer will be played off Saturday evening, July 13, in Union Parlors A and B, at 7:30. All interested should register by Friday, July 12, at the checkstand. The entire tournament will be run off in one evening, and prizes will be given the winning couple.
