

There are many things two can do on a dime or two

"Gee, I wish we could think of something different to do on dates besides going to shows and dances all the time."—How many times that is heard among the college students on this campus! Here are some interesting ways to spend an evening with a date, that are different and yet fun:

For an inexpensive evening, try walking downtown and window-shopping; end it up with a coke and a conversation in some place that caters to the college trade. If your date is athletically inclined, some night you can have a good time bowling or arching at an outdoor range. These driving ranges are fun, too.

On rainy evenings, some people like to spend their time listening to good music or reading an interesting book; if there is an opportunity, it's easy to pop corn or toast marshmallows over a fireplace.

One fellow says he actually enjoys helping his girl clean her typewriter or doing little odd jobs that don't take much energy. Some couples enjoy an evening of bridge; others have a regular system of calling on friends in their homes.

Sunday evenings can be spent in varied ways: Did you ever try going to an evening church service in some little country church? Many dates like to have young people's meetings on Sunday nights. Then, on week nights, when library studying is necessary, it is possible that you can get together on some work there.

These are just a few suggestions for making a variety in your dating life; if you really want to be original, you can think of many more ways to have some good fun during an evening.

Huskers--

205 pounds; Team Two, 194 pounds, and Team Three, 198 pounds.

Nebraska's first string averages 194, Team Two, 189, and Team Three, 185 pounds. There, you have an 11 pound Gopher advantage in the starting lineup, 5 pounds more in the second eleven, and 13 pounds greater than Nebraska's third string.

Burrus not starter.

There is some speculation as to whether the Biffer will start Bob Burruss, he of the lame back, or physically-perfect Freddie Meier at center. If Burruss can not play very much of the game, Sophomore Howard Kelly will probably see extra service.

Three full teams will be taken along with an extra guard, and fullback. The personnel of the Biffer's first three units includes:

Left tackles: R. Kahler, 220; Muskin, 195; Schleich, 221.
Left guards: Schwartzkopf, 175; Whitehead, 192; Myers, 165.
Centers: Burruss, 188; Meier, 190; Kelly, 187.
Right guards: Alfson, 188; Abel, 198; Bryant, 181.
Right tackles: Behm, 200; Herndon, 195; Lisk, 206.
Right ends: Prochaska, 198; Wertman, 190; M. Thompson, 180.
Quarterbacks: Knight, 190; Petsch, 175; T. Thompson, 180.
Left halfbacks: Hopp, 198; Rohrig, 186; D. Bradley, 170.
Right halfbacks: W. Luther, 180; Zikmund, 179; B. Kahler, 196.
Fullbacks: Francis, 201; Blue, 205; Rohn, 182.

Others who will make the trip are Herbert Von Goetz, guard; Willard Bunker, end, and Kenneth Simmons, fullback. Minnesota lines up like this:

Left ends: Riger, 194; Fitch, 201; Van Sistine, 185.
Left tackles: Wildung, 210; Van Hull, 209; Levy, 226.
Left guards: Kusisto, 222; Litman, 216; R. Smith, 199.
Centers: Bjorckland, 219; Kollner, 176; Noland, 201.
Right guards: Paschka, 206; Pukema, 201; Billman, 192.
Right tackles: Odson, 247; Lechner, 200; Lushine, 234.
Right ends: Johnson, 195; Hirschner, 187; Ekborg, 201.
Quarterbacks: Bartlett, 188; Bierhaus, 179; Plunkett, 194.
Left halfbacks: Smith, 193; Mernik, 176; Ring, 168.
Right halfbacks: Franck, 175; Paffarath, 186; Jannik, 183.
Fullbacks: Sweiger, 206; Daley, 200; Steinbauer, 195.

Suzies get more freedom as uni men get benefit

Suzies, as the girls at Stephens college in Missouri are called, are going to have more dates with University of Missouri men according to plans now underway.

Three radical departures from yesteryear's strict rules promise a "new freedom," says the Missouri Student. "Principles of Living," a pamphlet which sets down the rules governing social privileges of Stephens girls says:

(1) There will be no unapproved list of dating places, (2) Girls may ride in cars at night as well as in the afternoon, (3) Most of the red tape involved in out-of-town trips is abolished.

The new rules are supposed to inculcate in the girls the spirit of responsibility. Suzies are still forbidden to drink alcoholic beverages and must be in at 10:30 on week nights and 11 on Friday and Saturday.

Union will show Minnesota films

As a consolation to students who will be unable to attend the Minnesota game at Minneapolis Saturday, motion pictures of the game will be shown next Wednesday evening at 7:30 in the Union ballroom.

Movies of subsequent out of town games will be offered to students at the same time and place each Wednesday following the game. Nebraska plays away against Kansas U. on Oct. 19 and Oklahoma on Nov. 2. The Pittsburgh film will be shown Nov. 27 after Thanksgiving vacation.

W. A. Spurr releases booklet on state business

The forty-seventh booklet in the Nebraska Studies in Business Series, "Seasonal Variations in Nebraska Business" by Prof. William A. Spurr has just been released.

The booklet denotes the seasonal characteristics of Nebraska business emphasizing farm marketings, farm income, farm prices, and retail trade.

Prof. Spurr has just recently started work to prepare a pamphlet on "Industrial Possibilities of Nebraska" assisted by NYA students.

Ruth Fairley heads ag WAA

Ruth Fairley was elected ag WAA president at the weekly Council meeting of that organization. Caroline Pauley is the new vice president. Lois Riggs, secretary and treasurer; Mary Dennis, publicity chairman and Lucille Wolford, social chairman were the other officers selected. Two freshmen women will be added to the council following the first six weeks reports.

A picnic lunch will be served in connection with the next council meeting at the WAA cabin October 7 at 5 p. m. Transportation will be provided from the college activities building.

An organization meeting will be held at the college activities building October 8 at 5 p. m. Ag women who are interested in sports activities will be given an opportunity to play shuffle board, badminton and Nebraska ball.

Palladian society to meet tonight

Bizad, ag, law and grad colleges are in charge of the program at the open meeting of Palladian Literary society in the Temple this evening. The program will include two short plays and music. Games will be played after the program.
