

Socially Speaking

By Jo Duree

So Welcome Home alums and what with all the pedagogues floating around also isn't it a fine weekend...a definitely superior sort of rally incorporating a mob of people, a good new yell—Wahoo!—a singed tiger, and spirit... good old Nebraska U...

Up went homecoming decorations...scarcely a trouble did any one have putting up the brainstorms...except the Thetas who had insufficient props and had a little re-building to do...The DG's rolled out the barrels and Chi O's kept losing their little men and having to use another line on them...while the Sig Nu's lost their head...the tiger's head...and perforce had to borrow one from a downtown address...the Pi Phi's kept some one handy to explain theirs and the Phi Gams kept some pledges busy all night guarding theirs...the neophyte Figi's worked in shifts...and nothing happened...

The lone house party of last night more than made up for its number...AOPI's waxed political and had the GOP over...and, perfect hostesses, allowed democrats in their house...especially fine times seemed to have been had by Dorothy Latsch and ATO Bob Norton, Bunny Chapline and Charles Shubert and Betty Kohout and Phi Gam George Larson...

Still they went to Ak-Sar-Ben...Mary Adelaide Hansen of the Thetas and Beta Clark Ashton...KKG Shirley Hoofman with Phi Psi R. Rydman...Pi Phi's were well represented in Omaha with a contingent of Gay Gaden, Nancy Haycock, and Betty Orme all Ak-Sar-Bening...

Al O'Conner, Figi, is every Saturday night dating Mary Larkin...

And speaking of Saturday nights. Whee. It was a great game...everyone was lovely...everyone was keen but much as we hate to it looks like the prize for a plenty smooth date must go to the Mizzou team...their alum, one of the Orfs, was with a strictly fine-looking girl...

The PiKA 12th Street Brawl was among other things that made for a week end that we'll keep remembering...

PBK to hear political issues

Lincoln attorneys give both sides of campaign

Paul Good and Robert Van Pelt, Lincoln attorneys, will represent the two major political parties in presenting "Vital Issues of the Campaign" before members of Phi Beta Kappa Tuesday evening.

About 85 are expected to attend the dinner meeting which will be held in the Student Union at 6:15. Prof. C. M. Hicks, secretary-treasurer of the Nebraska chapter of PBK, is in charge of arrangements for the meeting and Dr. J. O. Hertzler, president, will preside and introduce the speakers.

Education board to establish film library

Text book facts will come to life on the screen with the decision of the visual education board to establish a sound film library.

Prof. R. E. Morgan, visual education department, explained that previously the department had been able to perform only such services as the preparation of lantern slides and general photographic work. Now they will be equipped not only to supply the movies for various university departments but also to furnish projection machines and operators.

Fires burn at rally . . .

In the biggest rally of the year, 3,000 students, alums, and Lincoln people, gathered around the huge bonfire on the mall between social sciences and Andrews to cheer Cornhuskers, yell, hear co-

Andrews to teach new course in legal medicine at law school

Introduction of a course of legal medicine in the university law college for which Dr. Clayton F. Andrews will be lecturer, was announced Saturday by Dean H. H. Foster. The new course will be correlated with the work in trial practice and practice court. Twelve or more lectures will be offered and members of the Lincoln Bar and the Lancaster County Medical association have been invited to attend.

"Increasing importance of medical evidence in the work of trial lawyers and courts, reforms urgently needed in the law as to expert witnesses, and desirability of better understanding and cooperation between the medical and legal professions make such a course highly desirable," stated Dean Foster.

Harvard law school has just established such a course with Dr.

Allan F. Moritz, a former Nebraskan, as lecturer, according to Dean Foster, and many medical schools including Nebraska's have courses in legal medicine given by lawyers.

Dr. Andrews received part of his pre-medical education at the university. He is holder of degrees from Creighton, Pennsylvania and Minnesota.

Grid bits—

All were beautiful and all were potential point getters. He was rushed by the Nebraska line and the receivers were rushed by the Nebraska secondary. Rushing bothers passers and perhaps that is what was bothering Mizzou and Christman.

The game's extra-point getters made three of four. Francis made one and missed one for Nebraska and Rohrig also picked up one for the Scarlet. Liebigh made the only Missouri attempt. All were via the place kicking method.

At various times during the game the Husker rooters were wondering just who was playing fullback for the Huskers. Sometimes it was Hopp on line smashes, then again it would be Luther, and there was always Francis to fall back on.

For Nebraska it was a case of everyone being used plenty. For Missouri it was a case of 11 men getting in on most of the work.

Minus leg, Banks McFabben leads Tiger cheering

Equally agile as any cheerleader, Banks McFabben, Missouri pep man, led Tiger fans in Memorial stadium yesterday afternoon altho he has but one leg.

While cheering Banks does not use crutches, but balances himself on his one leg and uses long hops to move about.

Home ec student finds shoes gone

A certain home economics student saw red yesterday in psychology class, when she suddenly discovered that her shoes were gone.

After entering the class, she had removed her shoes. At the end of the hour this young lady became extremely excited upon being unable to locate them. Other classmates joined in the hunt, and at last the shoes were found underneath a chair several rows away much to her relief and embarrassment.
