

Socially Speaking

By Jo Duree

Slightly grim game wasn't it... but those returning myriads from Minneapolis had good things to say and good good times to report...

Places on the campus were quite particularly still as everybody and their brother gathered around radios and murmured nary a monosyllable...

The Phi Deltas who stayed at home did just that with their dates at the Phi Delta Theta domicile... and the Union lounge was crammed with people who expended rapt attention on the loud speakers...

Phi Psi's whipped up a little spirit and gridiron skill last afternoon... or at least they tried until the arm of the law on a motorcycle lifted their football...

Around together more than once this week-end were Pi Phi Margaret Koupal and Rex Weaver, Kappa Sig... and Phi Sigs were Turnpiking wasn't it...

And some people including possibly Barb Bates, Kappa Delta, are wondering just what mayhap Acacia Harv Minnick has in mind with his dating of not one but several Alpha Chi's...

The Theta Xi's must've had a plenty salty little house party for they conscripted everybody and were definitely militaristic about the whole thing...

Wedding bells rang at the Alpha Xi Delta house yesterday. Shirley

Barb football entry deadline is Tuesday

Willard Kumpf, Barb Intramural office representative, announced today that all Barb clubs desiring to compete in the fall touch football program must be registered in the Intramural office by 5 p. m. Tuesday...

Any unaffiliated men attending the university who have not yet joined a club are urged to do so before the set deadline. Since play will begin Oct. 14, it is important that the registration be completed so that schedules can be arranged...

Although it is desirable that at least a dozen men form a club, as few as nine men may participate as a club. If possible, the clubs should be formed in individual rooming houses or in the same neighborhood...

Each team will be composed of nine men with the regular touch football rules enforced. All equipment will be provided by the Intramural office. The office has made a practice of presenting medals to the members of the first and second place teams at the close of the season...

Iowa U instructor to tell students how to 'rough it'

Roughing it smoothly will be the theme of the camp craft and leadership courses which Barbara Ellen Joy will conduct on the city and ag campuses during the week of Oct. 14-19.

Sponsored by the Women's Athletic association under the chairmanship of Elnora Sprague, Miss Joy comes to the campus to give training in camping and camp leadership. An ardent camping enthusiast, Miss Joy runs a private camp of her own besides teaching at Iowa U.

The camp craft course is a practical course in the making of camp, use of the knife and axe and preparation of appetizing meals over an open fire. Those taking this course will prepare their own meals and participate in other camp activities.

In order to have sufficient room the course will be held behind the activities building on the ag campus. A certificate which is a great help in getting summer camp jobs is given to all who complete the camp craft course. The leadership course intended for directors of camps consists of lectures and reading to be given in Grant Memorial.

General meetings will be held on both the city and ag campuses Wednesday to explain the registration and time requirements to all interested students. Meetings will be held on the ag campus at 12:30 and 5 p. m. in charge of Mrs. Danielson and on the city campus at the same times—12:30 and 5

Halfback Bob Thurbon and fullback George Kracum will be ring-leaders in the Pittsburgh attack this season.

Starting linemen in the opener were Rettinger and Gervails, ends; Benz and Konetsky, tackles; Fife and Gradisek, guards; and Sinco, center. The lineup sounds something like before the days when subsidization of players became tabooed by the head of the university.

In 1939 Pittsburgh's performance was five won, three lost and one tied. The Cornhuskers were victors 14-13 in their tussle. Charley Bowser's squad wasn't expected to do any winning against the Buckeyes, and the fact that they scored one touchdown and made more first downs than Ohio State should make future opponents more wary.

When they play the Cornhuskers, Pitt will be in its own backyard. And the Panthers are never found without extensive preparations for a battle with Nebraska. NEXT: Iowa State.

Pi Phi Lou Ide was absent from the capital city, for she left for Iowa City to see her Sigma Nu and the Iowa game...

Kappa Sigs are but slightly smoldering but still amazed at their pledges who, completely ignoring precedent, sneaked away with all the customary shoes, silver, and food but did the sneaking on Friday night...

Sometime Sunday will see the return of the lads who whipped over to Ames, Ia., to incidentally see a football game and see what kind of beds and food the Ames chapter can proffer...

Have a happy Sunday... the train comes in at ten... let's meet our team...

Game—

Several names stood out after the stands were emptied, but George Franck's was heard most of all. This 170 pound speedster ran with apparent ease thru the Husker line and around the ends.

A second team fullback—Bill Daley—smashed the Nebraska line with telling effects. The line work of Urban Odson, Bill Johnson and Gordon Paschka opened up those holes thru which the Gopher backs rambled.

For Nebraska, there was really no shining light that completely outshone all others. But Hermie Rohrig, Harry Hopp and Butch Luther ran with the best. Warren Alfson, Forrest Behm and Eddie Schwartzkopf and fourth-stringer Willard Bunker came in for the greater share of the line play.

Statistics point out the Gopher advantage in play. Minnesota out-yarded Nebraska 398 to 172. The Gophers marked up 14 first downs to seven for the Huskers. Nebraska had the edge in passes and punting.

Since Minnesota's game with Washington a week ago, the Gophers had apparently ironed out many of the errors that seemed to be troubling Bernie Bierman last week.

Officials: James Masker, Northwestern, referee; Ted O'Sullivan, Missouri, umpire; John Waldorf, Missouri, linesman; George Simpson, Wisconsin, field judge.

Touchdowns: Nebraska, Rohn; Minnesota, Daley, Johnson.

Try for point: Nebraska, Rohrig (placekick); Minnesota, Mernik (placekick). Substitutes: Nebraska, ends, Ladwick, Bunker, Wertman; tackles, Muskin, Herndon, Schleich; guards, Whitehead, Abelson, Burrus, Kelly; quarterbacks, Patsch, T. Thompson; halfbacks, Zikmund, Rohrig; fullbacks, Blue, Rohn.

Affiliated women are better churchgoers than greek men

By Dorothy Jordan.

According to a recent survey conducted by the NEBRASKAN, sorority women seem to be much better churchgoers than the average fraternity man.

Last Sunday was All-University Church Sunday, a day sponsored by the churches of Lincoln and the university in the hope of encouraging attendance among the students. This survey was carried on in the attempt to estimate how many of the Greeks responded.
