

How to pitch a no-hitter: simply call on that old gal—Lady Luck

By Diamond Dust Evinger.

What is that takes to provide for a no-hit, no-run ball game to fall into the lap of a major league pitcher?

That question can be answered by just one word. There's a certain little old gal by the name of Lady Luck which enables most hurlers to enter the Hall of Fame.

Luck and lots of it is the man ingredient in stirring up such a marvelous concoction. Ask any pitcher who has gained no-hit fame and he will tell you that if it were not for Lady Luck he would still be among the thousands who never approach the Glorious Goal.

Carleton huris one.

Take Tex Carleton for instance. Given up for lost causes and a dead arm, the Brooklyn Dodgers recalled the near 38 year old pitcher for the 1940 season.

All Tex has done thus far has been to pitch a no-hitter and also a three-hitter. Carleton's masterpiece was thrown against the Cincinnati Reds, 1940 National league pennant winners, to make the accomplishment even more remarkable.

Many hitters have hurled two-hitters and three-hitters, but it usually has been a false turn of fate that prevented a perfect game.

Freaks of nature harm.

Often a strong wind has blown a ball out of an outfielder's reach or a pebble in the infield has caused a grounder to take a bad hop and go for a scratch single—and boom, there goes that no-hitter.

Looking over the records and noticing the names of those pitchers who have hurled perfect games, one does not find highly impressive and regarded names. Johnny Vander Meer threw two no-hitters in successive games and then his arm went bad.

Now Johnny is back in the big show again, but his old stuff has not entirely returned. In 1927, bespectacled Bill Dietrich of the Chicago White Sox, tossed a no-hitter against the St. Louis Browns.

Cy Young tosses three.

Paul Dean hurled a no-hitter his first year in the big time. One Bob Burke of the Washington Senators, also threw a perfect game, but those names are not among the greatest stars of the game and age today.

There have been instances when pitching greats, however, have come thru with a no-hitter. Cy Young hurled three, Christy Mathewson two, while Nap Rucker, Dazzy Vance, Ed Walsh, Carl Hubbell and young Bobby Feller all have come up with such prize flinging.

The aim in this article, as has been stated, is to show that even so-so pitching artists have the chance to hurl a perfect game. It's just old Lady Luck that hands the game on that silver platter and a niche in the great Fame Hall.

AWS to sponsor All-Activity Mart next Saturday

All extra-curricular activities for which university women are eligible will be represented in an All-Activity Mart to be held Saturday afternoon. Sponsored by Associated Women Students the exhibit will be held in Ellen Smith Hall from 1 to 4.

Each activity will have representatives there who will exhibit or describe their work. Refreshments will be served.

Hear Your OWN Voice!

Let us make your RECORDINGS

Prices Are Reasonable Now

at

ZIEGENBEIN'S

1212 O St. 2-5666

Gymnasts begin semester drills

All varsity and frosh gymnasts have been asked to report for practice sessions on the coliseum stage. Coach Charley Miller and Assistant Coach Gay Cadwell will be in charge. Drills are being held from 3 to 6 every weekday afternoon.

Detroit beats Tribe 5-0 for two-game lead

Lynwood (Schoolboy) Rowe, the tall righthander who was sent back to the minors two years ago, is really back in the big show to stay. Emphasis on this statement can be reassured by observing his hurling this year.

The Schoolboy handed the fading Cleveland Indians a 5-0 setback with only five hits, Saturday, to place his Detroit Tiger mates two full games out in front of the Tribe in the American league race.

The New York Yankees kept pace with the Bengals by nipping the Boston Red Sox 5-4 but are still four and one-half games behind the flying Tigers.

Kennedy huris 2-hitter.

Other junior loop games found Vernon Kennedy holding the White Sox to a pair of hits in the first game of a doubleheader in which the St. Louis Browns took both games by 3 to 2 and 7-6.

In the National league, Cincinnati split a twin bill with Pittsburgh by scores of 8 to 1 and 7-8. The Phils edged in front of the Brooklyn Dodgers by 4-2, while the Cubs outlasted the Cardinals in 11 innings by 4-3. The Giants finally broke an 11-game losing streak by beating Boston's Bees 3 to 1.

Bureau reports 78 placements

The following teacher placements were reported during the summer by Prof. R. D. Moritz, director of the bureau of educational service:

- Margaret Clark, Cozad.
- Mildred Dolezal, Albion.
- William Aeschbacher, Madrid.
- Mary Gilbertson, Dawson.
- Marjorie Hansen, Kluge.
- Martha Carlson, Lester, Ia.
- Heien Bevans, Nehawka.
- Dwight Whitaker, Norfolk.
- Phyllis Bull, Des Moines, Ia.
- Dorothy Cathers, Fullerton.
- Ethel Flick, McCook.
- George Anderson, Brock.
- Ruth Burnham, Chadron.
- Jeanette Gist, Hartington.
- Gail Duffield, Gordon.
- Dorothy Gregg, Ann Arbor, Mich.
- Nancy Haycock, Lincoln.
- Elizabeth Gibson, Sutton.
- Mary Maxine Haney, Hardy.
- Marion Vesley, Sidney.
- Alice Windhusen, Scribner.
- Bernice Jacobson, Scottsbluff.
- Lenore Anderson, South Sioux City.
- Lillian Biazkovec, Auburn.
- Dorothy Davis, Scottsbluff.
- Martha McGee, Gothenburg.
- Amelia Svoboda, Ewing.
- Bernice Wallis, Brainard.
- Irene Mast, Eldora, Ia.
- A. D. Brainard, Muskogean, Mich.
- Clara Stoner, Whitman.
- Dorothy Dorman, Holdrege.
- Ida Warner, Allen.
- Florence Christensen, Pleasant Dale.
- Dorothy Bridges, Gothenburg.
- Emma Holben, Ovid, Colo.
- Dorothy Wiebusch, York.
- Lois Kierachmidt, O'Neill.
- Lela Wittenbach, Wynora.
- Lucille Reilly, Kimball.
- Lois Tibbets, Rosalia.
- Ethel Houglund, Egan, Mt.
- Eleanor Souw, Mitchell.
- Mary Partner, Carleton.
- Verona Jerabek, Nehawka.
- Julia Viole, Valentine.
- Mrs. Ruth Buser, Sioux City, Ia.
- Dean Voegler, DuBois.
- Katherine Kalliff, York.
- Della Eggleston, Valley.
- Virginia Asmus, Barden.
- Harriet R. Martin, Arnold.
- C. L. Reinhardt, Bering City.
- Margaret Pyle, Burr.
- Lela Curry, Pierce.
- Madelyn Richard, Anselmo.
- Eunice Ristny, Sioux Falls, S. D.
- Irene Vrbsky, Springfield.
- Howard Bruner, Hemingford.
- Lenore Teal, Fremont.
- Fretchen Kohler, Grand Island.
- Edith Pembroke, Lincoln.
- Frieda Hess, Scottsbluff.
- Don Meghan, Lincoln.
- Harriet Watts, Chadron State Teachers college.
- Evelyn Whitnah, Honey Creek-Salom.
- Mary Katz, Princeton.
- Carolyn Kennedy, Nehawka.
- Marion Thayer, Arapahoe.
- Hollis French, Benkelman.
- John Bundy, Daykin.
- Franklin LeBar, McCook.
- Lyle Roberts, Laurel.
- Veria Thompson, Minatare.
- Irma Uehling, Meadow Grove.
- Charmian Bixon, Richardson county.
- William Fisher, University of Colorado.
- Edwin Dodge, Shelton.

Mozart's comic opera, "Abduction from the Harem," will be presented in its entirety for the first time in the U. S. by the music department of the University of Michigan.

Iowa State passes blast Luther, 27-0

Iowa State, taking a lesson from Biff Jones, found the use of alternating two teams to its liking and passed its way to victory over Luther college 27-0 at Ames, Saturday afternoon.

The Cyclones inaugurated Big Six play this year with this game and brought out an aerial attack that reminded Iowa State fans of the bonny days of Everett Kiacher and Ed Bock in 1938.

Left halfback Griswold scored twice for the victors, and Graves, an end, and Quarterback Larry Owens tallied the other two touchdowns. Owens was the passing star of the Cyclone air circus.

Princeton paper blasts out against tutoring system

"The tutoring industry is throttling the success of the preceptorial system and is undermining its whole educational philosophy." This was the first blast in a vigorous editorial drive against tutoring sponsored by the Daily Princetonian.

Since the Student tutorial association was organized at Princeton in 1933, it has been regarded as a supplement to classroom instruction and has worked in cooperation with the faculty. Following the lead of the Harvard Crimson, the Princeton paper has now taken up the cry against tutoring.

The niversity of Vermont in 1941 will celebrate the sesquicentennial anniversary of its founding.

"Tops in Hollywood!"

SOYS MAUREEN O'HARA
starring in "Dance, Girl, Dance" an R. K. O. Radio Production.

Louise
SHOES EXCLUSIVELY FOR GOLD & CO.

Vivacious new styles! Exciting as a "Hollywood premier!" The very smartest shoes you can possibly have! Choose the new WOOD-CARVER HEELS! SCOOP WEDGIES! TRACTOR HEELS! ELASTICIZED SUEDES! COLLEGE HEELS! BLACKS! BROWNS! WINES! MOSS GREENS! You simply must see them! Come in soon!

2.95
to 3.95

LOCALLY OWNED • LOCALLY CONTROLLED

GOLD & CO.

WE GIVE S. & H. GREEN STAMPS