Attention Be on hand for the DAILY radio edition every night at 7:15 station KFOR

The DAILY NEBRASKAN Official Newspaper Of More Than 7,000 Students

Lincoln, Nebraska

Attention Be on hand for The DAILY radio edition every night at 7:15 station KFOR

Friday, October 11, 1940

Vol. 40 No. 17

Magician to conduct Union show

Mortoni, uni baffler, to introduce vaudeville entertainers; plan film

Mortoni the Magician, well known as the student magician who has baffled the campus at parties and programs, will act as master of ceremonies for the first Union variety show to be given Saturday at 8 p. m. in the Union ballroom. The show will feature a student vaudeville and a fulllength picture, "Sailing Along," starring Jessie Matthews, British commedienne.

The vaudeville show will be presented by students who were "discovered" in the talent search conducted by the Union this year. Entertainers will be, besides Bill Morton as Mortoni, Jean Cowden, Bob Ellsworth, Raymond Barker and Nyel Moss.

Jean Cowden will present two tap dance novelty numbers. She has been studying dancing for the past ten years and studied this summer in Chicago with Muriel (See UNION, page 6.)

Who's the Hoosiers?

Absentee vote digest on file in Daily office

The DAILY NEBRASKAN has on file a Digest of Registration and Absentee Ballot Laws, It contains instructions for out-state students voting. The absentee ballot has been supplied by many states as a part of the democratic process to improve voting.

According to the DAILY edi-tor, Norman Harris, scores of students have not been voting in the past "because of misunderstanding as to what absentee voting in-volves. College students are under the same, if not greater, duty as other entropy of the participation of the band.

MORTONI He'll direct Union show.

Interfraternity Council fills 17 committee jobs

> Jack Cole heads group for ball; Kuppinger to direct rush revisions

Members of the Interfraternity Judiciary committee met last night and filled 17 positions on four Interfraternity Council standing committees for the year of 1940-41.

Heading the Interfraternity Ball committee will be Jack Cole, as chairman. Other members of the committee include Chris Petersen, Colin McDougall, Ernie Wintroub and Jack Castle. The ball is scheduled for Feb. 17. Work of that committee will begin immediately for the Council is endeavoring to make its affair the big show dance of the year.

Heading the rushing committee (See I-F COUNCIL, page 3.)

Miss Bishop filming held up by bad weather; cast chosen

Gigantic pep fest will ready team for Hoosiers

Rohrig, Alfson will captain Cornhuskers

> Passer Harold Hursh looms as major threat to a Nebraska victory

By Jim Evinger. Who's the Hoosier? Well, just about 4:30 on Saturday afternoon, we will know just who the Hoosier really is.

By that time, the Husker-Hoosier football classic will be history. Indiana will be the second con-(See HUSKERS, page 11.)

Barb publication

filings open today Filings open Friday morning for staff positions on the new barb publication, and will re-main open until 1:00 Monday noon. Positions to be filled are: editor, associate editor, ag campus editor, and business manager. All unaffiliated students interested in filing for these positions should leave their name at the Barb office, or with Blaine Sloan before noon Monday.

Who's the Hoosiers?

Co-captains

Lincoln Jour

Innocents plan UN traditions

> Men's honorary hopes to improve relations between uni and foes

Nebraska hospitality and sportsmanship will reach unprecedented heights at the game Saturday when the honorary asks fans to stand while the band plays a Hoosier song if they score against the Huskers.

Innocents society is sponsoring several innovations which are designed to increase good will between the Huskers and their respective foes. The society asks the full cooperation of all Cornhusker students and fans at the game.

As the final whistle blows, all Held up by cloudy weather Thursday morning, the Hollywood dean of women. Also assisting in moment and sing together an old

Husker spirit will hit peak at rally tonite

Victory Bell will call students together for giant parade to stadium

Rallying to the slogan, "Who's the Hoosier," Nebraska students will again tonight stage a big Husker football spirit demonstration.

Heeding the peals of old Victory Bell, the rally will organize before the Sudent Union at 6:45. Led by an 80 piece band and Tassels and Corn Cobs, the assemblage will parade down R street to 16th, up sorority row to Vine street, and thence to the stadium.

A gigantic fireworks display will greet the throng as they enter the stadium, Yell King Ralph Worden and his corps of assistants will lead the group in Cornhusker cheers. Assistant Coach Link Lyman will speak in behalf of the team, which will have gone to Ashland for the night.

Tassels and Corn Cobs, promiters of the rally, were highly gratified over the results of last week's rally and hope that the student body will turn out en masse tonight. Students are asked to attend the rally attired in red and white clothes combinations.

Who's the Hoosiers?

Innocents back display contest

other citizens to vote whenever possible."

A pamphlet containing the digest is on file in the DAILY NE-BRASKAN office for anyone's inspection every afternoon except to appear in a crowd scene, the Friday and Sunday from 1 to 4 p. m. before October 28. Out of Paul, production chief of Richard state students of voting age are Rowland Productions, has been as-urged to come down and look over sisted in the selection by Armand the material.

get under way early Friday scenes for "Cheers for Miss Bishop" involving student doubles and extras

With the exception of 300 men student cast has been selected. Val Rowland Productions, has been as-Hunter, director of the University Journal and Star, and Carroll Chouinard, university director of publicity.

50 students work.

Taking costume parts in this week's shooting will be some 50 students garbed in outfits of the early 1900's brought to Lincoln by the production's wardrobe depart- due next week, (See MOVIE, page 5.)

Members of Innocents will be on hand at the game to personally generate Nebraska spirit and good will.

Awgwan Flash says Frischer

"Sometime next week" is the date set by heads of the new Awgwan Flash for the first issue of the year. Most of the pages are made-up and ready for printing.

students not to be surprised to see their picture in the magazine, for test are: Cost must not exceed Flash photographers have been taking pictures on the campus for the past two weeks.

Student victims of the magazine's candid cameramen last Saturday night around midnight are asked to see Frischer in his office as soon as possible if they object to the running of the pictures.

Judges pick winners night before Tiger game

Innocents society, again spon-sors of the annual Homecoming decorations contest, announced today that displays will be judged Friday night, Oct. 25, the night before the Missouri game. Judges will be local artists and members of the Innocents society.

Organized houses and unaffiliated groups are welcome to enter, George Frischer, editor, warned Gerald Spahn, committee chair-udents not to be surprised to see man explained. Rules of the contwenty-five dollars, and a rough sketch of the decoration plans must be in the hands of the committee by 5 p. m., Oct. 16. Entries may also be mailed to the Awgwan Flash office,

> Other members on the committee are Carl Harnsburger and George Frischer.

Fishbein gives audience of 900 laugh with quack 'healer' speech general are the meccas for quacks.

Noted lecturer hits methods of psuedo healers

By Bob Schlater.

"Quacks have a following of authors, actors, bankers, and the intelligentsia, who are people edu-cated beyond their intellect," Dr. Morris Fishbein noted lecturer and spokesman for the American Medical association stated yesterday in his convocation speech to a crowd of approximately 900 in the Union.

Speaking rapidly and keeping the interested audience in laughter much of the time, Dr. Fishbein liscussed quacks and their effect on society. Beginning with "healers" of carliest time, he brought his lecture to a close with a lengthy exposition on Dr. John R. Brinkley whom he said is the greatest quack of all time.

California mecca for quacks. Los Angeles and California in Gradually we are pushing all of Fishbein chats them to the Pacific coast and in a few years we will be able to push them on into the Pacific ocean," he on study, war, stated.

Another statement made by the doctor brought applause and laughter from the audience when

(See LECTURER, page 7.)

Studio calls for extras;

may film movie today

All students with costume parts in "Cheers for Miss Bishop," Hollywood film for which scenes are being shot on the campus this week, should report to room 154 of the Temple at 8 o'clock this morning if the weather is clear for shooting.

Not all of the 300 men needed for a crowd scene Saturday morning have signed up yet and men wanting to work in the picture should report to the Temple as early as possible today. Students accepted will be assigned numbers and will be paid for their work.

medical field

By Marjorie Bruning.

"The most important thing a college student of today can learn is how to read," said Dr. Morris Fishbein in an interview yester-day preceding his lecture in the Union ballroom. "We must evaluate and analyze everything we read, news, advertisements, and books, by studying the technique used in slogans and the basis of all propaganda,"

Dr. Fishbein, who is famous as a debunker of quacks and medical fads, said that even health programs, such as a hospital bill which was recently introduced before congress, must be analyzed in relation to publicity and propaganda.

War affects nerves.

Dr. Fishbein communicates very frequently with his medical col-(See FISHBEIN, page 5.)

Daily sponsors doping contest

U. Dopemright and We Payemwell Attorneys-at-law. City of Lincoln.

Beginning with today's issue of the DAILY NEBRASKAN and continuing throughout the football season, a football doping contest, (sponsored by Lincoln merchants, in cooperation with this publication) will be held on each week end when a certain local football team, (representing the University of Nebraska under the name of the Cornhuskers) engages in a game upon its home field, located on the campus of said university.

The names of seven games to be played throughout the nation this week end are hidden within the advertisements on the back page of this publication; with the discovery of the names of those games, (seven in number) the contestant will have completed the first step toward the winning of one of the three prizes, depending, of course, upon the contestant's ability to dope the games thereon listed.

The prizes, $3, $2, and $1, respectively, will be awarded to those three contestants who most accurately predict the outcome of the games listed.