

Socially Speaking

By Jo Duree

Candy went the rounds at the Alpha Chi house Monday evening when Ruth Conklin did the honors with Bob Denny, Phi Sig of a couple years ago....

And unhappy with John Miller are all the Kappa Sigs for admittedly he didn't like dunkings but he hasn't purchased cigars, either....

So, it was just another Monday night....

And the reason that all the little SDT pledges are no longer garbed in sweaters and skirts can be immediately traced to the actives who lifted all the pledges' conventional school wear... just to see how they'd look in dresses....

Phi Delt pledges sneaked and had such a lovely time that they think they'll do a repeat performance next Monday night.... As a peace offering, it seems, the neophyte Phi Delt brought back porch furniture... from Omaha, wasn't it?

And add social events: AOPi pledge tea Sunday and Kappa Delt houseparty Saturday night... and the KD's got quite cagey with their invites which are in the form of Circus circulars.... Then Sunday, again, the Tri Delt have invited all the fraternities over to tea... then Saturday the football team is entertaining Indiana....

Phi Sigs sneaked... conventionally, with all the trimmings... the actives finally found some clothes to wear... which reminds us of Warren Schroeder's laudable ambition... he's taking a page out of date books of the past and now, we hear, wants to hit every sorority in Pan-Hellenic....

At the Alpha Chi's houseparty nothing new and different in the couplings seems evident for June Stover will be with Acacia Harv Minnick, Kay Park with Allen Zikmund... after having watched them lunch together ad infinitum, that doesn't seem unpredictable... then Betsy Wright will be around with her Sig Nu from Northwestern....

And the Phi Delt, who have neglected to send out invitations and would like for everyone to know they're welcome Saturday night, will have among their number, beside all the people who always are with the same people, Dick Herman with a girl from Omaha Duchesne, Bus Black with Chi Omega Bethel Cambridge, and Fred Craft with the Alpha Phi who wears his pin, Betty Lou Wentz... another couple who should be lightening Monday evenings with a candy passing....

The Tri Delt playfully dampened three of the sisters the other night, too... Betty Dunn got her curls all wet because she and Farm House Bob Wheeler have held off on the sweets and cigars... Maxine Taylor got all wet because she and Sig Chi Don Marler refuse to pass the candy....

And the third Delta was iz Cross... Arlin McCartney... know....

sen proprietor, the firm eats well, tho they have no clients.

Debts pile up.

With debts piling up and bankruptcy around the corner, a millionaire playboy, Robert Carlin, played by Glenn Nelson, becomes the firm's benefactor, offering the four lawyers (Morris Schneerer, acted by Louis Meyer, entered the partnership later) $25,000 annually to defend him.

Acclaimed to be one of the most hilarious scenes is the pseudo-psychopathic examination of the playboy, shown here.

Armand Hunter, director of the theater, says that "the play is a hilarious comedy of the jack-in-the-box type, meant only for entertainment, with no thought of teaching a moral lesson." According to Hunter, rehearsals went as scheduled, and the actors, prop crew, and student directors have all rough spots ironed out and are ready for a "perfect first-night performance."

The cast includes:

- Fay Frankel.....Josephine Gold
 - Arthur Lee.....Clarence Flick
 - Joseph O'Rourke.....Walter Kiechel
 - Peter Russo.....Max Whittaker
 - Morris Schneerer.....Irving Simon
 - Sybil Tyler.....Maryellen Robson
 - Irving Frankel.....Robert Gelwick
 - Charlie.....Jack Hendrix
 - Mamie.....Rosemary Owens
 - Telephone man.....Robert Black
 - Robert Carlin.....Glenn Nelson
 - Ichiro Kato.....Gomulo Nodvella
 - S. B. Jamison.....Stan Klein
 - Telegraph boy.....Howard Lorenz
 - Shoeshine boy.....Kenneth Miller
 - Blossom LaVerne.....Mary Adelaide Hansen
 - stenographer.....Grace Halzda
 - waiter.....Neal Morrow
- On Friday the character of Morris Schneerer will be played by Louis Meyer.

Coed Counselors hold hobby group meetings for frosh

For all freshmen women interested in hobby groups sponsored by Coed Counselors, a meeting will be held today at 5 p. m. in Ellen Smith hall. Mary Bullock, Coed Counselor, urges all freshmen to attend and become acquainted with this part of activity life on the campus.

The Counselors will offer three hobby groups this year: charm school, tap dancing, and book reviews. Beth Howley will sponsor charm school, and Marion Cramer will be the leader. The sponsor of the tap dancing group will be Harriet Talbot, and Jean Cowden, who has taken tap lessons in Chicago, will be the instructor. Dorothy Latsch will sponsor the book reviews, which will include the Union book reviews of last year.

HARVARD'S HEAD COACH DICK HARLOW—he found he'd have to beat Harvard before Harvard could beat anybody else. Read this week's Post.

How's your FOOTBALL PSYCHOLOGY?

Read
"THEY DIDN'T NEED COACHING," by Dick Harlow

YOU'RE the new football coach. Your new team is terrible. The student body is indifferent as a clam. Player after player drops out of spring practice. Head Coach Dick Harlow tells how he shook Harvard out of its famed "indifference"... insulted Torby Macdonald into a 78-yard sprint for a touchdown... built a team around a man who broke his leg!

In this week's Post Harlow lets you in on some of the psychological gags that worked on the Crimson—and some that backfired. Buy the Post this week.
