Hosp speaks on religion

Dean to address Council of Religious Welfare
Helen Hosp, dean of women, will speak on the relationship between the city religious groups and the university at the meeting today of the Council of Religious Welfare. The group will have dinner at the Union at 5 this afternoon. The Council is composed of nine faculty members, university pastors, the secretaries of the YMCA and YWCA, executives of other organized religious groups and student representatives of these same groups. The Rev. Robert Drew, of the Wesley foundation, will preside at the meeting introducing new members and appointing committees for the year's work.

CARRY THE PEN
That Will Help You Get The "Breaks!"

GUARANTEED for LIFE
by Parker's Blue Diamond

That smart, exclusive style of shimmering Pearl rings which excites admiration when you're seen in its company.
That patented One-Hand Sacless Filler with a Big Ink Reserve in place of a rubber ink sac.
That streamlined Television barrel which keeps you from missing the boat by showing if your ink is running low.
That extra resilient, non-brittle 14 K Gold "lubricated" Point which takes the load off your hand!
It's the revolutionary Parker Vacumatic—the only Pen of its kind in the world. Yet based on official Life Expectancy Tables of leading insurance companies it costs less than poorest pens because it's GUARANTEED FOR LIFE by Parker's Blue Diamond. Try it today at the nearest pen counter.

One-Hand Filler the EASIEST, most convenient to operate, as proved by DeWitt Labs.
