The football season begins in earnest, Saturday, with most of the college elevens playing important games. . . . And by Saturday night, we will know just where Nebraska stands in the football world. . . .

Will it be right near the top or fighting to gain lost prestige? . . . Naturally, we all hope that the Huskers will be right up there near the top. . . . But we shall see what we shall see. . . .

Other important games to watch this weekend will be the Duke-Tennessee, Indiana-Texas U, Pitt-Missouri, and Oregon State-Southern Cal grid battles. . . .

BIERBOWER WRITES

June Bierbower, boss gal in this corner last year, sent a letter thru the mail, yesterday, wishing the Huskers all the luck in the world for the coming campaign. . . .

June also goes on to add that she noticed in one of the papers that there was plenty of wailing about four sophomores on the second team. . . . June wants us to remember that there were three sophs on the first team and five others on the second team when the Huskers did battle with Minnesota a year ago. . . .

Remember a few years back when Davey O'Brien played for Texas Christian? . . . A lad by the name of Jack Odle was supposed to fill his shoes. . . . Now Odle is a third-string fullback on the Horned Toad squad. . . .

HIGH-SCORING SOUTHWEST

The wide open football play of the Southwest conference produced 171 points for members of the loop for five teams to their opponents' total of 33 last Saturday. . . .

St. Mary's (Calif.) gridders must travel over 30 miles of land, 20 miles of water and pass thru three counties and metropolitan cities in order to reach their "home" field—Kezar stadium in San Francisco. . . .

You have to be plenty big to get a job on the Green Bay Packer football team. . . . The "midget" of the professional champions weighs 185 pounds. . . .

PRO GIANTS

A composite formula for the typical pro footballer shows an ex-collegian 25 1-2 years old, 5 feet 11 inches in height weight over 200 pounds and with six years' experience (including collegiate). . . .

Humor note (?????): From Allentown, Pa., this summer came this little story. . . . Umpire Mike Breslin is now considering solid rubber tires for his automobile. . . . He ejected Steve Seftick, Allentown catcher, from an Interstate league baseball game, much to the displeasure of fans. . . .

Every Husker foe plays on the 'morrow

Iowa, Oklahoma in easy games; Tigers-Panthers; Butts-Aggies in toss-ups

While the Nebraska Cornhuskers are doing battle with Minnesota on the Gopher lot, their opponents are also having a full afternoon with their respective engagements.

Indiana is meeting the University of Texas on the Hoosier playground. Texas, tutored by D. X. Bible, is said to have the best team of the Bible regime and from what the experts say the game will be a tossup with Indiana a slight favorite. However the margin is so slight that no one should go out on the limb too far.

Kansas State will meet Colorado and from all indications should have plenty trouble. The game will be played on the Buff gridiron which will hinder the Staters' strength.

Cyclone, Jayhawks close.

Altho defeated last year at Kansas the tables are due to be turned this fall as Iowa State is the choice to thump the University of Kansas. Iowa State rated as considerably stronger this season and will bear watching thruout the season's play, according to those who are in the know.

Despite its setback last Saturday at the hands of Ohio State, Pittsburgh goes into its game with Missouri rated the slight favorite.

The two teams did not play last year and according to last week's play the Panthers will rate the choice in another tossup. Much will depend on the condition of Paul Christman.

Iowa in breather.

Iowa will tuneup on the University of South Dakota in a home engagement. South Dakota, the victims of a sound drubbing last fall, will have their hands full to keep from the same treatment this fall. Iowa will have a much better balanced team this year and will be tough for the Dakotans. The edge is definitely on the Iowa side of the fence.

Husker 2-mile team working out for races

Working out on the cinders of Memorial stadium are prospective members of Nebraska's two-mile team for the meets this fall. Coach Ed Weir is supervising them, as well as several other track men who are getting in shape.

Letterman Bill Cook of North Loup is after a position again this year. He placed fourth in the mile run in the Big Six indoor and outdoor meets and won first in the two-mile run in a dual meet with Iowa State with a clocking of 9:52. Cook's best time last season was 9:48 and he is improving. Garrels, Brooks ready. Dale Garrels, a junior from Diller, ran the two-mile in 10:02 last year and hopes to break ten minutes this season. Harold Brooks of Gothenburg will be running cross-country for the first time, due to the fact that he entered school the second semester. Brooks ran the mile and half-mile last year and holds the Nebraska mile record of 4:21. Bob Ginn, soph from Madison, also will be running for the first time. Other sophomores gunning for positions on the team are Arden Kersey, Eldon Andrews, Jim Brogan and Harlan Culwell.

Girls' IM slate

Girls' intramural games called off Wednesday night because of the rain will be rescheduled for next week. This evening at 5 three teams will play—Chi Omega 2 with Kappa Kappa Gamma 1, Kappa Alpha Theta 3 with Raymond Hall 1 and Delta Delta Delta 1 with Gamma Phi Beta 2.

WAA girls report

Girls who wish to sell ice cream and candy at the football games may get interviews in the WAA lounge in the girl's gym today from 10-11 a. m., and from 2:30-5 p. m.

squad will consist of only four men. Oklahoma will be the second opponent, October 26, at Norman. Missouri comes here November 2 and the conference meet will be November 16 at Columbia. One reason why Coach Weir and his squad are out for the championship is because in the conference system of scoring, a championship in two-mile counts as much as a first place spot in football, basketball, and all the other Big Six sports.

Glenn Funk, second lieutenant in the U. S. Marines, is working out with the track team. Glenn ran for UN in 1934, 1935 and 1936 and now is on the regular Marine rifle team.
