

Political speech shifts news time one night only

Due to a last minute change in the radio schedule of KFAB last night, a political speech was broadcast at 7:15 instead of the usual DAILY radio program. However, the program did come on the air at 6:30 p. m. Tonight the program will be restored to its regular time. Chuck Chaney will be announcing and Mary Jean McCarthy will present society news.

Socially Speaking

By Jo Durec

People are waking up in classes now before the bell rings and people are beginning to look like they were really back for an education and all that sort of thing...concentrating on next week-end now, you know...people are going to come home and there's a football game...

It really should be a hearty week-end...Corn Cobs will lunch business men Friday. Saturday there will be various festivities like campus honoraries eating with their alums before the fray which gobs of old and not so old grads won't be missing either...

That night should be fine...Corn Cob-Tassel party, traditional affair for a good time and seeing who's Pep Queen...nice flock of young women filed for that honor...possibly around to cast a vote for the right girl might, among everybody, be Phi Delt pledges Bob Stone with Kappa pledge Page Simrall of Missouri Uni., Steve Devoe with Chio pledge Jean Cowden, Mary Belle Hitchcock, Theta, with Phi Psi Jim Selzer, then DG pledge Betty Lou Waechter with Beta pledge Gordon Bryant...

Among the lads lately pledged are Bill Zinn, to Phi Gam, and Bob Black, Bill Barrett, Bill Reisenberg and Paul Toren to Sig Chi...felicitations, all...and while we mention Paul Toren it would seem a time to note that he, after conferring with the rest of the lads Joyce Junge, Pi Phi pledge, had batted in her league, has apparently checked out to find the little Tri Delt pledge, Mary Helen Dietrich...

Phi Gam pledges have elected Ray Treinen their president and the secretary-treasurer is Al Artman...

Theta Xi's per custom, had the Alpha Phi's over to eat venison, with Fred Klug the host...

Speaking of food the Phi Psi's and KKG's are going to hold forth at an exchange dinner tonight...ought to be ducedly nice for people like Leslie Boslaugh...who by the way, might possibly have his pin over there if the radio waves aren't erroneous...and it'll be another chance for Helen Coyne and Homer Rodgers to get together...they've been seeing an awful lot of each other for a spell now...

That KU jaunt certainly didn't dim the friendship of Phi Gam Al O'Conner and Mary Larkin...

Lowell Michael must have been serious when he said he was going to get interested in pretty Peggy Halstead, Alpha Phi...

In farewell, we wonder if you don't crave to see that black list, called rat list, that the Alpha Chi's have whipped up...seems some of the stellar men figure.

Hour features wind instruments

Continuing the program of illustrating one group of instruments each week, Harmony Hour will feature recordings demonstrating woodwind instruments Thursday. Program notes will be read by Keith Sturdevant. This musical hour held every Thursday at 4 p. m. in the Union is open to anyone who is interested in music. Musical instruments to be illustrated are:

- Clarinet: "Quintet in B Minor, Opus 115," Brahms.
- Oboe: "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring," Bach.
- English horn: "William Tell Overture," Rossini.
- Flute, piccolo and bassoon: "Dance of the Reed Flutes" and "Chinese Dance," from the Nutcracker Suite by Tschalkowsky.

Yearbook pictures taken

Reports from the studio last night showed Alpha Phi still in the lead by a large margin in percentage of pictures taken for the 1941 Cornhusker.

The tabulations are:

Juniors	12	Seniors	20
Sororities:
Alpha Phi	84%	Kappa Alpha Theta	2%
Pi Beta Phi	0%	Fraternities:
Zeta Beta Tau	56%	Alpha Sigma Phi	13%
Phi Delta Theta	9%	Sigma Chi	8%
Sigma Alpha Mu	3%	Acacia	0%
