

Girl yell leader problem unsolved

No definite plans have been made by the administration in regard to girl cheer-leaders, according to Innocent George Gostas at yesterday evening's cheering squad practice. The question is being referred to a faculty committee for a decision.

From the original field of 30 recruits, the cheer-leader squad has dwindled to about 10 still trying for positions on the six-man team at yesterday's practice. The squad is learning several new yells in addition to the old ones under the direction of Ralph Worden, "yell king." Innocents John Mason and George Gostas. Final selections for the team will be made either this evening or tomorrow evening.

Individualism keynotes this season's campus fashions

Individualism. That's the keynote of this year's college fashions. The day of identical sweaters, identical skirts, and identical saddle shoes—accompanied by identical polo coats is past.

This year you who go to college dress to please yourself. You may live in classic pull-overs—you may love sleeveless sweaters, jerkins, pinafore sweaters cut away to show your shirt-sleeves. You may cling to the saddle shoes of ivy-clad tradition—or you may pick any one of a vast variety of play-shoes. You may remain faithful to tan tawny camel's-hair top-coat or you may choose tweed, covert-cloth, gabardine. Whipcord is a newcomer to the gabardine family. A new greatcoat for winter weather has an alpaca lining.

Dishevelled look gone. This year you'll forget that coeds are supposed to look dishevelled. You'll strive for a trim, tidy, wits-about-you look. You'll wear a hat more often than not—one of the new shallow cloches, or a skull-cap, or a pill-box. Slacks are nicely tailored this year—grey flannel or corduroy. You'll want a tweed or Scotch plaid skirt, shorter and straighter this year, and at least one pinafore.

The red-and-beige team is new. Likewise matching belts and handbags.

Fashion forecasts a white winter. Team a white jacket with a dark skirt and you'll start something on the campus; fit into the landscape with a calfskin jacket

Practically enroute to Minnesota are more and more people... the spirit must be catching for minds are being made up right and left that Minnesota is the best date that anyone could make for the weekend... Alpha Phi's Betty Groth, Barb Jones, and Beanie Allen will be there as will Kappa Sigma Leonard Van Buskirk, Jack Clark, Jim Beltzer... Pat Griswold, Alpha Chi, and Bert Miller, Sig Chi... and Alpha Chi's Faye Irwin and Polly Jo Taylor with Sig Ep Clint Jurgeson and Sig Chi Tom Horn... Thetas Mary Helen Farrar, Lois Keller, and Tish Trestler...

Not to neglect the ATO's, there are guys going like Mason, Worden and Schleh... and among the KKG's are Sue Woodruff, Shirley Hoffman, and Geno Stuht...

Two house parties this weekend are those of Theta Xi and AGR... At the TX house will be Pi Phi Georgia Swallow with Dale Anderson, Lucille Enyeart, DDD, with Fred Klug and Alpha Xi Betty Klingel with Louie Knudsen... while AGR's Floyd Hansmire and Don Steele will be with Pi Phi Ruth Harvey and Chi Omega Jean Cowden at the Alpha Gamma Rho party...

Sunday will find the Gamma Phi pledges entertaining other sorority pledges from three to five, Sunday...

Jack Moore of the Sigma Chi Moores, whose pin is out on a Pi-Phi of last year is dating and dating Nell Reese, Alpha Phi, when our Nell isn't busy with numerous other people who are also trying to date her...

We admit that it's no longer news when DDD Jane Ellis starts going steady again with Bob Adams, like she did last weekend... but when Jane limits the steady deal herself to something like two weeks and then at the end of the first week of again going steady she decides it can't last any longer... of course Janey having a date with a new man might account for the recurring quits...

When Pat Lahr asked AOPi Jane Lynn and Ruthie Holland, Pi Phi, while they were getting their noon nourishment in the grill, if they could take a cab and go to the station at 3 the gals were a little surprised but readily acceded... surprise is scarcely a

Orchesis learns elementary steps

Thirty new members warmed up, took exercises and learned elementary dance steps at the first meeting of Orchesis, women's modern dancing organization Thursday. Any girls who missed the first meeting but are interested in joining may come to the next two meetings on Oct. 9 and 16. After the lessons regular members gave parts of the demonstrations which were produced last year in numerous Nebraska towns and on the campus.

strong enough adjective for their sentiment when they got down to the station and the Chamber of Commerce informed them that they were filming something about "Lincoln on Parade" and then perforce started expending film on the gals... the Yellow Cab deposited the new actresses on the Union steps when it was all over and the driver handed over a $7 coupon book... it's still a toss up whether Jayne and Ruth are going to use the coupons and whip up to Omaha or save them for the Mortar Board party...

Inquiring reporter finds...

Men don't care if coeds smoke providing they buy their own

Do you approve of women smoking? This question is not asked in a spirit of levity. We really want to know how the students feel about it. These are their opinions.

Said Dean Heckt, '42 barb. "No, to me it lowers their degree of femininity. Most of them smoke because it is a fad. I wouldn't go steadily with a girl who smoked." And that fact is only the beginning folks.

"I have nothing against a woman smoking. But every woman who does should realize that it definitely does destroy some part of her feminine charm." Those are the words of Waldo Deck, Phi Gamma Delta senior law.

Great consideration for the future was displayed in this response from Dee Lutton, classmate and frat brother of Waldo Deck. "As far as I am concerned, I don't mind girls smoking while they are in school. But I would hate to see a young mother smoke."

A cynical note was supplied by Howard Debus, frosh teachers. Said Howard, "It's alright if they furnish their own cigarettes." And possibly Mr. Debus has something there.

Maybe a girl's opinion would be appropriate here. Eileen Hunt, senior teachers replied in these words. "I don't smoke. Since woman has the greatest influence on children, seeing women smoking while they have children in their arms disgusts me."

Bob Krejci, music '43, expressed the opinion of all those persons who were asked but whose individual quotations do not appear. "I disapprove—definitely. Yet I don't know why."

Remember then girls that in the opinion of a majority of the men, smoking indulged in by women is definitely frowned upon.

Manhattan: Raymond Twyefort, advocate of color in men's clothes, has a map showing New York "hot spots" pasted in the crown of his silk topper.

Manhattan: Raymond Twyefort, advocate of color in men's clothes, has a map showing New York "hot spots" pasted in the crown of his silk topper.

Socially Speaking

By Jo Duree

Casual Reversible COATS

Double-breasted and fly front boxy styles—in gay plaids and fleeces with water repellent linings (also corduroy linings).

Priced from $9.98

MANGEL'S

1225 "O"

Just get Dad's O. K. for a CHARGE ACCOUNT

Cues for the Coed

Well, coeds, it's corduroy in the news this week. It's really the big item—on the campus, and in the stores. It's featured everywhere, so you can't go wrong when you chose corduroy.

Corduroy "Switchers"

Swing to America's newest favorites—"separates" in pin-wale corduroy. Rudge's carry swing skirts at $2.95; jackets at $2.95; jumpers at $2.95; and slack suits at $4.95. Have fun mixing or matching these ensembles—colors are royal blue, red, rust, and green. Rudge's also feature a Bulky Knit cardigan sweater—in all colors—priced at $1.95.

Attention-getting wide-ribbed corduroy suits take their bow. These suits, featured at Ben Simon's, have a long, fitted, pocketed jacket; and a full-gored skirt—priced at $8.95. Colors are blue, beige, green and Indian-penny. Look "extra collegiate" in that snappy red corduroy reversible from to match your corduroy outfits may be purchased at the Nancee Hat Shop. Styles featured are the Judy and the Porkpie—in all colors—priced at $1.00. A strictly campus purse is the "hit" of the week. It is a double-compartment purse, with a zipper all the way around. Nancee carries this purse in all colors—priced at $1.00. To match any of your hats, Nancee has an assortment of purses and gloves. Look for the "Nancee" sign. 133 So. 13th St. Phone 2-3033.

Corduroy Hats

Simon's. An added attraction about this reversible is its two extra zipper pockets lined with oil-silk. This coat is priced at $12.95. For special occasions, try a velveteen jumper—in black, red, or blue—featured in Mademoiselle, and carried at Simon's for $7.95.

—Sara Bane