

The Stars and Gripes

By Jo Duree

Today at 1 o'clock the sons and brothers of Chi Omegas are invited to the Chi Omega chapter house for dinner . . . Phi Deltas, Kappa Sigs, Sig Alphas, and ATO's in said order represent the related . . .

DG's Gay Gimple and Betty Ann Roberts are wagering these days . . . no political bet, the girls are currently chatting about a couple of lads who they pseudonym "Mister X" and now they're betting on which dream man will call which DG first now . . . maybe Betas'd better beware, no?

Double-dating were Ruthie Ganz, Tri Delt, who was with Sigma Nu Bob Ford who used to go with ATO John Douglas who was with Martha Ann Read, Alpha Chi who used to go with Bob Ford, who is still a Sigma Nu . . . it has been nice weather lately . . .

The Sigma Kappa girls are in a mild state of wonderment as to just what will transpire next with their DeLoris Storjohann . . . she spent the summer at Grand Lake and seems to have been spending her spare moments since thinking of some quite phenomenal Florida

Collegiate players initiate member, announce program

Constance Hourigan, senior in the speech department, was initiated into the National Collegiate Players, honorary dramatic society, at the first meeting of the year Tuesday afternoon, Virginia Thede, Dorothy Ward, Mildred Manning and Jon Pruden, present active members, were initiated into the honorary last summer. Virginia Thede was elected president.

Outlining an ambitious program for the coming year, the players plan to sponsor the annual "Oscar Night"—an evening of fun and rewards for distinguished service in the department. They will direct and produce Studio Theater plays in the Temple. And for the first time they will act as assistants in the direction of University Theater productions.

room were played as girls signed up for soap carving classes, ping pong tournaments, and contract bridge tournaments.

The purpose of the Barb display was to organize and increase the interest of unaffiliated girls in all school activities. Twelve members of a Barb board are elected by a general assembly of all Barb girls. A working girls' club for all girls who have no chance to participate in school activities is a new project under discussion.

Coed Counselors, who are big sisters to all new girls sponsor a class in tap dancing, a book review, and a charm school. AWS, of which all girls are members, invited all new students to Freshman AWS Thursday afternoon.

U. ATO who was vacationing as a forest ranger . . .

Maybe exchange dinners do have a place in collitch life . . . after the Phi Deltas and the Alpha Phi's got together it seems Bill Fox is now interested in Beth Hanisch.

Jesse Younger is currently squiring SDT prexy, Sarah B. Miller several places . . . and Eleanor Elliott, Theta who wore that DU pin of Dale Ganz, is being seen with Beta Clark Ashton.

With business at the Kappa Sig home so rushed, according to Rafe Combs, it was necessary that he send Pickles Hines over to the church to pick up his date, Winkie Zumwinkel, Chi O . . .

We are particularly fond of Sid Bradley's definition of a friend as a guy who walks in when the rest of the world walks out . . .

There are rumors that the

because of flood danger seems highly probable.

Still another project uncovered picture writing of Indian origin on some sandstone cliffs. Animals, human forms, arrows, and the so-called turkey track symbols were among the picture writings discovered. Likewise engraved on these bluffs were names and dates of early settlers dating back to 1858.

reply of the day came from a teacher '43 and a barb, Miss Louise Woerner. "Neither are likely to attack the U. S. I say this because I believe that we'll be fighting in Europe first.

"This country is in danger of physical attack from neither Japan nor Germany within the next five years. And in the next five years we should be so well prepared that an attack would be easily repulsed." That's the opinion of Irving Simon, barb, arts '42.

At least five years off.

Agreeing in part with Simon is bizard '43, Bob states, "if there is John Olson, frosh teachers and barb. "I don't think we will be in danger of attack from Germany within the next five years even if they do win the war. However, I do believe that Germany is more likely to attack than Japan."

Something of a non-conformist is Bob Shoemaker, Acacia pledge, attack, it will be a coordinated movement by both Japan and Germany."

Student presents apologetic bouquet to Prof. Winnacker

Orchids may be what Prof. R. A. Winnacker deserves for his sterling lectures in history, but he got just one beautiful big red rose, through the courtesy of Virginia Ford. It seems that Virginia carelessly made some remark about "how funny his lectures were." Professor Winnacker left without another word. Afraid that she might have said the wrong thing, Virginia hurried to the florists to invest her life savings in flowers as a much-needed apology. We'll let you know how it works when grades come out.

Newman club has get-together party

The Newman club held an all-church get-together party in parlors X, Y and Z at the Student Union Friday evening at 8. Approximately 160 were present. Refreshments were served and at 9:30 special buses transported the students to the C. Y. O. hall where a "mixer" dance provided further entertainment.

Republicans plan rally for Tuesday

All student republicans are invited to attend an all-republican meeting that is being held in the Union Tuesday evening at 7:30.

The republicans on the campus are to be organized in order for them to express their opinions and to aid the local organization. The Lancaster Young Republicans are taking great interest in the organization and hope for its success.

Plans for the meeting are being made by Wayne Matschullat and Paul Hawkins, both juniors in law college.
