

Harkness speaks to ASCE on maps

Various means of mapping by use of aerial photographs were discussed Wednesday evening by Prof. D. H. Harkness of the civil engineering department at the regular meeting of the student chapter of the American Society of Civil Engineers. Professor Harkness gave an illustrated lecture on "Photogrammetry" which is the work of obtaining surveys by means of photography. He stated that the use of photogrammetry is increasing in the engineering field.

Cues for the Coed Coed Hats

Coeds, this is really the big weekend—what with homecoming, the football game, open house at several sorority houses, dances and house parties. Among the sororities holding open house after the game will be the Alpha Phi's, Tri Delt's, A. O. Pi's, and the Theta's. To be seen at the A. O. Pi house party Friday night are Janet Shaw and Dick Miller, Margaret Hoppert and Harvey Lauer, and Bunny Chapline and Charles Shubert. You will have to be properly dressed for these occasions—hence some tips.

for sports and dress are featured at the Nancee Hat Shop. The Sorority may be worn in two smart ways—off the face or as a Poke. The Pork-pie and Judy are also a "must-have" on a coed's list. Both of these hats come in corduroy—and in all colors—priced at $1.00. One of Nancee's specialties is the variety of fur-trim hats to match chubbies or fur coats. See the fine selection of evening bags and angora mittens—all colors—priced from $1.00 to $1.95 at the Nancee Hat Shop. Look for the "Nancee" sign—133 So. 13th St. Phone 2-3033.

Church Notes

Roger Williams club.
The Roger Williams club, Baptist student organization, will start its regular Sunday meeting at the Baptist student house, 1440 Q, with a game period from 5 to 6 p. m. This will be followed by refreshments at 6 and a formal meeting at 6:30. The worship service will be conducted by Kenneth Covey with Mary Miller presiding. The guest speaker will be Mr. Robert Van Pelt, prominent Lincoln lawyer, who will speak on "A Lawyer Appraises the Ethics of His Profession and Christian Ideals."

Newman club.
The Newman club, Catholic student organization, will hold its monthly social hour from 4:30 to 5:30 p. m. Sunday in parlors of the Union. All Catholic students are cordially invited to attend.

Uni Episcopal.
The University Episcopal church at 13th and R will hold services at 8:30 and 11 a. m. Sunday. There will be a choral evensong at 6 p. m., followed by a dinner at 6:30. The Rev. Walworth Tyng of Changsha, China, will deliver an address at 7:30 on the Sino-Japanese political situation today. The public is cordially invited to attend the lecture.

Evangelical class.
Miss Edna Zamzow will conduct the Evangelical young people's class for those of college age at 9:45 a. m. Sunday in the Evangelical church at 33rd and Starr.

Lutheran group.
The Lutheran group will again have its Sunday worship service in parlors Y and Z, Union, with the Rev. H. Erck, of the Missouri synod, university student pastor, in charge. Since Sunday is Reformation Sunday, the sermon will deal with the blessings of the Reformation 400 years ago. Rev. Erck has noted a growing student interest in these Sunday services. All Lutheran students are invited to participate in the services of the following churches: First Lutheran, American Lutheran, Our Savior Lutheran, Grace, St. James, Friedens and St. Johns.

Presbyterian.
The college class of the First Presbyterian church will meet at 9:30 a. m. Sunday with Mr. D. B. Marti as teacher.
