By Jim Evinger

William F. Boand, originator of the Azzi Ratem football rating system, developed his ranking of pigskin teams over the nation while he was an invalid and was convalescing . . .

Now in business in Chicago, Mr. Boand has his wife as his chief aid . . . She keeps the records and does much of the figuring and even enjoys working out the rankings . . .

When Boand first started his system, he called it As I Rate 'Em, later shortened to Azzi Ratem . . . Help in bettering his ratings came from outstanding coaches . . . Good old Knute Rockne even lent a helping hand . . . That was way back in 1930 . . .

In eight years of national ranking, Nebraska has always appeared high in the final ratings . . . In 1932, the Huskers stood 13th, '33, 4th; '34, 37th; '35, 14th; '36, 5th; '37, 10th; '38, 57th, and last year, 14th . . . Not bad standings, eh, out of 100 teams listed every year? . . .

Minnesota rates 7 points better than Washington among games to be played this weekend by the Football News, a collegiate sports weekly . . . Iowa State is only 6 points better than Denver, Missouri 21 more than St. Louis, Kansas State 18 better than Emporia, and Ohio State 13 points better than Pittsburgh among other games this week . . .

On Tuesday, Jimmy Foxx belted out his 500th major league home run . . . He needs only 214 more to match Babe Ruth's record . . . Mark Larry French and Charley Root, veterans of the Chicago mound staff, as probable members of the 200-victory circle in the National league by the end of the 1941 season . . . Carl Hubbell and Freddy Fitzsimmons just joined the double-century set this year . . .

When Rookie Dutch Meyer batted in six runs in an exhibition game last spring against the Detroit Tigers, he cut out a major league job for himself . . . After Charley Gehring went lame, Detroit called Meyer from Knoxville and he is one of the rookies of the year . . .

Tab these two fellows as the most important major leaguers in their respective loops . . . Bobby Feller of Cleveland and Johnny Mize of the St. Louis Cardinals . . . Only Joe DiMaggio, Jimmy Foxx and Buck Newsom are giving Feller a good race . . . Frank McCormick, Bucky Walters, and Claude Passeau are Mize's chief competition . . . But Feeler and Mize, watch! . . .

Southern Cal top team in Pasadena play

Trojans have six Rose Bowl wins; Pittsburgh, Alabama lead visitors

Dipping into the record books concerning Rose Bowl classics, it is found that Southern California has appeared in that New Year's bowl six times and has won every encounter.

Stanford has been host five times but has only been triumphant twice. Alabama and Pittsburgh lead the visitors to the Pasadena frolic with four appearances apiece.

In 1918 and 1919, there were no colleges playing in the Rose Bowl due to the World war. However, service schools of the Navy and the Marines were combatants.

Trojans swamp Pitt.

The largest score rolled up was the Southern Cal wallop of Pittsburgh in 1930 by a 47-14 count. The next largest score was Southern Cal's 35-0 shutout over the Panthers in 1933.

No team from the Big Six has ever been represented in the Rose Bowl, but the Big Ten has seen one of its elevens recognized. Ohio State visited the Pasadena oval in 1921 but lost to the California Bears 28-0.

Oddly enough, three of the bat-ties have ended in ties. The strangest game of the whole series was the 1929 game in which Georgia Tech nosed out California 8 to 7. But, that was the clash in which Roy "Wrong Way" Riegals ran toward his own goal and eventually set up the pins for a safety on his team and finally a win for the Tech Yellow Jackets.

Ohio State university student fliers are making mass flights to other colleges during weekends in order to arouse interest in civilian flying.

Of every 1,000 college graduates who marry only 19 will be divorced, as compared with the general average of 164 divorces for every 1,000 marriages.
