

Socially Speaking

By Jo Duree

Some are the chums who will forsake the town and its attendant amusements and join, figuratively speaking, the football team in taking Oklahoma... among those who plan thusly are Ed Coffee, DU, and Chio Lois Bequet; ATO's Clark Kuppinger, Mike Selzer and John Mason with Kappa's Jean Woods and Cecile Mitchell making a fivesome there... leaving John to think of V. Clemans, who is in Okla...

Alpha Chi pledge Marge Stewart has made a momentous decision it would seem... after but some six weeks Marge has decided that Omaha is just a point on the map and that henceforth all her week-ends will be spent elsewhere like in Lincoln...

Sneak nights and Monday eve-

Harmony Hour features brasses

Brass instruments will be featured in recordings on this week's Harmony Hour at 4 p. m. Thursday in the Union music room.

Various instruments and the numbers featuring them will be: trumpet, "The Messiah" by Handel, "Les Preludes" by Liszt; French horn, "Rhine Journey" by Götterdämmerung-Siegfried, Second Movement of "Symphony No. 5 in E Minor" by Tchaikovsky; trombone, "Tannhauser Overture" by Wagner; and tuba, "Pictures at an Exhibition" by Moussorgsky.

All are invited to attend the hours held every Thursday by Sinfonia, men's music honorary.

Kappa Phi to hear Drew speak tonight

Rev. R. E. Drew, Methodist student pastor, will discuss "Peace and the Church" at the Kappa Phi meeting tonight at Wesley Foundation, at 7 p. m.

In charge of arrangements for the meeting is Mae Dittmer. Hostesses will be Vivian Pugh and Jean Stroemer.

ning got along swimmingly... Sigma Nu's aroused themselves from meeting and lethargy to discover that the police were at the door as were the fire department, etc., and that again their pledges had flown... again, we said... it seems they enjoyed their other jaunt and so decided on a repeat performance...

Original lads are over at the SAM Inn also... they pulled a fastie and locked the door to the chapter room... with the chapter inside... who so intent on getting Sammie business attended to that a pledge had to knock on the window and wave good-bye...

And so Lynn Dale was formally pledged Chio... beautifully burdened with gardenias, too, from Kappa Sig Bill Flory...

Then for a fine Monday night there was the Theta-ATO candy passing when Priscilla Frances

Coed Counselors hear book review

Mrs. Warren B. Romans will review "Gypsy, Gypsy," by Rumer Goddin at the Coed Counselor book review which meets Thursday at 5 p. m. in the Union booknook. The book review group is sponsored by the Coed Counselors as part of their program of hobby groups for freshmen. All women students are invited to attend the reviews.

Chain and Wilbur Rogers took care of that...

One big deal for this week end is that the Kappa Sigs toss each autumn... they open house and have a barn dance... a few of the lads and the girls they'll be with might include Whizzer Mack with Delta Delta Delta Studevant, President Robert Kerl with Aopi Marcia Beckman, Ren Bukacek and, nothing new, KAT Alice McCampbell, and then Gale Neiswanger with Janet Harris...

While on Friday night the Thetas are having a house party and on Saturday night the Alpha Phi's are going to entertain likewise...

To-night the Phi Deltis and the DDD girls will eat dinner across the street both ways...

And the Sigma Chi's are banqueting a national officer... Dr. Henry McLean, who arrives in our town sometime this morning, judging where we look out for conformation—shape—I suppose I'd be expected to say form. But when it comes to women I'll take variance to the rule because you have to look at their face all the time.

Wendell Bayse, arts senior: I'll take form. There's no disputing figures. They don't lie.

'Y' groups meet on both campuses

Young people Christian groups will meet on both campuses today. At ag campus this noon an ag YM-YW luncheon will be held. At 7:15 p. m. city campus YMCA members will hear Rev. Ray E. Hunt, pastor of the First Christian church, speak on the subject, "The Ethical Aspects of Choosing a Vocation."

Program for the YM-YW luncheon, Bill Friesen, co-chairman, announced, will be continuance of a discussion of the place of rural schools in the present social order. Norma Jean Campbell is the other co-chairman of the committee.

Ag contributes $61 to YM fund

Sixty-one dollars was contributed to the YMCA funds by the ag cabinet and campaign workers at their luncheon Monday noon which opened the drive for funds among students on ag campus. Eleven members of the cabinet contributed $37.50, while workers gave $23.50.

Carroll Moon spoke on methods of securing funds. Bill James is directly in charge of the campaign on ag campus. A goal of $200 has been set.

Enrollment at Los Angeles City college, restricted because of crowded campus conditions, is down 12.8 percent.
