

Willkie gains landslide in weekly student poll

Willkie Roosevelt
TOTAL	71.2 28.8
Men	66.6 28.8
Women	75.8 24.2

By Ralph S. Combs.

Nebraska students landslide 71.2 percent of their support to Wendell Lewis Willkie and doted a meager 28.8 percent to Franklin Delano Roosevelt in this week's DAILY NEBRASKAN presidential poll.

Such an intense swing to Willkie might seem unbelievable if it were not for the fact that nation-wide polls, such as the Gallup poll, also indicate a growth in Willkie's strength. Last week's presidential box-score here on the campus gave Willkie 59.8 percent, leaving Roosevelt 40.2 percent.

Gains over country.

Willkie's gain of 11.4 percent does not seem so phenomenal when we consider that Nebraska is a republican state, and that border-line states and presumably democratic states the country over have been becoming stronger and stronger for Willkie. In other states a gain of 4 or 5 percent for Willkie would be proportionally comparable to an 11 percent gain in a republican state like Nebraska.

In the contest which began yesterday and which will end Nov. 12, gain in a republican state like Nebraska.

As in the previous NEBRASKAN polls, ag campus returns were closely correlated to the re-

Alpha Phis win yearbook prize

100% of members meet deadline for pictures

With 100 percent of their pictures taken, the Alpha Phi's won first place in the Cornhusker Greek picture-taking contest, which began Oct. 16 and ended Oct. 29. The free Cornhusker prize for the first sorority to obtain the 100 percent record, will be given to Eleanor Berner, president of the sorority. Alpha Phi is the only Greek society with complete section to date. Zeta Beta Tau, having 95 percent of its pictures taken, had the highest percentage of the group of fraternities in the contest which ended last Friday. Fifty-five seniors and 51 juniors have had their pictures taken so far.

Other results:

Other sorority results in this contest were as follows:
Pi Beta Phi.....89 percent
Kappa Alpha Theta..81 percent

Romans reviews 'Gypsy, Gypsy'

Rumer Goddin's "Gypsy, Gypsy," will be reviewed by Mrs. Warren B. Romans today at the Coed Counselor book review in the Union book nook at 5 p. m. The book review group, sponsored by Coed Counselors as part of their hobby group program, meets every other Thursday in the book nook, and invites all women students to attend.

YM starts Greek solicitation with 'kickoff' dinner tonight

Group campaigns to repair loss of Community Chest support

A special "kickoff dinner" to start a fraternity solicitation drive will be held tonight at 6 at the city Y. Representatives of all fraternities will be present at the dinner, where Prof. R. W. Russell will speak on the purpose of the Y.

Making up the deficit caused by the loss of Community Chest support and securing funds necessary for an expansion of the YMCA program on both campuses is the purpose of campaigns now being conducted among students, faculty and townspeople. C. D. Hayes, YM general secretary, stated yesterday.

"Funds solicited from students," Hayes declared, "will be used only for the YM program, and will not be applied on the administrative expenses of the Y." The completed faculty campaign, and the drive now being conducted in the community, are expected to very nearly compensate for the loss of chest support.

Barbs state platform for election

The Barb Union, believing that candidates in all campus elections should be chosen on merit, but also believing that there is no position that one of the 4,000 unaffiliated students, men and women, is not qualified to fill, and realizing that a Barb will never receive the consideration that his or her merit deserves until backed by an organization equal to that of affiliated students, announces the following policy:

First, that the Barb Union will endorse one, and only one, candidate, for each elective office.

Second, that the Barb Party will support the candidate thus endorsed 100%.

Kosmet Klub judges come, see, can't decide

Members scout choruses, dances; Trials end tonight

They came, they saw, and they couldn't decide.

So trudged the Kosmet Klub tryout committee members for the Fall Revue up and down fraternity row Tuesday night and last night. They judged everything from a hula dance to a pony chorus.

Filing into each house, they sat in a huddled group as solemn as judges should be. Some left with smiles, others with frowns. Maybe it was camouflage.

"After all," says President Cooksley, "the committee can't give any one house encouragement."

"Well what do you have?" is always the initial greeting from these talent scouts. After arranging themselves in this huddle they are ready for action. "Can we (See KOSMET KLUB, page 3.)

Faculty gives third recital

Presenting as part of its faculty recital piano renditions of "Rhapsody" by Dohnanyi and "Malaguena" by Lecuona, the university school of fine arts will give another in a series of programs Sunday at 3 p. m. in the Union.

Participating in the program will be Mrs. Lenore Burkett Van Kirk, soprano; Earnest Harrison, pianist; Emanuel Wisnow, violinist; and Herbert Schmidt, accompanist.

Other selections to be played by Harrison include "Voiles" by Debussy, and "Scherzo-Valse" by Crabrier.

Mrs. Van Kirk will sing "Sighing, Weeping, Trouble, Want" by Bach, "Sometimes," by Walther, and "Tacea la notte placida" from "Il Trovatore" by Verdi.

Hoover speaks at rally here

Ex-president gives major campaign address for GOP tonight in coliseum

Former President Herbert Hoover, in one of the three speeches that he is making in the present campaign, will appear tonight in the coliseum before a republican rally and over a coast-to-coast NBC broadcast hook-up tonight at 8.

A capacity crowd is expected to hear Hoover's major address, according to Guy Chambers, republican county chairman. A 20-piece band of Lincoln musicians directed by John Schildneck will play prior to Mr. Hoover's appearance. Charles Putney will lead com- (See HOOVER, page 4.)

'Glacier priest' to speak here on Arctic adventures

Rev. Bernard R. Hubbard, famed as the "Glacier Priest," will tell of his adventures in the Arctic in the Irving junior high school auditorium at 8:30 p. m., Nov. 8, under the auspices of the Newman club, Catholic student organization of the university.

He will accompany his lecture with his film "Oomiak Adventures in Arctic Alaska," a motion picture he filmed of his recent expedition in a primitive oomiak, a native vessel of walrus hide, on a 200 mile trip along the desolate shores of the far north.

Tickets to Father Hubbard's lecture may be obtained at the Union office, at Miller & Paine's book department, or at the Newman club office, room 205, Temple.

The display, part of a Zeiss camera display, includes photographs of Hollywood stars, extras, technicians and set taken in candid camera style. The exhibit is loaned to the Union by Kretschmer's Photography store and will be shown until Friday.

Band prepares new formations

The most difficult formations ever formed by the varsity band will be performed at the Nebraska-Iowa U. game a week from Saturday. Band members will form a tank and move across the field in a formation representing Nebraska's team attacking, and defeating, the Iowa U. team. The other important formation, a map of the United States, will be formed with a map of Nebraska in the middle.
