Pub Board sanctions barb bulletin 50.9 to 49.1 Percent Because of the long need for some form of bulletin to keep un-affiliated students posted on barb on the campus, At the same time, Norman Har-ris, editor of the Daily Nebraskan, announced that a barb editor activities the Board of Publications Officers choose staff. voted Tuesday night to approve an appropriation of $250 to cover the The staff will be chosen by barb appropriation of $250 to cover the cost of publishing such a bulletin for the first semester. The bulletin will carry no gen-eral campus news; only news of particular interest to barbs. No advertising will be run and each The DAILY NEBRASKAN Official Newspaper Of More Than 7,000 Students Franklin Roosevelt. Vol. 40, No. 15 Lincoln, Nebraska Wednesday, October 9, 1940

Seven new cheer leaders chosen

Final tryouts last night brought forth the new cheer leaders for the Cornhuskers for the year 1940-41. Out of a group of approximately 40, seven new men were named and two of last years leaders will hold over. Ralph Worden, Alpha Tau Omega, has already been announced as yell king.

Men chosen are Bob Jungman, Alpha Tau Omega; Rolland Jensen, Alpha Tau Omega; John Kuppinger, Alpha Tau Omega; Paul Svoboda, Sigma Nu; Gil Darst, Phi Gamma Delta; Max Whittaker, Delta Tau Delta; and Ed Dosek, Delta Tau Delta. Elton Wiley, Acacia, and cheer-leader last year, will serve as a holdover.

The committee in charge of selecting the yell leaders this year was made up of Elton Wiley, John Mason, Gerald Spahn, and George Gostas, all members of Innocents.

New cheer leaders are to meet at the stadium at 5 p. m. on Thursday and Friday to work on yells and leading, according to Worden.

Pictured above are Chuck Cheney, Gene Bradley, and Phil Weaver, announcers for the DAILY'S news program to be heard over KFOR five nights weekly at 7:30 p. m. Also on the staff but not pictured above are John Mason, John McDermott, Mary Jane McCarthy, and Frances Habermen.

Soph, junior

meet tomorrow

Sophomore and junior divisions of AWS will hold their first meeting at 5 p. m. Thursday in Ellen Smith hall. These groups are open to all women interested in activities and will carry on the ac-tual work of AWS.

Letters have been sent to upperclass women asking them to sign up for work by 5 p. m. Tuesday or come to the meeting Friday in room 316 of the Union.

Uni YMCA solicits $1,600 AWS members to carry on work next year

Furgeson, Peterson direct campus drive for funds; faculty goal set at $600, city goal makes up total

Solicitation of funds for support of the university YMCA are underway on the city and ag campuses, according to M. A. Hyde, chairman of the committee in charge. The goal has been set at $1,600 of which the university fac-Approximately 30,000 people ulty will contribute $600, and over Willkie in Daily poll By Ralph S. Combs.

Roosevelt takes slight lead

In a "photo-finish" President too much significance can be at-Roosevelt nosed out Wendell Will-kie in this week's DAILY NE-BRASKAN campus poll by the total of 50.9 percent against Will-

POLL RES	ULTS
	For Roosevelt	For Willkie
Total	50.9	49.1
Men	53.3	46.7
Women	46.5	53.5

kie's 49.1 percent in yesterday's tabulations. A sample of 5 per-cent of the entire university enrollment, divided proportionally among the colleges, was taken.

Arts and sciences college gave the nod to Roosevelt by 53 percent against 47 percent for Willkie. Willkie led Roosevelt 60.1 percent to 39.9 percent in bizad college. This fairly safe lead of Willkie's might indicate that business (at least among students of business in support of Willkie; a fact that is pertinent in consideration of the views on business expressed by Roosevelt and Willkie---Willkie, pro-business, and Roosevelt, prolabor.

the farm vote. Roosevelt, in most circles, is usually thought to be strong in the rural areas due to his extensive agricultural relief program. This tie on ag campus might be considered a moral vic-tory for Willkie.

Willkie. Engineering colleges pre- the profession. In spite of all this. sented F. D. R. with 62.5 percent he favors medicine as one of the backing, and gave the remaining most satisfying careers for those 37.5 percent to Willkie. Roosevelt's with the fortitude to meet its chalpolicy of extensive engineering and lenge. construction projects may be a strong vote puller among this occupational group.

erable percentage; therefore, not tached to these returns.

Men on the campus favored Roosevelt with 53.3 percent, and gave 46.7 percent of their support to Willkie. Willkie received 53.5 percent of the co-eds' support, and left 46.5 percent for Roosevelt. The comparison of results from the two sexes are almost inversely propor-tional-women pro-Willkie, and men pro-Roosevelt.

Of the 275 students polled only 52 will vote in the actual election. Among these voters, Roosevelt will get 24 votes, and the majority of 28 will go to Wendell Willkie. Willkie, then, will carry Roosevelt with 53.8 percent against 46.2 percent among university voters. On further segregation among the questionnaires answered, it was found that among the men,

(See SURVEY, page 3.) Dr. Fishbein

Carrying on his crusade against medical quacks and faddists, Dr. Morris Fishbein, famous AMA Journal editor, will speak in the and 50 percent for Roosevelt sult is possibly significant in the fact that Roosevelt did not carry the majority which most observers would expect him to receive among the farm vote. D paper column, the columns of the Journal, and the many books which he has written.

Writes book.

One of Dr. Fishbein's latest books is "Do You Want to Become a Doctor?" in which he Teachers' college supported Roosevelt 52.8 percent, and gave ical field and the long period of 47.2 percent of its strength to training required for entrance into

They edit the radio Daily

At the same time, Norman Harwould be added to the regular staff of the Daily. Any student with 27 hours of credit is eligible for this carried 66.5 percent and left 33.5 of health problems. At. 3 p. m., percent for Wendell Willkie. Due he will conduct a forum in the to the small enrollment in law col- Union, ballroom, when he will inlege, one vote either way would vite the audience to submit queshave changed the results a cousid- tions to him.

Dr. Fishbein will also discuss many of the important problems facing the profession of medicine Among the lawyers, Roosevelt and the general public in its study Committees will be organized at the meeting Thursday. This will also be a social meeting and refreshments will be served. Each month members will rotate from one committee to another so that they may become acquainted with all the work. Committee chairmen will be chosen and as the workers become more familiar with their work they will choose projects of their own which will be sponsored by the AWS board.

will witness the Indiana-Nebraska game Saturday according to John K. Selick, business manager of the athletic department.

Selleck predicts

30,000 will see

Saturday's tilt

There will be a comparatively small Indiana bloc, 200 at the most. Selleck announces that general admission, reserved and knothole seats will all be on sale the day of the game. "There will be no sell out" he said.

$1,000 wil be raised in the community.

Since the YMCA has been dropped from the support of the community chest, it must direct its own campaign for funds. The campaign ends today. Dean O. J. Ferguson is chairman for the city campus, and Dr. A. W. Peterson for ag campus.

Members of the solicitation committee besides the chairman, are: Ray Kinch, Dan Williams, Robert Schricker, Lee Rankin, Kenneth Lambie, Dr. Adin H. Webb, Frank Garey, Terry Williams, C. H. Patterson, Herbert E. Ford, Don Helmsdoerfer, M. K. Nelson, Harry Johnston, Homer Kyle.

Rifles select new members

At the first regular meeting of the Pershing Rifles, basic drill honorary, held yesterday, 46 new members were taken into the group. The new pledges are:

group. The new y Allen, Eugene Allen, Quintin Amnun, William Anderson, Esger Bakee, Richard Beuermeister, John Becker, Howard Berg, Dick Borghof, John Bosseoman, Hal Cullinan, Harold Denaing, Wayne DePutron, Adrion McCarthy, John A. McCarthy, John A. McCarthy, John A. McCarthy, John A. McCarthy, John C. McDonald, Guy Miller, Bob Mumford, Wilbur Munson, Robert Otiman, Bill Perry, Harry

Peters, John Doyle, Edward Doyle, Jeste Forende, Roburd Gienry, Rabert Gillis, Bab Hall, James Haming, Charles Haupiman, Charles Haupiman, Charles Hedstrom, Charles Hopklas, Julian Jourdan, Hutald Kuulaen, Lauis Kundhen, Lamis Latenser, Jack Pillsbury, Curdis Rasmussen, James Recev, Eugene Schappaugh, George Schappaugh, George Sengren, Bichard Shanyfelt, Donald Silverman, Bob Snuth, Frank Townsend, Janus Wykert, Paul

Theater opens with 'See My Lawyer'

Preparations complete for 7:30 curtain

University Theater will present its first production, "See My Lawyer," this evening at 7:30 in the Temple theater. The play, a fastmoving farce comedy, was written by Richard Maibaum and Harry Clork and produced by George Abbot, under whose direction the play had a successful year's run on Broadway.

The story revolves around three lawyers, fresh from law school, who incorporate and make a futile attempt to get clients. Because of the engagement of Arthur Lee, played by Clarence Flick, to Fay Frankel, portrayed by Josephine Gold, whose father is a delicates-

(See PLAYERS, page 4.)

-Lincoln Sunday Journal and Star.

University Theater players from left to right are: Mary Adelaide Hansen, Stan Klein, Irving Simon, Walter Kiechel, Glenn Nelson, Robert Gelwick, Max Whittacker, Josephine Gold, Clarence Flick.